RECORDS

PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

WEDNESDAY

1:22 a.m. - People with flashlights ran around a woman's house on Highway 339, Milton-Freewater, while her dog chased them. They were gone by the time law enforcement arrived.

5:26 a.m. - An angry Stanfield man prompted tow operators to call 9-1-1. They were on Tawny Court, Stanfield, to take a vehicle when a man came out from the home and threatened to get a weapon. The caller asked for police and said while the vehicle is on the tow trailer, he was fearful the man would return with a weapon before they could finish securing it and leave.

8:18 a.m. - Thieves struck the Northeast Bowhunters shed at Lind Road and Union Street, Umatilla, stealing totes with forms, trophy pins and shirts.

9:13 a.m. - Two pigs escape their pens on Purdy Lane, Hermiston. Their owner reported they got out sometime since Tuesday around 9 a.m. One was a sow, the other a boar, and both weigh about 60-70 pounds.

9:38 a.m. - A mother told Pendleton police her son is a drug addict, she has not heard from him in nine months, and she has no idea where he lives, but she identified someone he used to associate with years ago.

9:43 a.m. - A Pendleton woman on Southwest Ladow Avenue told police she coaxed a cat bleeding behind both ears into her house and would like an officer to take it.

12:21 p.m. - A caller at St. Anthony Hospital, 2801 St. Anthony Way, Pendleton, reported someone parked in a handicapped spot near the emergency entrance and locked a small dachshund inside the car with the windows rolled up.

1:44 p.m. - A caller reported she stored her vehicle at a home on Lewis Lane, Milton-Freewater, and found out the man there sold her tires and rims off the car, the engine, which was original, and possibly the air conditioning.

4:46 p.m. - An employee at Threemile Canyon Farms, Boardman, reported a supervisor hit on her at work and made her feel uncomfortable. The Morrow County Sheriff's Office advised her to talk to her employer first.

5:18 p.m. - A Pendleton female had an allergic reaction to a bee sting.

8:53 p.m. - Pendleton police received a report of two groups fighting at the softball fields at Community Park on Southwest 37th Street.

10:26 p.m. A 9-1-1 caller told Pendleton police a man and woman were fighting in the parking lot at Blue Mountain Village Apartments, 2700 S.W. Goodwin Ave., Pendleton.

10:51 p.m. - A woman at Shari's Restaurant & Pies, 319 S.E. Nye Ave., Pendleton, told police there was a vehicle in the back of the parking lot there, and a man she knows informed her he was with a woman and they took that car because police were looking for it. They then broke a window on the car to get their belongings from the trunk, and the man then found a gun and left with the woman. The caller also said she did not know the woman.

ARRESTS, CITATIONS

•Oregon State Police cited Joshua Elias Nelson, 40, of Vancouver, for possession of methamphetamine, resisting arrest, and tampering with physical evidence.

The arrest came during a traffic stop around 8 a.m. on the northbound side of Highway 37 near milepost 25 when a trooper recognized a driver he knew was driving while suspended, according to a report from state police. The driver gave permission for the trooper to search the Dodge van. He then found Nelson, one of the passengers, had meth.

Nelson struggled as the trooper tried to arrest him and swallowed the drug, which won him a trip to a St. Anthony Hospital, Pendleton. There, he took off with an IV in his arm and was in the parking lot, which prompted staff to call Pendleton police.

When it was all done, the trooper released Nelson to have to appear in court later to face the charges.

•Umatilla police arrested Paul Edward Robinson, 49, of 10 Jackson St., Umatilla, for possession of methamphetamine.

•Pendleton police arrested Michael Raymond LaFountain, 28, a predatory sex offender from La Grande who skipped his last meeting with his parole officer, for violating parole, giving false information and felon in possession a weapon.

•Stanfield police arrested Jose Heladio Ramirez-Fernandez, 37, no address provided, for possession of methamphetamine and on a misdemeanor warrant.

•Pendleton police arrested Mariah Kay Hurse, 19, of Pendleton, on a state hold and for giving false information, third-degree escape, interfering with a peace officer and resisting arrest, all misdemeanors.

SCHOLARSHIPS

Hermiston RDO employee awarded scholarship

ST. LOUIS, Mo. - William Johnson of Pasco, Wash., has been selected as a recipient of Equipment Dealers Association's Equipment Dealers Foundation (EDF) Scholarship for the 2016-17 academic year. Johnson's total scholarship of $2,000 includes matching funds from his sponsoring equipment dealership, RDO

Equipment Company in Hermiston. He will be attending Walla Walla Community College.

Scholarship funds totaling $36,000 were awarded to qualified students/trainees who were sponsored and recommended by equipment dealerships throughout the United States and Canada.

EDF's objective is to support the education, training or advancement of current and potential employees in the equipment industry in hopes of creating a larger pool of skilled, committed, long-term employees for dealerships. Scholarships are available in each of EDA's nine regions.

PEO Chapter BJ awards scholarships

PENDLETON — P.E.O. Chapter BJ recently awarded scholarships to Pendleton students.

Shyla R. Davison of Pendleton is the 2016 recipient of the $2,500 Gladys and Harry Masenhimer Memorial Scholarship for use at Blue Mountain Community College during the upcoming school year. Davison, a 2015 graduate of Pendleton High School, will be a sophomore at BMCC this fall, working towards completion of her Associate of Arts Oregon Transfer Degree. She hopes to eventually earn a bachelor's degree in earth science, with a focus on paleontology.

Members of the Masenhimer family fund this award annually as a memorial to their parents, Gladys and Dr. Harry Masenhimer, who were longtime Pendleton residents. Oregon State P.E.O. Chapter BJ selects recipients for this honor from among outstanding local women who are pursuing advanced degrees.

And Lexie Lorraine Campbell of Pilot Rock has received a $2,000 scholarship from the chapter for use at Blue Mountain Community College during the 2016-2017 school year. Campbell will begin her fourth year of study at BMCC this fall and will graduate next spring as a registered nurse, with her associate's degree in nursing. She plans to work in the region, while pursuing her bachelor's degree through OHSU's on-line nursing program.

Chapter BJ awards this scholarship annually to exceptional women like Campbell, who are nearing completion of degrees from BMCC.

The P.E.O. Sisterhood is dedicated to providing educational opportunities for women around the world. P.E.O. has more than 240,000 members in the United States and Canada.
