

PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

MONDAY

5:25 a.m. - An Oregon State Police trooper responded to a vehicle stopped and causing a road hazard on the westbound side of Interstate 84 near milepost 218 a few miles from Pendleton. The trooper found the driver, a 54-year-old woman, needed medical help. He called for an ambulance, which took her to St. Anthony Hospital, Pendleton.

7:53 a.m. - A man brought several identification and insurance cards to the Milton-Freewater Police Department after finding them at Spofford Road near Cemetery Road, Milton-Freewater.

8:25 a.m. - A caller told Umatilla police a man parked a blue four-door car next to the cemetery and tried to wave people into the cemetery, was talking to himself and shaking the cemetery gates.

9:35 a.m. - A Pendleton resident reported her roommate last month stole her $225 that was for rent.

10:28 a.m. - A 9-1-1 caller reported she put $140 down on two couches at a place on Malcolm Street, Hermiston, and now does not want to pay for them, and she cannot afford to, either, and the seller will not give back the money.

12:05 p.m. - A couple fought near the U.S. Post Office, 104 S.W. Dorion Ave., Pendleton. A witness said the female punched the male in the face and knocked his glasses off, then the male pushed the female and she tried to hit him again. They then walked on the north side of Dorion past the drive-up mailboxes.

12:18 p.m. - Residents on West Ridgeway Avenue, Hermiston, called 9-1-1 on their neighbor. They said he was spray painting a truck in the driveway, and when they asked him to move so they could park their vehicle, he yelled at them and went back inside. They asked for police to come to the scene.

12:34 p.m. - An off-duty Umatilla tribal police officer reported a male is blocking traffic on Southwest 20th Street, Pendleton, by Safeway. The officer said the male picks fights with anyone who tries to help him, and after they pushed his vehicle out of the road once, he got it back and blocked the road again.

12:50 p.m. - A caller reported a husky jumped from a pickup bed in the parking lot of Home Depot, 300 W. Harper Road, Hermiston, and went to nearby shade, and the dog's owner dragged the animal across the hot pavement and hit it several times. Police were not able to find the pet abuser.

1:43 p.m. - Hermiston police received a 9-1-1 report of a dog locked in a car with the windows up at Butte Park near the spray park on Northwest Seventh Street. Officers did not find the dog.

3:18 p.m. - CHS Nutrition, 300 W. Feedville Road, Hermiston, reported a break-in at a maintenance shop and the theft of several items.

7:27 p.m. - Two dogs for the past two weeks on East Tamarack Avenue, Hermiston, have barked day and night, a caller reported, and it is very annoying.

7:28 p.m. - Hermiston police responded to the Midway Bar & Grill, 1750 N. First St., for a dog inside a silver GMC Sierra pickup with all the windows rolled up. This time, police issued a warning about keeping pets inside vehicles during hot weather.

8:05 - A mother asked Pendleton police to check on her daughter's welfare. She said she tried to talk to her daughter at her home on Southwest Marshall Avenue, Pendleton, but her daughter reported her grandmother and great-aunt would not let her leave the house.

8:09 p.m. - A mother complained to Umatilla police about the owner of Honey Bunnz Hideout, the nude dancing joint at 1201 Sixth St., Umatilla, not allowing her or her daughter to retrieve the daughter's belongings after losing her job there last week.

10:24 p.m. - A woman on North Prescott Street, Echo, reported the theft of several items from her room.

10:26 p.m. - A customer leaving the Pendleton Wal-Mart reported someone scratched the paint of his vehicle and wrote in the dirt "all over the car."

ARRESTS, CITATIONS

•Pendleton police arrested Jessica Lynn Maret, 36, of Pendleton, for felony fourth-degree assault.

•Hermiston police arrested Pedro Matira Pablo, 21, of Hermiston, on four counts of possession of a forged instrument and one of identity theft, all felonies.

Corley

Patrick Louis Corley
Pendleton
June 5, 1968-June 24, 2016

Patrick Louis Corley was born in Pendleton on June 5, 1968, to Louis and Mary Corley. He was the youngest of five and learned the fine art of teasing and tormenting from his four older siblings, Sarah, Mike, Bill and Sandy. Pat was preceded in death by his father Louis Corley and his nephew Seth Blakeslee.

Pat is survived by his mother Mary Corley of Ukiah, Oregon; his wife, Renee Corley of Pendleton; his daughter Bria and her husband Joe Miller of Darrington; his daughter Madison Corley of Everett, Washington; his daughter Jordan Corley and her boyfriend Dustin Horn of Astoria; his son John Reyes and fiancée Sharon Wise of Pendleton; his sister Sarah and her husband Pat West; his brother Mike Corley and his wife Myla of Long Creek; his brother Bill Corley and his wife Diane of Pendleton; his sister Sandy Corley of Monument; his grandchildren Berlyn, Evan and Kaden; his nieces Jamie West and Lisa; and his nephews Ryan Wolf, Scott Wolf, Tim West, Ben, Max, Matt, Colton Blakeslee and Stephen Easley.

Pat was raised in Ukiah, Oregon, and graduated from Ukiah High School in 1986. He was always proud to wear the Cougar uniform as he participated in both cross country and basketball throughout junior high and high school.

On October 29, 1987, Pat married the love of his life, Renee Easley, and then the happy couple began their journey together as parents. With loving arms Pat welcomed each of his three girls, Bria, Madison and Jordan, and his son, John, into his home and into his heart, making each one feel as if they were the center of his universe. In addition to raising their own children, Pat and Renee were also foster parents to many children.

Pat was a man of integrity, a man of honesty, and a man of God. He told his children and other young people in his life to always be honest, and do what you say you are going to do. Pat was an active member of The Church of Christ, and just last Thursday, after men's bible class, he thought out loud, "I wonder what paradise is going to look like?"

Pat did not comprehend the word stranger, and if you've ever met Pat, you know why ... strangers were just friends he hadn't met yet, and friends were an extended version of his family. Pat had a way of putting everyone at ease with his sweet smile, witty sense of humor, and his charming demeanor. His smile welcomed those who were down on their luck, encouraged those who needed that extra little push, and touched the heart and souls of his family and friends.

Pat loved anything that had to do with being outside. From waterskiing to fishing, from boating to snow skiing, from motorcycle riding to logging, Pat loved it all, and if he had his family there to enjoy it with him, then the activity was just that much sweeter.

Pat Corley was one of a kind. Even after 29 years of marriage he still opened the car door for his wife Renee and even though all the kids have grown up and live away from home, he would still call them to check in with them on a regular basis.

He was known to have a solution to everything, and could fix just about anything that was broken; whether it was a car that needed some TLC or a broken heart, Pat was the "go to" guy that everyone called on when they needed a helping hand, or a shoulder to cry on.

Pat took the old adage of "he'd give you the shirt off of his back" one step further when he gave a hitchhiker a car so that the man could make his way back to his family in Utah. Yes, Pat Corley was truly one of a kind.

Pat would be comforted in the fact that he equipped his family well. He prepared them to stand when all they would like to do is crumble. He taught them to live, even though they, during this time, feel like dying themselves. He showed them what it looks like to be a good son, a good brother, a good nephew, a good uncle, a good husband, a good dad, and a good grandpa. He created a legacy in his children and his friends who will carry on his tradition. The tradition of being a person of integrity, a person of honor, a person worth knowing and a person worth loving.

No one knows what was going through Pat's mind in the early morning hours of June 24, but one can guess that he said a little prayer thanking God for the beauty that not only surrounded him, but that fed his heart and soul his entire life. He may have even asked God to bless his family and friends as he wished they could also experience God's handiwork that morning as the sun rose over the Eastern Oregon mountains. He was most likely smiling that morning as he rode to work, happy with life and thrilled to be a part of his brother's logging crew, and he undoubtedly wore the same charming smile as our Good Lord welcomed him Home with loving arms.

The Celebration of Life will be held at the Vert Auditorium at 480 S.W. Dorion Ave., Pendleton, Oregon, on Friday, July 1st. The service will be at 10 a.m., graveside service in Athena then a potluck reception for all at the Vert Auditorium.

OBITUARIES

Rose Carey

Pendleton
August 31, 1937-June 25, 2016

Rose Carey, longtime Pendleton resident died Saturday, June 25, 2016, at St. Mary Medical Center in Walla Walla, Wash. She was 78 years old.

A recitation of the rosary will be held at 9:30 a.m. Tuesday, July 5, 2016, at St. Andrew's Mission, followed by memorial mass. A reception will follow at 11:00 a.m. in the mission hall. Burial will be in the Hermiston Cemetery at 2:00 p.m.. Donations may be made in Rose's honor to St. Andrew's Mission, 40822 St. Andrew's Road, Pendleton, Ore. Sign the online condolence book at www.burnsmortuary.com. Burns Mortuary of Pendleton handled arrangements.

Rose was raised on the family farm in Boardman, Ore. She attended Boardman public schools, graduating from high school in 1955. She then attended Marylhurst College in Portland for a year. Rose married Bill in 1960 and started their family in Pendleton, Ore.

Rose was employed at Jaynes Business Machines and U.S. Bank in her early years. She then worked as the catalog supervisor at J.C. Penney. She retired in 2006 after 25-plus years.

She lived her life as a devoted Catholic and often prayed for others. Rose was the glue that held her family together. She was a humble, loving, devoted mother, grandmother, and wife. Her pride and joy was her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Rose enjoyed the outdoors, camping, walking and gardening. She enjoyed being the host for all the family gatherings and holidays. She also had a passion for cooking and spending time with her family. She loved visiting the coast. She found herself reading in her spare time, as well as telling stories about her childhood. Everyone who was close to Rose knew she had indescribable sense of humor that would cause everyone around her to laugh and smile. Her humor often reflected her strong political views. She faced pulmonary fibrosis with great courage and strength

She is survived by her husband Bill of Pendleton; sister Bea Ledbetter of Pendleton; brother Peter Cassidy of Morgan Hill, Calif.; sons Patrick of Pendleton and Daniel of Meacham, Ore.; daughters Jeanette (Bill Thomas) of Pendleton, Chris Gilman (Tim) of Boise, Idaho, and Ann Zyph (Bill) of Pendleton; grandchildren Chad Thomas, Renee Hilderbrand, Shelby Carey, Chynne Carey, Ryan Carey, Kimmy Carey, Tyler Zyph, Caitlin Zyph, Ian Gilman and Cassidy Gilman; great-grandchildren Shaelee, Aden, Jace, Cade, Emmalyn Hilderbrand, Brittany and Ryker Thomas, Lannie Carey, and Alex Warneking.
