12:08 a.m. - Some things you just have to have. A female in Pendleton called 9-1-1 to report her girlfriend told her that her items were outside the residence and she can come get them. The caller said she told the girlfriend to make sure her Shark mop was with the items, but when she checked, the Shark mop, indeed, was not there. She said she would wait for police.

10:30 a.m. - Pendleton police received a call to check on a man who was "yelling and screaming" during the downpour while wearing shorts and a tank top on Highway 11 near Northeast Riverside Place. A second caller several minutes later reported the man was soaking wet and screaming in front of Lindell's Auto Salvage, just a block from Riverside Place, then left the area.

12:14 p.m. - Pilot Rock police received a tip about dog abuse on Southwest Cedar Street.

3:25 p.m. - A Pilot Rock resident on the 200 block of West Main Street reported a man and woman are "polluting the creek by doing their laundry in it and urinating and defecating in it."

3:32 p.m. - A Pendleton resident asked to speak to police after falling for an IRS scam.

4:15 p.m. - A car crashed into a tree on Coffman Lane, Milton-Freewater, and the driver was not wearing a seatbelt. The information did not indicate if the driver or anyone else suffered injuries or was OK.

5:05 p.m. - A woman in Umatilla reported she and her husband worked on their cars two days ago, and her brother's car was there and "got scratched." She now came home and found a scratch on the hood of her car and asked for an officer to respond.

6:56 p.m. - Pilot Rock police checked into a report of illegal burning on Northeast Cherry Street but did not find anything.
