

PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

TUESDAY

8:06 a.m. - A man told Pendleton police he paid $7 cash for gas two weeks ago at a station on Westgate but did not believe he received any fuel.

8:20 a.m. - Four people slept — and trespassed — by the door at the Salvation Army Community Center, 150 S.E. Emigrant Ave., Pendleton, and one sleeper had his pants down.

12:10 p.m. - A male acted aggressively toward a female during an argument while walking on East Coe Avenue, Stanfield, toward South Edwards Road.

1:50 p.m. - Pendleton police received a request to check on a resident at Blue Mountain Village Apartments, 2700 S.W. Goodwin Ave., Pendleton, who could be using drugs and has a small baby.

2:35 p.m. - Someone dumped three truckloads of tires at the McNary Yacht Club, 34099 Beach Shore Drive, Hermiston.

2:38 p.m. - A Milton-Freewater resident reported the theft of a revolver from the 900 block of Cowl Street.

2:43 p.m. - A man said he was a guest at a Pendleton hotel a couple of weeks ago on his way to see his father who suffered a heart attack in Utah when someone stole the $800 luggage container from his vehicle and about $1,200 in clothing, and they damaged the vehicle as well.

3:28 p.m. - A Umatilla man reported his "ex" broke into his house on El Monte Street.

6:50 p.m. - Three people got into a fight behind In-Home Medical Inc., 301 S.W. 20th St., Pendleton.

7:20 p.m. - A Stanfield mother told police she gave her son 30 days to move from her property on East Harding Avenue, and he threw her refrigerator out of the residence.

7:23 p.m. - A caller told Pendleton police a man on Northwest Sixth Street punched a dog in the face and threw the dog by the collar. Police were not able to find the dog abuser.

7:36 p.m. - Someone slashed the tires on a four-wheeler at Birch Creek and Tum A Lum roads, Milton-Freewater.

8:29 p.m. - Thieves took a big screen TV, a Blu-ray player and more from a home on East Punkin Center Road, Hermiston. The house sitter reported she was gone for a month on military training, and the occupant is on military deployment.

8:54 p.m. - Pendleton police received a call for an officer to check on the well-being of people renting a home on Southeast 16th Street after a female there threatened to kill people.

9:38 p.m. - Oregon State Police and the Morrow County Sheriff's Office responded to a domestic disturbance at a residence on Southwest Wyoming Avenue, Lexington.

ARRESTS, CITATIONS

*Pendleton police arrested Mariah Shaunikia Ray Wright, 24, and Cameron Spencer Smith, 20, both of Pendleton, for third-degree assault. Police Chief Stuart Roberts reported they beat a male that owed them money for marijuana.

HERMISTON

Dog attack sends woman to hospital

East Oregonian

A 59-year-old Hermiston woman was taken to Good Shepherd Medical Center Tuesday morning after a reported dog attack.

Emergency services responded to the walking path parallel to Diagonal Road near Hermiston around 8:45 a.m. Sgt. Joshua Roberts of the Umatilla County Sheriff's office said the woman sustained a laceration on her arm that required medical attention, but was not life-threatening.

The owner of the dog was cited and is required to quarantine the animal for the next 10 days. The case is still active and has been referred to the Umatilla District Attorney's office.

OBITUARY POLICY

The East Oregonian publishes paid obituaries. The obituary can include small photos and, for veterans, a flag symbol at no charge.

OBITUARIES

Rose Carey

Pendleton
August 31, 1937-June 25, 2016

Rose Carey, longtime Pendleton resident died Saturday, June 25, 2016, at St. Mary Medical Center in Walla Walla, Wash. She was 78 years old.

A recitation of the rosary will be held at 9:30 a.m. Tuesday, July 5, 2016, at St. Andrew's Mission, followed by memorial mass. A reception will follow at 11:00 a.m. in the mission hall. Burial will be in the Hermiston Cemetery at 2:00 p.m.. Donations may be made in Rose's honor to St. Andrew's Mission, 40822 St. Andrew's Road, Pendleton, Ore. Sign the online condolence book at www.burnsmortuary.com. Burns Mortuary of Pendleton handled arrangements.

Rose was raised on the family farm in Boardman, Ore. She attended Boardman public schools, graduating from high school in 1955. She then attended Marylhurst College in Portland for a year. Rose married Bill in 1960 and started their family in Pendleton, Ore.

Rose was employed at Jaynes Business Machines and U.S. Bank in her early years. She then worked as the catalog supervisor at J.C. Penney. She retired in 2006 after 25-plus years.

She lived her life as a devoted Catholic and often prayed for others. Rose was the glue that held her family together. She was a humble, loving, devoted mother, grandmother, and wife. Her pride and joy was her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Rose enjoyed the outdoors, camping, walking and gardening. She enjoyed being the host for all the family gatherings and holidays. She also had a passion for cooking and spending time with her family. She loved visiting the coast.

She found herself reading in her spare time, as well as telling stories about her childhood. Everyone who was close to Rose knew she had indescribable sense of humor that would cause everyone around her to laugh and smile. Her humor often reflected her strong political views. She faced pulmonary fibrosis with great courage and strength.

She is survived by her husband Bill of Pendleton; sister Bea Ledbetter of Pendleton; brother Peter Cassidy of Morgan Hill, Calif.; sons Patrick of Pendleton and Daniel of Meacham, Ore.; daughters Jeanette (Bill Thomas) of Pendleton, Chris Gilman (Tim) of Boise, Idaho, and Ann Zypf (Bill) of Pendleton; grandchildren Chad Thomas, Renee Hilderbrand, Shelby Carey, Sierra Carey, Colton Carey, Chynne Carey, Ryan Carey, Kimmy Carey, Tyler Zypf, Caitlin Zypf, Ian Gilman and Cassidy Gilman; great-grandchildren Shaelee, Aden, Jace, Cade, Emmalyn Hilderbrand, Brittany and Ryker Thomas, Lannie Carey, and Alex Warneking.

She was preceded in death by her parents Michael and Marie Cassidy, her sister Ellen Nooy and her brother Michael Cassidy.
