ARRESTS, CITATIONS

The Morrow County Sheriff's Office helped catch a man trying to get away from Umatilla police.

Sheriff Ken Matlack said Umatilla police at 2:02 p.m. were called about pursuit of a vehicle heading west on Highway 730. Around three minutes later deputy Nathan Braun placed a spike strip on the road near milepost 177, about a mile east of Irigon.

Matlack said the strip blew out one tire on the suspect's vehicle, but the driver turned into Riverview Mobile Home, 1370 Highway 730, Irigon.

"He obviously didn't know where he was going ... and went into a dead-end area," Matlack said. "So they were able to take him into custody."

No one was at the police department Tuesday to talk about the incident. Court records, though, show Antonio Reco Reaves, 32, of Hermiston, faces initial charges of driving while suspended/revoked, reckless driving, and recklessly endangering another, all misdemeanors, and felony attempt to flee.

Records also show Reaves has multiple convictions. His most recent was in April for possession of methamphetamine.

Lillian Joyce Mitzimberg

Pendleton
 November 14, 1919-August 25, 2016

Pendleton native and lifetime resident Lillian Joyce Mitzimberg died at home in Pendleton, at age 96, after a very brief illness, on August 25, 2016. She was born November 14, 1919, daughter of Robert M. and Ruth Sussman, and lived her entire life in Pendleton.

Lillian was a rental property owner, but her first love was always music. She taught private piano and voice lessons, also teaching in the school system after getting her bachelor's degree in music at Eastern Oregon State College. Early in her life she had dreamed of being an opera singer. Her beautiful, strong singing voice was popular at church services and ceremonies. She was asked to sing often at the Methodist Church she attended as well as the Christian Science Church. Lillian managed her rental properties mostly by herself until advanced age, feeling concerned to provide low-cost housing for those who needed it. She definitely had her unique style of management, famously responding to silly complaints with a good-humored "Oh, hooley!"

A life-long Democrat, Lillian served as John F. Kennedy's campaign chairman in Umatilla County during his first presidential bid in 1959 and toured the county with him that year, then later with his brother Ted Kennedy. She was a long-time member of the Woodmen of the World Fraternal Insurance organization, active until very recent years, and her favorite charities were the Salvation Army and the Humane Society. Along with music, Lillian loved swimming, dancing, reading, and took particular pleasure in following her favorite baseball teams. She loved to laugh and giggle and always retained a cheerful attitude toward life, no matter what it threw at her.

Married to George ("Mitz") Mitzimberg in 1940 and divorced in 1986, Lillian is survived by her sons David and Daniel Mitzimberg of Pendleton, five grandchildren (Elizabeth Curran, Emily Haskell, Justin Mitzimberg, Cody Mitzimberg, and Alex Mitzimberg), 17 great-grandchildren, and her sisters Linda Sussman and Marjorie Iburg and their three children.

The family expresses particular appreciation for the friendship and care provided by Crystal Clair, Steve Garner and Merrill James. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions are suggested to the Oregon East Symphony Music Camp or Pendleton Center for the Arts.

Viewing at the funeral home will be held on Friday, September 2 from 9 a.m. until 4:30 p.m. and on Tuesday, September 6 from 9:00 a.m. until noon.

A graveside service will be held at 2:00 p.m. on Tuesday, September 6, 2016, at Olney Cemetery in Pendleton.

Pendleton Pioneer Chapel, Folsom-Bishop is making the arrangements and can be contacted for further information.

Family and friends are welcome to gather at the Pendleton Convention Center following the service.

Gladys Marie Egeland Hagerty

Hermiston
 August 15, 1933-August 27, 2016

Gladys Marie Egeland Hagerty, 83, of Hermiston, Oregon, passed away peacefully Saturday, August 27, 2016.

Gladys began her final traditional birthday trip to Ocean Shores Washington "topless" in the convertible from Sun Terrace. She returned home from her birthday weekend to spend her real birthday with her son John. Five days later she suffered a severe stroke which put her birthday journey in the hands of Hospice. Hospice guided her through her last stages of life, finally ending her birthday journey with her husband Bill, her parents Gus and Marie and her sister Katherine.

Gladys was born August 15, 1933, in Forest Grove, Montana, to Norwegian immigrants Gust and Marie (Indebro) Egeland. She attended school in Forest Grove and Winifred High School, where she graduated. When Gladys was 19 she obtained her teaching certificate and was recruited by the territory of Alaska to teach grade school in Yakutat. This event sparked a lifelong passion for travel.

During that year she met the love of her life, a cute little Coast Guardsman, William (Bill) Hagerty. From that day forward her teaching career paralleled Bill's Coast Guard career. She married in Savannah, Georgia, on August 20, 1954. Her first child was born in Lewistown, Montana, while Bill was deer hunting in October of 1955. Her second child was born in Hilo, Hawaii (still a territory), in October of 1957.

Throughout the duration of Bill's maritime career they were always stationed near the ocean. Many memories and friends were made in the years spent at Groton, Connecticut, and Warrenton, Oregon. Gladys continued on with her education, graduating from Great Falls College and finally earning her Masters in Special Education from the University of Oregon. When Gladys was 38 her teaching career was temporarily interrupted and forever changed when she suffered from an aneurism. This event did bless her and everyone in her life with a permanent and contagious laugh.

It was when Bill retired from the Coast Guard and her children were grown that she was able to expand her passion of travel. Her travels consisted of visiting Bill and setting up temporary homes various places around the world including London, Japan, and China, finally settling down in Longview, Wash. Her dear husband Bill passed away in 1999 and her travels were enjoyed with her children. From Alaska to Mexico and everywhere in between, she continued her journeys.

In 2008 she made her last move from Longview, Wash., to Hermiston, Ore. She remained there fiercely independent and making friends with every person who crossed her path with her light-heartedness and drawer full of chocolates.

Gladys is survived son John Hagerty of Seaside, Ore.; daughter K.C. Lorenzen (Dave) of Hermiston, Ore.; grandson Noel LeRoux of Washington, D.C.; granddaughter Sarah LeRoux of Hermiston, Ore.; great-grandson Sean Stewart; and an extended family of cousins, nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by parents Gust and Marie, husband Bill and sister Katherine.

A celebration of life service will be held on Thursday, September 1, 2016, at 11:00 a.m. at Burns Mortuary chapel, Hermiston, Oregon. Burial will be at Willamette National Cemetery, Portland, Oregon.
