9:22 a.m. - Hermiston police received a call to make sleeping transients leave from the back of the building at The Arc of Umatilla County, 215 W. Orchard Ave., Hermiston.

9:33 a.m. - Friendly pit bull dogs keep entering a property on Quiggle Lane, Hermiston, to play with Great Danes there, and the owner of the Danes said he talked with the other dog owners about this but they only tie up their dogs occasionally. Now he said he wants a Umatilla County sheriff's deputy to tell them to get rid of the pit bulls.

9:59 a.m. - Hermiston police received a tip about possible sex crimes.

The woman said no one was supposed to be there, however.

5:45 p.m. - In what is not a cool move, someone dumped three large piles of goathead weeds in the road on Southwest Lake and McKay Drives, Pendleton.

ARRESTS, CITATIONS

•Oregon State Police arrested Bill Wayne Snyder II, 35, of Hermiston, on two counts of failing to report as a sex offender. He came to the Hermiston state police office to register, and that's when police found he last registered on Sept. 24, 2013, in Morrow County, about 10 months after his conviction in Washington state for second-degree child molestation. He also moved twice without reporting. State police updated his registration, though, then booked him into the Umatilla County Jail, Pendleton.

•An Oregon State Police trooper at 9:38 p.m. stopped a Lincoln Continental going the wrong way on Southeast Emigrant Avenue, Pendleton. The driver failed a sobriety test, and the trooper found marijuana in the car, along with drug paraphernalia, an open bottle of liquor and a straw containing what could be methamphetamine. That led the trooper to cite the 17-year-old boy from Wapato, Washington, for driving under the influence of intoxicants, possession of meth, minor in possession of alcohol, and minor in possession of less than 5 grams of marijuana.

•Pilot Rock police arrested Jeremy Thomas Brissett, 40, of Hillsboro, for felon in possession of a weapon, theft of services and on a warrant.

•Hermiston police arrested Shavon Lee Onne Newton, 18, of 1365 S. Highway 395, Hermiston, for possession of methamphetamine.
