HERMISTON

Youth theater seeks actors to stage 'Jungle Book'

Registration fee due by Friday

By TAMMY MALGESINI
East Oregonian

Director Jenny Walker is excited to bring "The Jungle Book" to Hermiston's Children's Community Theater.

"It's always been one of my favorite stories," the Hermiston woman said. "And, with the movie that just came out, I believe a lot of the younger kids will be more excited about performing."

Presented through Hermiston Parks & Recreation, the acting class provides an opportunity for youths from 8-18 to learn about stage presence, voice control and acting techniques. In addition, participants will gain confidence and new friends. The group will rehearse for two months and then stage a pair of performances.

The rehearsals begin Tuesday, Sept. 20 from 5:15-7:15 p.m. at the Hermiston Conference Center, 415 S. Highway 395. The cost is $50 for Hermiston residents and $63 for non-residents. The rehearsals run Tuesdays and Wednesdays through mid-November. The performances are Thursday, Nov. 17 and Friday, Nov. 18 at 6:30 p.m. at Armand Larive Middle School, 1497 S.W. Ninth St., Hermiston.

"We are looking for inexperienced and experienced actors in our area," said Gina Wicks of Hermiston Parks & Recreation. "We have many roles to fill in this play, so the more actors the better."

Walker got involved with the community theater program when she was signing up her now 10-year-old daughter, Elizabeth, for "Beauty & the Beast" in January 2015. Expressing an interest in helping, Walker was snatched up by then-director Vickie Foster.

"I have a performing background ... so I offered to help with the singers," Walker recalled. "The director said, 'Here, you're now the musical director.'"

Since Foster's retirement from the community theater program, Walker has stepped into the role of director. She said it's important to provide an opportunity for children to get involved in the performing arts, especially when those programs sometimes take a hit due to school funding concerns.

"Giving kids a creative outlet even as young as third grade is extremely helpful," Walker said.

In addition, Walker said the community rallies behind area kids and presents opportunities for them. Financial support is provided by Desert Arts Council, which assists in paying for scripts and licensing fees.

Walker said everyone helps with coming up with their own costumes. Also, those who express interested in other aspects of theater — including props, sound effects and other backstage production — are provided direction and a chance to participate in those activities.

The registration fee is due by Friday. For more information, visit www.hermistonrecreation.com. To register, call 541-667-5018 or stop by the recreation office, 180 N.E. Second St., Hermiston.

BRIEFLY

Reception welcomes new library director

HERMISTON — The public is invited to a welcome reception for Mark Rose.

With more than 25 years of library experience, Rose recently assumed duties as the Hermiston Public Library director, replacing Marie Baldo, who recently retired.

Light refreshments will be served during the gathering, which is Thursday from 4-6 p.m. at 235 E. Gladys Ave., Hermiston.

For more information, call 541-567-2882.

OSU scholarship fundraiser honors Horneck

HERMISTON — A dual event serves to honor a longtime agronomist and soil scientist at the OSU Hermiston Agricultural Research and Extension Center.

The Don Horneck Memorial Run & Banquet is Saturday, Sept. 24. The 5K fun run and walk begins with registration at 7:30 a.m. at Hermiston High School. Later in the evening, the doors open for the banquet and auction at 6 p.m. at the Hermiston Conference Center, 415 S. Highway 395. Tickets for the banquet are $35 and are available at the OSU Extension Center, Good Shepherd Health Care System, Kuhn Law Office and the Hermiston Chamber of Commerce.

In addition to his work at the extension center, Horneck, who died from a heart attack in September 2014, was a member of the local Lions Club. Both organizations teamed up to raise money for the OSU scholarship fund and local community activities in his memory.

Submit information to: community@eastoregonian.com or drop off to the attention of Tammy Malgesini at 333 E. Main St., Hermiston or Renee Struthers at 211 S.E. Byers Ave., Pendleton. Call 541-564-4539 or 541-966-0818 with questions.
