SUMMERTIME FAIRS

Long ago …

Farm families came to sell their goods and proudly display their best produce, stitchery, canned goods and animals.

Fairs were also a place to hear speakers and music and get up and dance. People took turns at the midway games to show off their strength.

Today …

Members of 4-H clubs show the animals they have raised and compete for recognition. Popular animal competitions include sheep, pigs, calves and chickens as well as llamas. People play modern midway games and line up to go on roller coasters, Ferris wheels and other rides.

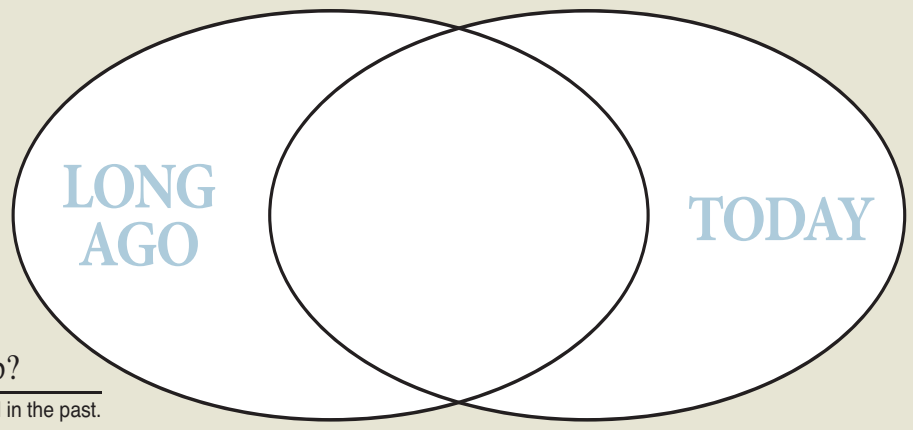
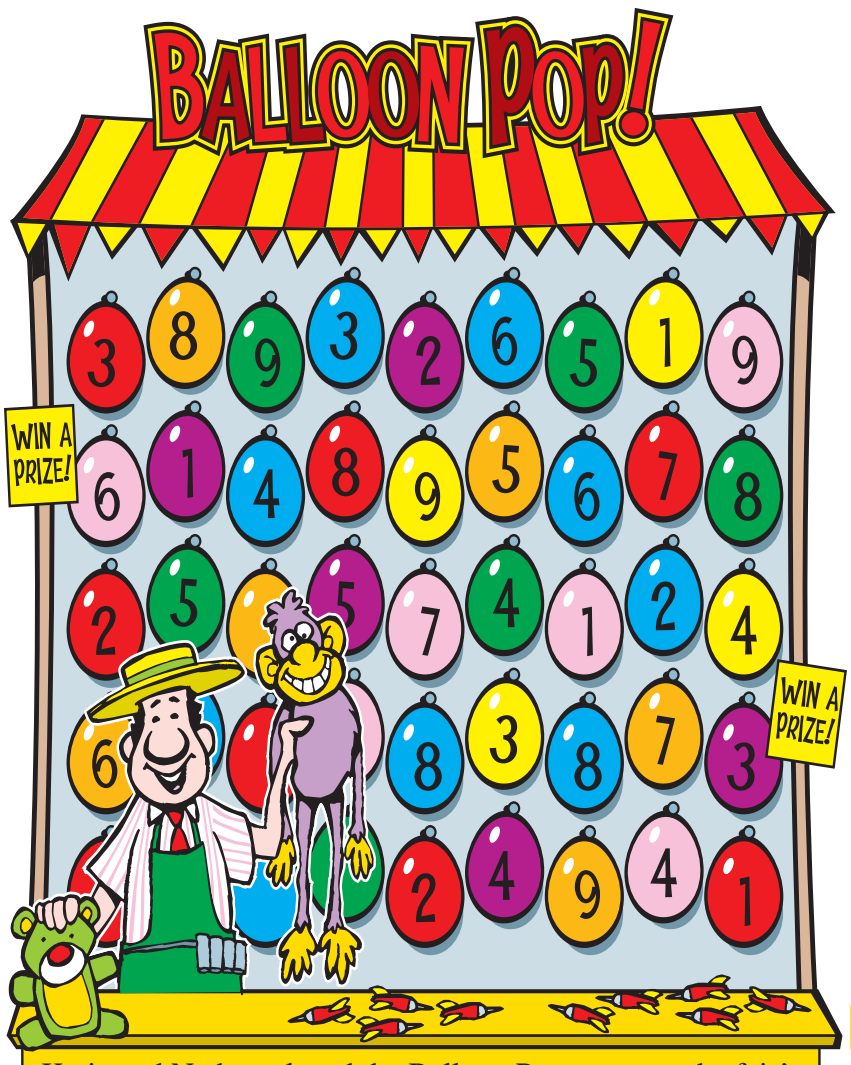
Now & Then

Pictured above are items found at fairs over the years. In the circle on the left, write the names of items that could only be found at fairs 100 years ago. In the circle on the right, list things you could only find at a fair today.

Where the two ovals overlap, write the names of items you could find at fairs today AND in the past. Can you think of things to add to each group?



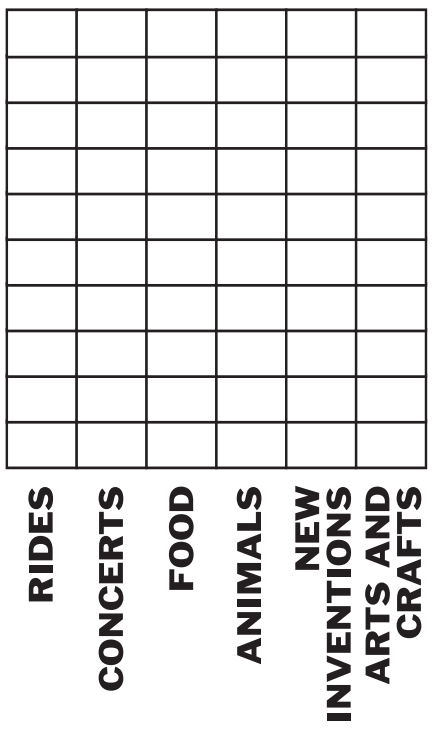
Standards Link: History: Understand families and communities now and in the past.



Katie and Nathan played the Balloon Pop game on the fair's midway. Katie popped odd-numbered balloons and Nathan popped the ones with even numbers. Add up each. Who got the highest score?

Fair Favorites

Ask 10 or more people to pick their favorite part of the fair from among the following choices. Color in a box on the graph to show each person's preference.



CHALLENGE: Make up questions about your completed graph. Then show the graph to a family member and ask your questions.

Standards Link: Data: Organizes, displays, reads and interprets data.

Extra! Extra!

News Graph

Use this graph to gather data about what's in your newspaper. Comb the newspaper for pictures of or references to the items on the list. Color in a box for every picture or reference you find.

Kid Scoop Together:

VENN DIAGRAM

With a parent or other adult at home, look through the newspaper for the following:

- Five things that have been invented since your adult partner turned 20
- Five things that are part of both your life today and your partner's childhood life
- Five things you think will look different or function differently in 20 years

With your partner, complete the VENN diagram below to compare your childhoods.
