

PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

TUESDAY

12:29 a.m. - A Pendleton woman on Southwest Marshall Avenue asked police to send an officer because her ex-boyfriend has been stalking her house.

1:23 a.m. - A male punched the drive-through window at Jack in the Box, 1904 S.W. Court Place, Pendleton, and then urinated in the drive-through.

11:12 a.m. - A Pendleton woman reported a male came to her residence at Indian Hills Village Apartments, 1335 S.W. Second St., Pendleton, and threatened to assault her.

12:51 p.m. - Two raccoons climbed into a tree on a Pilot Rock man's property at Southwest 10th Street.

1:52 p.m. - A mail carrier asked for a welfare check for a man on West Hermiston Avenue because his mail is piling up.

3:52 p.m. - Pilot Rock police checked into a solid waste complaint on the 100 block of South Alder Street.

5:54 p.m. - Two "kids" looked like they were trying to get into vehicles in the Safeway parking lot, according to a caller, and were walking across Highway 395 on North Fourth Street. At 6:24 p.m. a man reported his car had been stolen after it was parked there since 8 a.m.

6:37 p.m. - Scammers trapped another local victim. A Stanfield woman reported two men pretending to be "Capt. Holloway and Lt. Doyle" with the Umatilla County Sheriff's Office scammed her out of more than $900. The sheriff's office has no such captain or lieutenant.

8:46 p.m. - Pendleton police looked for but did not find a boy around 12 years old that a caller reported threw rocks at Washington Elementary School, 1205 S.E. Byers Ave., Pendleton.

8:48 p.m. - A woman on Northwest 11th Street, Hermiston, reported she found a possible pipe bomb in her mailbox and moved the item into her house.

9 p.m. - A resident on Chukar Circle, Umatilla, complained about the neighbor's pit bull dog always at large.

9:27 p.m. - A crisis team received a call to help a suicidal person in Pendleton.

WEDNESDAY

12:35 a.m. - A Milton-Freewater man discovered someone entered his house on the 100 block of North Main Street and stole several bottles of cologne.

12:45 a.m. - Pendleton police received a 9-1-1 call about a suspicious situation at Knights Inn, 310 S.W. Dorion Ave. The caller reported a man in his mid-50s was with three underage girls who "seemed to be terrified but loyal" to the man and would not do anything without his permission. The caller was worried about the girls.

3:04 a.m. - A Hermiston woman on Northwest 12th Street reported a burglar came through the back window and stole $500 in change sometime between 5 p.m. and 2 a.m.

6:50 a.m. - Someone slashed tires on two vehicles on the 100 block of South Columbia Street, Milton-Freewater. Almost 12 hours later, a Milton-Freewater business owner on the same street reported several broken windows at his establishment.

6:56 a.m. - Someone stole an 8-foot-by-12-foot metal frame and chassis for a flatbed trailer from Fenders By Enders, 1845 N. First Place, Hermiston.

7:04 a.m. - A thief stole tools from a shed on the 900 block of Cowl Street, Milton-Freewater.

9:04 a.m. - A caller told Pendleton police she saw a 20-something man fight a teen at Northwest Carden Avenue and 14th Street and another teen shook the hand of the young man.

10:25 a.m. - An offensive odor from a home on Southwest Cedar Street, Pilot Rock, prompted a neighbor to complain about the stench.

11:03 a.m. - An administrator at the Guardian Angel Homes assisted living facility in Hermiston reported one resident punched another in the stomach, but no medical treatment was needed.

11:13 a.m. - A woman asked for an officer to come discipline a disrespectful child at Sunset Park in Hermiston. She said it was not her child, but the child's mother was also at the park.

11:40 a.m. - Stanfield police received a report about a delusional man knocking around a cat in a pet carrier on South Main Street.

11:59 a.m. - A Hermiston woman reported a neighbor is constantly yelling at her and her kids when they are outside playing at their home on East Wilshire Avenue. She wanted an officer to come to the house. At 12:03 p.m. on nearby Northeast Third Street, a woman reported a 12-year-old boy comes to her house and yells profanities and that he is not afraid of her. That woman also requested contact.

12:26 p.m. - A Milton-Freewater property owner reported a tenant left a residence on Walla Walla River Road and took two window air conditioning units, a furnace, a 16-foot metal gate and smaller items, and he also damaged the property.

12:38 p.m. - Employees of Circle K, 335 S.E. Court Ave., Pendleton, discovered someone passed the business a fake $100 bill.

12:53 p.m. - A big dog locked inside a Red Kia in the Hermiston Big 5 parking lot was reported to police by an anonymous caller.

1:16 p.m. - A Hermiston-area man reported someone hacked his Facebook account and posted fake photos of him and want him to pay money.

13:48 p.m. - The tenant that left a home on Diagonal Road, Hermiston, also left behind three goats.

3:38 p.m. - Pendleton police warned the owner of a little white dog after a caller reported the animal entered her yard on Southeast Sixth Street and tried to bite her disabled mother.

6:27 p.m. - A man living on Michaels Lane, Hermiston, reported someone just blew his mailbox to pieces with an explosion powerful enough to rock the house. Nothing was on fire, he said, and he saw no one around the mailbox before or after the explosion.

7:50 p.m. - A caller told the Morrow County Sheriff's Office his neighbors on Wagon Wheel Loop, Irrigon, were shooting guns in the direction of another neighbor's house. A deputy talked to the suspect and found a different resident to the east was setting off fireworks.

8:08 p.m. - Juveniles were under the 10th Street Bridge, Pendleton, and the youngest children were trying to climb the bridge. They were gone by the time police arrived.

8:43 p.m. - A woman reported her purse was stolen out of her shopping cart at Fiesta Foods, Hermiston, while she was loading her groceries, and asked for police contact.

11:53 p.m. - A bartender at Midway Tavern, Hermiston, reported a male started a verbal altercation with two others inside the bar and then began running around in the road on Highway 395. He had been at the bar for about 5-6 hours, had about 3 beers and had been playing pool, but she didn't know his name. The other bartender was keeping an eye on him.

11:59 p.m. - A woman said she heard a fight at one of the entrances to Sundial Apartments, 1650 W. Sunland Ave., Hermiston, but couldn't see anything.
