

PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

MONDAY

9:11 a.m. - A Pendleton woman reported her father and brothers threatened her because they think she pawned items they owned.

9:56 a.m. - An Irrigon woman on Southwest Utah Avenue reported six kittens were under her hot tub on the back porch.

10:16 a.m. - Pendleton police received a second-hand report that a father moved in with his adult son, and the son left and locked the father inside. The caller asked police to check on the father because she believed this was abusive.

10:56 a.m. - A Pendleton mother reported her son ran away from home.

11:20 a.m. - The previous manager of Wild Rose RV Park, 1500 S.E. Byers Ave., Pendleton, withheld mail from renters, a caller reported, and the current managers asked police for advice on what to do with the mail now. The caller, though, was not able to provide the name of the previous manager.

12:01 p.m. - A caller reported a driver of a black Nissan two-door with Washington plates was on North First Street, Irrigon, and smoking a glass pipe in the car, the kind of pipe people use to smoke methamphetamine.

12:04 p.m. - A resident on Southeast 17th Street, Pendleton, reported a break-in and theft of her 65-inch TV.

2:57 p.m. - Another Pendleton mother reported her son as a runaway.

3:21 p.m. - An lone woman reported a rattlesnake was trying to come onto her porch, and when she tried to use a fire extinguisher to run it off, the snake only became angry.

3:39 p.m. - A man told Pendleton police his ex-wife notified him she is moving to Indiana with their children next month, yet he has "paperwork" stating she can't do that. He asked for an officer to review the document.

3:59 p.m. - The manager of America's Best Value Inn, 201 S.W. Court Ave., Pendleton, reported the business refused to let a male use the bathroom. The male then cussed at the caller, went outside and urinated in the front entrance of the building. He then left in a Honda Civic. Police did not find the suspect.

5:07 p.m. - An Athena man discovered someone entered his car on North Third Street and tore out and cut all the wires under the dash.

7:03 p.m. - Three juveniles walked up to the home of a Pendleton woman on Northwest Fourth Street and asked her for a cigarette, and one of them jumped across her retaining wall and boasted he could "jump across her car." And another said he was intoxicated. The trio turned on Northwest Ellis Avenue toward Main Street.

7:53 p.m. - A Hermiston husband on Hat Rock Road reported the neighbor who threatened his wife tried to give her a letter regarding his personal business but she did not want it and feels like he is watching her all the time.

9:23 p.m. - Two men, both 40-50, were with a younger American Indian woman who was intoxicated on the Pendleton River Parkway near Southeast Eighth Street Bridge and Byers Avenue, when a passerby asked her if she was OK. The men told the passerby to mind her own business.

She called police, though, but said the incident was 15 minute earlier. Police were not able to find the two men or female.
