

BUCKS: Bower throws for 268

adjustments by the Storm shut Pendleton down and ended the game with a 55-17 Summit victory.
“It just got away from us,” Pendleton coach Erik Davis said. “We never got a run game going so Summit could just pin their ears back and come at us with everything. We couldn’t protect Nick as well as we needed to either.”
As a team Pendleton (1-2, 0-1 SD1) ran for a combined -33 yards as the Buckaroos line struggled to get a push against the Storm’s front seven. Pendleton’s leading rusher was Jamal Vann with 20 yards on eight carries. Nick Bower had a decent game at quarterback completing 14-28 passes for 268 yards with one touchdown and two interceptions. Summit (2-1, 1-0 SD1) scored three times in the first quarter to take an early 21-0 lead before Pendleton (1-2, 0-1) finally got on the board. With just 45 seconds left in the quarter, Bower connected with Shaw Jerome on an 80-yard touchdown to cut the lead to 21-7. Jerome finished the game with 197 receiving yards on seven catches.

Then just as time expired in the quarter, Jerome found the end zone again — this time on defense as he intercepted a John Bledsoe pass and returned it 39 yards for a touchdown to cut the lead to 21-14.
But that was as close as Pendleton could get.
Summit scored four times in the second quarter and pushed their lead to 41-14 late in the second quarter, before Pendleton’s Sebaztian Corona nailed a 37-yard field goal with six seconds left to make the score 41-17 at halftime.
“Summit’s a tremendous team,” Davis said, “but we’ll have to look at film to see where our issues are.”
Pendleton next travels to Ridgeview next Friday for a 7 p.m. kickoff.

Tigers top Prospectors to stay unbeaten

East Oregonian

JOHN DAY — The Stanfield Tigers fought off a sluggish start and finished strong to take down the Grant Union Prospectors 41-20 on Friday to stay unbeaten.
Stanfield (3-0) ran for over 400 yards as a team once again, led by senior running back Thyler Monkus whom ran for 223 yards and four touchdowns on 13 carries. It was Monkus’ third straight game with over 200 yards on the ground.
“He’s just a very patient runner who doesn’t push and stays behind his blockers,” Stanfield coach Davie Salas said after the game. “Then when the holes open up he sees the field so well and is aggressive and finds the cutbacks and then just gets out and runs.”

Monkus scored the Tigers first touchdown in the first quarter and then teammate Dylan Grogan ran for a touchdown on the ground to put Stanfield up 13-0 at the half.
“In the first half we were very stiff ... our offense didn’t really get off the bus,” Salas said. “But our defense played great. (Grant Union) opened up the field a bit and we had to be disciplined and make our one-on-one tackles.”
Stanfield re-discovered its high gear on offense in the second half as the Tigers scored four times in the half behind two more touchdowns from Monkus, one from Grogan and one from Makiah Hampton — who finished the game with 54 yards on seven carries.
Stanfield returns home next Friday to host Regis at 6 p.m.

UMATILLA 21, ENTERPRISE 7 — At Enterprise, the Umatilla Vikings kept their unbeaten streak alive with a tough win against the Enterprise Outlaws on Friday night.
Umatilla (3-0) scored first in the game on a four-yard touchdown run by Cody Sampson off an option play to take the 7-0 lead in the first quarter. Enterprise evened the score at 7-7 later in the half, and the two teams headed into the break still deadlocked with the score.
But in the second half, Umatilla’s defense stepped up its game and soon the offense followed suit with two fourth quarter touchdowns to earn the win. The Vikings broke the tie early in the fourth quarter on a 60-yard touchdown pass from Kaden Webb to Sean Miller and then padded its lead late in the fourth on a five-yard option throw from Sampson to Trent Durfey to make the lead 21-7.

“The second half the team really just picked each other up and we got after them defensively,” Umatilla coach Dan Durfey said. “It was really a team effort tonight.”
Umatilla will next host Portland Christian next Friday to finish out its non-league schedule.

SHERMAN 50, IONE 0 — At Ione, Home-field advantage mattered little as Ione remained winless against a 2-1 Sherman squad. Ione struggled to defend Sherman’s deep passing attack, which gave the Huskies a 38-0 lead at halftime.

BULLDOGS: Hermiston’s Neal has second 100-yard receiving game of season

was pleased to see they stepped up accordingly.
“Mountain View came down and played hard and played tough and gave us a good game and I’m glad they played hard to the end,” he said.
Last time the two schools played was in 2009, when the Cougars won 28-14. This time Hermiston saw the first touchdown with 6:27 left in the first quarter. It was the Bulldogs’ second possession of the game and after several drives on the ground sophomore quarterback Andrew James connected with running back Tucker Salinas in the end zone from about 10 yards back. The kick was good for an extra point.
The Bulldogs quickly stopped the Cougars’ answering drive down the field, and Mountain View chose not to try for a conversion on the fourth down with one yard to go.

Hermiston’s second touchdown of the night came after a quick drive down the field, with passes to Salinas and wide receiver Dayshaun Neal and two carries by running back Jonathan Hinkle. With 1:27 left in the first quarter Neal caught a 22-yard pass by James in the end zone, making the score 13-0 after the kick for the extra point was no good.
Mountain View drove toward the end zone with several short runs by running back Tyler Smith, but had to kick it away at the 45 yard line. Cougars defensive back Koltin Ramsay quickly intercepted the ball, however, returning it to Mountain View’s possession.

This time the Cougars scored as running back Spencer Klein ran it in for a touchdown and the extra point made it 13-7 with 9:04 to go in the half.
A couple of slow, penalty-ridden drives slowed the game’s momentum, with Hermiston punting the ball after reaching 4th-and-27. Hinkle intercepted the ball on the Cougars’ first play after receiving, however, and scored a touchdown. Neal followed up by running it in for a two-point conversion, ending the half with a score of 21-7.
Mountain View couldn’t score on their first possession of the half, thanks in part to several quick stops by Hermiston’s Vaemu Ena.
Hermiston scored again with 5:40 left in the third quarter as Hinkle pushed across the line for a touchdown and the follow-up kick was good. They followed up with another touchdown as James connected with Neal, guarded closely by two defenders, in the end zone to make the score 35-7 as the third quarter ended.

Mountain View wasn’t ready to be counted out yet, however. Their offense found their momentum in the fourth quarter with a strong ground game. The Bulldogs simply couldn’t stop running backs Micah Hooole and Spencer Klein as they ran the ball again and again, bringing the score to 35-14 with 9:13 left in the game as Klein ran it in for a Cougar touchdown.
During Hermiston’s long answering drive, Cougar

Tyler Smith barely missed intercepting the ball in the end zone and the Bulldogs ended up attempting a field goal that did not succeed.
The Cougars scored again on the next drive, making it 35-21 with 2:50 left in the game and putting them within striking distance of a win. But the Bulldogs ran out the clock before they could score again.
After the game Faaeteete said the he was happy with the win after the season’s first two losses left a “sour taste in peoples’ mouths.” Looking forward to next week’s home game against Summit he said it was time to work on tightening up the team’s performance.
“There were too many mistakes, too many mental errors,” he said. “We’ve got to clean that up.”
