DAYS GONE BY

100 Years Ago From the East Oregonian Aug. 20-21, 1916

George R. Roberts has commenced the building of seven cottages in Rieth and they will be rushed to completion as fast as possible. Eighteen or 20 families are now on the waiting list for houses, many of them now living in Pendleton, but are compelled to move to Rieth on account of change in working conditions that will not permit of their going back and forth so far.

50 Years Ago From the East Oregonian Aug. 20-21, 1966

Umatilla County cattlemen have asked that the county be declared a drought disaster area. Twenty members of the executive committee of the Umatilla County Cattlemen's Association, meeting Friday night, requested the action. Thus Umatilla County joins Union, Wallowa, Baker, Grant, Malheur, Harney and Crook counties in seeking federal relief. Since Sept. 1, the beginning of this crop season, Pendleton has had a precipitation deficit of four inches, county Agent Vic Johnson reported. Ranges have dried up and streams and water holes are drying up. Some cattlemen reported they had been culling herds down pretty closely. They said an effort would be made to maintain basic breeding herds.

25 Years Ago From the East Oregonian Aug. 20-21, 1991

Nichole Christian of Milton-Freewater repeated as champion in the girls softball throw at the Hershey's national youth track championships Saturday in Hershey, Pa. Christian, who won the girls 11-12-year-old division softball throw last year, took the 13-14-year-old title this year with a throw of 178 feet, 8 inches. Not yet 13, Christian will be eligible to compete in the same age group next year.

THIS DAY IN HISTORY

Today is the 233rd day of 2016. There are 133 days left in the year.

Today's Highlight in History:

On Aug. 20, 1866, months after fighting in the Civil War had ended, President Andrew Johnson issued Proclamation 157, which declared that "peace, order, tranquility, and civil authority now exist in and throughout the whole of the United States of America."

On this date:

In 1833, Benjamin Harrison, 23rd president of the United States, was born in North Bend, Ohio.

In 1882, Tchaikovsky's "1812 Overture" had its premiere in Moscow.

In 1914, German forces occupied Brussels, Belgium, during World War I.

In 1940, during World War II, British Prime Minister Winston Churchill paid tribute to the Royal Air Force before the House of Commons, saying, "Never in the field of human conflict was so much owed by so many to so few." Exiled Communist revolutionary Leon Trotsky was assassinated in Coyoacan, Mexico, by Ramon Mercader. (Trotsky died the next day.)

In 1953, the Soviet Union publicly acknowledged it had tested a hydrogen bomb.

In 1964, President Lyndon B. Johnson signed the Economic Opportunity Act, a nearly $1 billion anti-poverty measure.

In 1968, the Soviet Union and other Warsaw Pact nations began invading Czechoslovakia to crush the "Prague Spring" liberalization drive.

In 1972, the Wattstax concert took place at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum.

In 1986, postal employee Patrick Henry Sherrill went on a deadly rampage at a post office in Edmond, Oklahoma, shooting 14 fellow workers to death before killing himself.

DEAR ABBY

Girl fears mom's disapproval of boyfriend she found online

Dear Abby: I'm a 15-year-old girl, and I'm madly in love with my boyfriend. The only problem is, I can't tell anyone but my closest friends about him. I met him over the internet, and he's an amazing guy. I didn't think I'd ever fall in love with him, but I did. He lives in New York, and I'm planning on going up to see him as soon as I possibly can.

JEANNE PHILLIPS Advice

I really, really want to tell my mom, but I don't want to lose him. I know if I say too much about him, she'll find out. He's a better boyfriend than my last boyfriend, and he actually treats me like I'm something and not dirt. He truly saved me, but I know my mom won't see it that way. What do I do? — In Love In Virginia

Dear In Love: Start thinking with your head instead of your heart. There is no guarantee that everything the person — as nice as he appears to be — has told you online is true, including his name, his gender, his age, marital status or criminal record. What you need to do is level with your mom about the fact that you have met someone on the internet you think is special, and ask her if you can invite him to visit YOU so you can get to know each other and she can check him out. You should NOT go to a different city to meet him because to do so could be very dangerous.

Dear Abby: My husband and I are in our 50s and have been having marital difficulties lately. We work different shifts. By the time he gets home, I'm sound asleep.

He likes to wake me up in the middle of the night for sex. I told him it's not right because I have to work in the morning. He said he thought he saw in the Dear Abby column that if a husband wakes a wife for sex, she should accommodate him. I told him that was crazy. But I wanted to check with you. Help! — Weary In The Midwest

Dear Weary: He may have read that in some other advice column, but he didn't get permission from me.

What I HAVE written is that coercing or bullying someone into doing something of a sexual nature that he or she doesn't want to do is abuse.

Dear Abby: I work for a small company where I am privy to a lot of confidential information, and I know the owner is letting the business die. All of the experienced senior staff have quit because they recognized what's going on, but the new hires think this is normal. These are self-supporting young adults with college loans to pay off. One is a dad with a young child.

I feel so guilty looking for a job while everyone else is clueless about their future. Because it's part of my position to know how we are doing financially, I can't tell them they will be out of jobs soon. Or can I? — Keeping A Secret

Dear Keeping: Much as you might wish to, I don't recommend that you spill the beans. If you reveal proprietary information to the other employees, and you signed a confidentiality agreement with your bosses at the time you were hired, as many employees do, you could be sued.
