ARRESTS, CITATIONS

•Pendleton police arrested a wanted man after chasing him down and shooting him with a Taser stun gun.

Joey Adair Crooke, 23, of Pendleton, had an outstanding felony warrant for his arrest, according to Pendleton Police Chief Stuart Roberts, when an officer spotted him around 11 a.m. riding as a passenger in a vehicle. The cop stopped the car, and Crooke took off running, ignoring police commands to stop.

Crooke entered a nearby residence and attempted to hide, Roberts stated, and fled again when the officer arrived. Again Crooke ignored demands to stop.

The foot chase continued until Crooke paused.

Roberts reported the officer told Crooke to stop, give up or face the consequences at the hot end of a Taser.

"Crooke ignored the officer, and attempted to run," Roberts reported, "which is when he was tased."

Roberts stated Crooke told police he bolted because he thought he had a warrant and did not want to go to jail.

He also confirmed he heard and disregarded all of the officer's commands. He is now in the Umatilla County Jail, Pendleton.

•A report of a door-to-door sales scam led Pendleton police to arrest a Salem man on an outstanding statewide misdemeanor warrant.

A caller at 12:52 p.m. reported two young men, one black and one white, were on Northwest Johns Landing "selling scam items" for a contest. Police looked around the area and found James Lowell Wilborn, 20, on nearby Northwest Fourth Street and arrested him on the warrant and booked him into the Umatilla County Jail, Pendleton.

•Milton-Freewater police arrested Ricky Angel Pardo, 23, of 302 S.E. 19th St., Milton-Freewater, for first-degree theft.
