Island City Commercial / Industrial

This is a first time offering of the former Bronson Lumber Company real property in Island City. The offering consists of 3 separate parcels that can be acquired individually or collectively. All three are zoned Commercial and are served with public utilities.

Parcel 1, (Truss Plant): This property is on the Northeast corner of McAlister Road and State Hiway 82, both of which are high traffic and visibility for a multitude of commercial / retail activity. The property contains approx. 3.08 acres and is improved with a 5,000 square foot shop building. The price of this parcel is $739,000.

Parcel 2 (Main Retail): This was the main showroom and inventory area containing a newer nearly 20,000 square foot retail type use. There is a small mezzanine for offices and the ceiling height is 20 feet providing for a variety of uses. In addition, there are several older storage buildings and the parcel size contains approximately 2.42 acres which provides for adequate parking and material storage. The price of Parcel 2 is $1,100,000.

Parcel 3: The site contains .85 of an acre and is adjacent to Parcel 2 above. The improvements consist of two older buildings that were formerly used as a cabinet shop and door and window retail business in conjunction with Parcel 2. Priced separately this parcel is $375,000.

Overall, this is an opportunity to own a premier retail / light manufacturing property or properties in a solid community with a progressive and pro-active business outlook. They are priced to sell and are shown by appointment.
