

PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

TUESDAY

12:15 a.m. - A caller reported he saw a female walking on Ott Road, Hermiston, and gave her a ride. She claimed her boyfriend threatened her, held a gun to her head, stole $800 dollars and kicked her out of a vehicle at Ott and Airport roads. The female, though, who said her name was "Avalon," did not want to go to police because she has a warrant out of Clackamas County. The caller said he took her to the Umatilla Inn, Umatilla. Law enforcement did not find her.

7:05 a.m. - The Umatilla County Sheriff's Office received a tip from Milton-Freewater police that transients could be setting up a camp on the east side of the cemetery bridge at Southeast Ninth Avenue and Walnut Street, Milton-Freewater.

8:54 a.m. - A Milton-Freewater man reported the theft of his Kimber pocket-sized .280-caliber handgun either from his vehicle or home on Daniel Court.

10:48 a.m. - A German Shepherd on Daytona Lane, Hermiston, attacked a neighbor's chickens, killing one and nearly killing or injuring others. The owner of the fowl reported this has happened before and would shoot the dog.

11:38 a.m. - An lone business owner reported he received a flyer from a company in Portland using his business phone number.

12:20 p.m. - A man walked into an empty room at the Best Western, 400 S.E. Nye Ave., Pendleton, used the shower, the toilet and the bed, then walked away when staff found him and headed to the nearby Motel 6.

2:01 p.m. - Three boys stole a purse from a Pilot Rock swim program student at the Pendleton Family Aquatic Center, 1901 N.W. Carden Ave., Pendleton.

2:02 p.m. - A Pendleton man on Southwest Goodwin Avenue reported the theft of his 2006 Dodge Charger. He said a potential buyer took the car for a test drive, but that was more than an hour ago.

3 p.m. - A Morrow County deputy sheriff assisted a school bus with children that broke down on Interstate 84 east of Boardman.

4:08 p.m. - An Athena resident wanted to talk to a Umatilla County sheriff's deputy about liabilities and laws regarding drinking at an event she plans to hold this summer.

4:35 p.m. - An Irrigon caller on Southwest Wyoming Avenue reported someone tried to hit her with a cellphone and threatened to hit her little sister. A Morrow County sheriff's deputy arrived and told everyone they need to be civil and separate if they cannot.

5:43 p.m. - A child in Echo swallowed iodine, which promoted an adult to contact "poison control," where someone advised her the substance was not toxic but could cause a stomach ache and vomiting, so no need for an ambulance.

6:16 p.m. - Pendleton police received a report of a male hitting his girlfriend at an apartment on Southeast Second Street.

8:41 p.m. - A Milton-Freewater woman called 9-1-1 after a confrontation. She said she was driving to her home on Sunquist Road while hauling a trailer with four horses inside when a driver in front of her stopped. She slowed, she said, and drove around the vehicle and went home.

The driver, though, followed her home, screamed and threatened her and claimed she stopped due to an injured bird, which the caller ended up driving over.

The caller also said she took a photo of the woman's vehicle before she left.

10:52 - An aunt reported her nephew around 9:30 p.m. in Pendleton ran away with "over aged girls" and had not returned.

10:57 - A taxi driver called 9-1-1 after he arrived at a house at Southwest Emigrant Avenue and First Street, Pendleton, and a female came out, told him to call, and she "looked to have a gun down the back of her pants" and there was no one else around.
