group,” said Katherine Driessen, Our Oregon spokeswoman. “That’s clear based on their inaccurate results throughout the poll. Every single finding in this poll is without credibility.”

Nate Silver’s FiveThirtyEight, which rates pollsters on their accuracy, gave Clout a “C minus.” The publication stated that Clout calls races correctly about 33 percent of the time.

Corrections

The July 27 article “Abutting the butte” misstated where Tom Davis’s property line is. The gravel area directly off of Standard Avenue is a city right-of-way for Butte Avenue. The “No trespassing” signs have been moved to better reflect where Davis’ property begins.

The East Oregonian works hard to be accurate and sincerely regrets any errors. If you notice a mistake in the paper, please call 541-966-0818.

A black and white illustration of a cowboy riding a bucking horse. The cowboy is wearing a hat and is leaning back, holding onto the horse's mane. The horse is in a dynamic, bucking pose, with its front legs raised and its body arched. The illustration is positioned on the right side of the poster, partially overlapping the text.
