PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

down her house

FRIDAY 1:07 a.m. - Two boys on bicycles rode through private property on East Elm Avenue, Hermiston. The property owner told them to leave but they did not. A Umatilla County sheriff's deputy did not find the boys. 2:59 a.m. - The Morrow County Sheriff's Office and Boardman police responded to a 9-1-1 call about a silver Dodge Neon on three tires and one rim eastbound on Interstate 84 near Three Mile Canyon Farms and headed to Boardman. Law enforcement found the car at a rest stop, and the driver passed a sobriety test but refused a ride into town. Police told him they would impound his vehicle if he drives it, and he said he would call someone to get him in the morning. 8:30 a.m. - A caller reported the theft of a silver and purple 1999 Dodge with an aluminum flatbed from Westfall Septic, at Ione High School, Ione, while a wed-78131 Highway 207, Hermiston. ding was going on next door, and pushed 8:51 a.m. - A caller reported a man on items into the school pool, including a Adams Road, Pendleton, was burning a chair lift. The Morrow County Sheriff's Office caught the suspects, talked to the debris pile while a "red flag warning" was parents and gave the case to the county in effect due to the hot and dry weather.

9 a.m. - A Pendleton woman on Southwest Seventh Street yelled profanities and threatened a neighbor regarding mowing the lawn. The neighbor called police and said he was concerned she may not be taking medication she needs for her mental health

12:01 p.m. - Umatilla police issued a citation after a caller stated a black dog chased him through his yard on Cliff Street and he had to jump into his car to get away 1:19 p.m. - Pendleton police received a report of possible domestic violence at a home on Westgate Drive.

1:44 - 2 p.m. - Pendleton's code enforcement officer took down yard sale signs people posted on utility poles, which is a violation of city law.

4:01 p.m. - Another local sent money to scam artists. A Hermiston man this time reported a caller told him he won $29 million, a Mercedes and more cash from Publishers Clearing House. But to get the prizes, he needed to pay the IRS. The man said he sent $3,800 in all on June 1 and 2, then he sent $3,000 more Friday, but his wife and child told him to stop and go back to the bank, and he got back the $3,000.

5:50 p.m. - A woman told Umatilla police her boyfriend was harassing her and Thursday night hit her in the head. 6:30 p.m. - A Heppner woman reported she received a scam phone message claiming police would come if she did not call back concerning unpaid taxes. She said she wanted the sheriff's office aware if this and did not need contact. 7:09 p.m. - A man told Pendleton police someone entered his home on Southwest Goodwin Place and stole his wife's jewelry. 11:12 p.m. - A man and woman prowled through an orchard on Tootie Lane, Milton-Freewater, and tried to get into a house where an older person lives.

11:25 p.m. - A thief stole cans from the donation trailer at Irrigon High School, 315 S.E. Wyoming Ave., Irrigon.

Dachshunds needed for 10th annual Wiener Dog Race

East Oregonian

It's time to get dashing — the Children's Museum of Eastern Oregon is seeking dachshund owners to enter their dogs in the 10th annual Wiener Dog Race.

With a theme of The Dogtona 400, the event is Friday, June 24 at 6 p.m. in the 400 block of Main Street in downtown Pendleton. It's held adjacent to the weekly Pendleton Farmers' Market.

The entry fee for participating wiener dogs is $20 for those pre-registered by Thursday, June 23. The fee increases to $25 on race day. The race is limited to 40 participants, so dachshund owners are encouraged to register their pooches early. Prize packages will be awarded to the top three

The top dog at the Dogtona 400 will be one of six dachshunds to qualify to run in the televised Northwest Championship Wiener Dog Race.
