OBITUARIES

Harold Ernest Reeves

Umatilla
May 16, 1922-August 20, 2016

Harold Ernest Reeves was born in Atchison, Kansas, on May 16, 1922, to parents Ernest Thomas and Florence Rachel (Winder) Reeves. At the age of 94, God took Harold in His arms where he is now at peace on August 20, 2016. He was born and lived in Atchison, Kansas, until the age of 6 at which time he and his parents moved to Umatilla, Oregon, where Harold grew up.

Harold was very fortunate to grow up in a very loving and close-knit family. Harold was the oldest of six children in his family. He had one brother, Bennie, and four sisters, Dottie (Reeves) Stephens, Norma (Reeves) Busler, Rita Jean (Reeves) Creamer and Patsy (Reeves) Hutchinson.

Harold attended Umatilla schools, graduating from Umatilla High School in 1939. Following graduation, Harold gained employment at Tum A Lum Lumber Company. He worked at Tum A Lum Lumber until called in 1942 to service during World War II. Harold entered the United States Marine Corps (USMC) and began active service June 8, 1942, through June 10, 1946, at which time he received the United States Marine Corps Certificate of Honorable and Satisfactory Service in World War II. During this enlistment he served as an automatic pilot mechanic and aircraft armorer in the Pacific Theater, with primary involvement in the "consolidation of the Solomon Islands," from January 8, 1943, through February 2, 1944. Upon his return from overseas, he then completed a course in precision bombing and was certified as a bombardier instructor on June 30, 1945.

On June 19, 1946, Harold re-enlisted in the Marine Corps Reserve (inactive) for a period of four years, and was reappointed to the rank of corporal (aviation), his rank from March 1, 1943. He was then assigned to the Thirteenth Reserve District, headquartered at Puget Sound Navy Yard, Bremerton, Wash. He was discharged from reserve duty on June 13, 1950. Harold again re-enlisted on June 14, 1950, back into the reserves as a basic instrument trainer mechanic. On February 1, 1951, he was recalled back into active duty during the Korean Conflict. It was also during this time he received his promotion to staff sergeant on May 21, 1951. Upon his release from active duty on February 1, 1952, Harold went back into the reserves until his final discharge from military service on December 30, 1952. Harold is the recipient of the Good Conduct Medal, Asiatic-Pacific Medal, and World War II Victory Medal.

Upon his return to the States from deployment in 1944, he married his high school sweetheart, Clara "Naomi" Brownell, on October 6, 1944, in Santa Barbara, Calif. Harold and Naomi had two children: Kevin Lance, born April 5, 1947, and Karin Ruth, born August 29, 1948. In addition to their two children, Harold and Naomi were blessed with five grandsons, Lance and Scott Hartman, Robert "Robbie" Reeves, Patrick Reeves and Harold Reeves; one granddaughter, Shannon; one great-granddaughter, Julianna Hartman; one great-grandson, Joshua Hartman; five stepgreat-granddaughters, Jordan, Katie, Rachael, Lysa and Lyndsay McBride; one stepgreat-great-granddaughter, Janaya McBride; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Harold remained in the U.S. Marine Corps reserves during which time he continued his higher education at the University of California Santa Barbara. He majored in education and minored in music, graduating with a Bachelor of Arts in Junior High Education, January 25,

Following the Korean War, Harold and his family remained in Santa Barbara, Calif., where he obtained employment in the local theaters and became a life-long member of the Theatrical Stage Employees' Union. He was employed by the Santa Barbara Lobero Theatre where he worked for the next 50 years in the capacity of master stage carpenter, building scenery for countless stage productions. He was also a master in the art of sound and lighting productions as well.

In 1984, after 50 years in the career of master stage carpenter and stage manager, Harold retired from the Lobero Theatre, receiving his Honorary Lifetime Member "gold card" from the International Alliance of the Theatrical Stage Employees, Moving Picture Technicians, Artists and Allied Crafts of the United States and Canada.

For 56 years, Harold and Naomi had an incredibly close and loving marriage; however, Naomi would pass, very unexpectedly, from our lives in September 2000. In 2001 Harold left Santa Barbara and returned to Umatilla to be closer to his siblings, his daughter and their families.

Harold spent the remainder of his years enjoying weekly outings with his friends, siblings and daughter. He would also enjoy visits from his son Kevin and daughter-in-law Hak Boon "Susan" (Kim) Reeves, who reside in San Diego, Calif., and grandsons Lance, who resides in Arizona, Scott, who lives in Idaho, Harold, who lives and attends college in New York, and granddaughter Shannon, who works and attends college in California. Thanks to modern technology, Harold was also able to enjoy receiving news about grandson Patrick, who resides in Vermont, and Robert ("Robbie"), who resides in Perth, Australia.

Harold is preceded in death by his father, Ernest Thomas Reeves; mother Florence Rachel (Winder) Reeves; sisters Dottie Fay (Reeves) Stephens and Patsy Ione (Reeves) Hutchinson; and wife Clara "Naomi" (Brownell) Reeves.

A graveside service with military honors will be held on Friday, August 26, 2016, at 11:00 a.m. at Sunset Hills Cemetery, Umatilla, Oregon. A celebration of life gathering with a meal and time of sharing will follow at 12:00 noon at the Umatilla Community Presbyterian Church, 14 Martin Drive, Umatilla, OR 97882.
