ARRESTS, CITATIONS

•Hermiston police arrested Orlando Garcilazo Madrigal, 30, no address provided, for unlawful use of a weapon, menacing and reckless driving.
 •Boardman police arrested Cirillo Ramos-Contreras, 34, of Boardman, for driving under the influence of intoxicants and felony hit and run with injury after he fled from a head-on crash. The collision happened around 9:45 p.m. on the 200 block of Main Street. Boardman Police Chief Rick Stokoe said an officer stopped Ramos-Contreras when he drove by dragging a front bumper. The officer talked with Ramos-Contreras, and determined he was intoxicated and had left a crash scene, the chief said. The officer then called for an ambulance and police to respond to the crash.
 Stokoe said the victim suffered an injury to an arm but declined an ambulance ride to a hospital. Ramos-Contreras ended up in the Umatilla County Jail, Pendleton.

SCHOLARSHIPS
