

OBITUARIES

Dorothy Ann Bade

Walla Walla
December 25, 1934-July 24, 2016

Dorothy Ann Bade, 81, passed away at her home in Walla Walla on July 24, 2016. Dorothy, the daughter of Fred and Thelma Bade, was born on December 25, 1934, and raised on a farm near Milton-Freewater, Oregon. She graduated from McLoughlin High School (Mac-Hi) in 1953.

Bade

Dorothy was employed for a total of 36 years with Pacific Northwest Bell/Qwest as a telephone operator, with six of those years at the Milton-Freewater office, 24 years at the Pendleton office and six years at the Walla Walla office, retiring in 1990. She then worked for several years as a seamstress for Odd Fellows Home.

Dorothy's sister, Marion, also was employed at Pacific Northwest Bell/Qwest. Together they selected a plan and had a house built in Walla Walla, where they lived together for more than 30 years. Dorothy was into adventure and they both loved to travel to places such as Branson, Hawaii, and Israel. She loved the Mariners, attending games in Seattle and spring training in Arizona. Dorothy enjoyed her cats, home improvement projects, and loved sewing and sharing many of her beautiful creations with others.

Dorothy was a loving, kind-hearted sister and aunt. She was always willing to help family and friends, taking them to appointments and filling any need as she was able. Her faith and belief in God was strong. She was a member of the First Assembly of God Church, Telephone Pioneers of America, the Dress a Living Doll program through the Salvation Army, and the Walla Walla Rose Society.

Dorothy is survived by two sisters, Sharon Puller and Modena (Charles) Cruthers, both from Walla Walla; three brothers, Donald (Lorraine) Bade of North Platte, Nebraska, Bill F. Bade of Walla Walla and Danny (Melva) Bade of Donnelly, Idaho; 24 nieces and nephews and their spouses, and several great- and great-great-nieces and -nephews. She was preceded in death by her parents, sister Lucille (Richard) Godfrey, sister Marion Bade, and sister-in-law Judy Bade.

On Friday, August 5, 2016, at 10 a.m., a graveside service will be held at Milton-Freewater Cemetery, Milton Cemetery Road, and at 2:00 p.m. a memorial service will be held at the First Assembly of God Church, 1919 Fern Avenue, Walla Walla, WA 99362, officiated by Pastor Keith Hixson. Visitation will be Thursday, August 4, 2016, from 9:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. at Mountain View-Colonial DeWitt, 1551 Dalles Military Road, Walla Walla, WA 99362.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Salvation Army, Walla Walla Community Hospice or to your charity of choice through Mountain View-Colonial DeWitt. Friends and family may share memories, view Dorothy's obituary and sign the online guestbook at www.mountainview-colonialdewitt.com

James G. 'Jim' Hanks

Albuquerque, N.M.
March 2, 1934-July 21, 2016

James G. "Jim" Hanks, 82, recently of Albuquerque, N.M., and formerly a long-time resident of Pendleton, Ore., died on July 21, 2016, after a short battle with pancreatic cancer.

He was born March 2, 1934, in Long Beach, Calif., to Earl Hanks and Elizabeth Knackstedt. He grew up in California, the Philippines, Japan, and Oregon. Both his father and his stepfather, Arch Morrison (who raised him from an early age), were naval officers, and Jim followed their lead, serving in the Navy in the mid-1950s on the USS Passig AW3 off the shore of Vietnam. He earned his Bachelor of Science in math and science from Southern Oregon College.

Jim worked from an early age, picking plums, ushering at a movie theater, loading at a furniture store, building houses, laying tile, repairing automobile radios, logging, and finally retiring after a long career as an insurance adjuster. After retirement he worked part-time for the city of Pendleton with a group of people he greatly admired and respected. He was never afraid of hard work.

His interests were varied. He restored two British sports cars, won many trophies, and traveled with other British car owners to points in the Northwest U.S. and Canada. He was a good cook, known for his spaghetti sauce, enchiladas, coffee cake, and the clam chowder he and Dale Wilkins made for the annual Presbyterian Soup Supper every November. He liked Ben & Jerry's Cherry Garcia ice cream, Ruffles potato chips, salmon, and anything chocolate. He did not like peas. Jim worked diligently on genealogy, liked to read the latest books on physics and politics, and played the guitar. He was a devoted Oregon Ducks football fan.

He loved both his children very much. He enjoyed fly fishing with his son, Adam, especially a trip they made to Montana in 1994. His daughter, Alison, remembers her dad teaching her to fly-fish at a very young age. They spent family time on the tennis courts, and she finally was able to beat him when she was a senior in high school.

Jim was loving, kind, ethical to a fault, generous, honest, loyal, trustworthy, forgiving, and had a keen sense of humor. He was a long-time member and elder of First Presbyterian Church of Pendleton, and spent many hours volunteering at Westminster Woods, the church's camp, planning and working on improvements, felling trees, and performing various other duties. In the fall of 2015, he and his second wife, Mary, moved from Pendleton to Albuquerque, where they had married in 2009. They spent many pleasant hours sitting on the patio watching the birds in the back yard and enjoying the sunshine.

Survivors include his wife of almost seven years, Dr. Mary A. Johnson; daughter Alison Naney (Sam); son Adam Hanks (Cindy); stepdaughters Nancy Underwood (Wes) and Julie Lamb (John); stepson Paul Johnson (Sepi); grandchildren Bailey and Taylor Hanks, and Fiona Naney; stepgrandchildren Karl, Craig, and Claire Underwood, Roger Underwood (Emma), Hannah and Ryan McCauley, and Chloe, John "Jack" and Henry Lamb; sisters Jeanne Thomas and Sandra Sutherland (Joe); brothers Russell Hanks and Steve Morrison (Tami); and many nieces, nephews and cousins. Besides family members, he leaves a plethora of friends, including former wife Evelyn Stewart, the mother of his children, and special friends Dick and Mike Lapp, long-time friends who were like family to Jim.

Our gratitude to Hospice de la Luz in Albuquerque for their excellent care. Cremation has taken place per Jim's wishes. A visitation in Albuquerque was held on Monday evening, July 25. A memorial service will be held at First Presbyterian Church, Pendleton, Oregon, on Saturday, August 6, at 2:30 p.m. If desired, contributions in Jim's memory may be made to the church, at 201 S.W. Dorion Ave., Pendleton, OR 97801.
