ARRESTS, CITATIONS

Friday

- Pendleton police arrested Jamie Rae Rankin, 25, of Heppner, for third-degree robbery.
- Oregon State Police arrested Kathryn A. Patrick, 32, of Pendleton, for duii (alcohol).
- A Umatilla man who did not appear for his court date on a duii charge now has another duii arrest.

Oregon State Police arrested Gregory Martin Eubanks, 54, after receiving a report at 11:11 p.m. of a driver in a Subaru Legacy nearly crashing head-on with a vehicle on Highway 395 near Umatilla. The Legacy hit the curb on the southbound side of the freeway and popped both driver side tires. Eubanks "exhibited multiple signs of impairment" at the scene, according to state police, and refused to take sobriety tests or provide a breath sample.

The trooper arrested Eubanks for reckless driving and felony duii, and also found he had a warrant after failing to appear in court on a previous duii charge.

Saturday

- Oregon State Police cited Joshua D. Williams, 24, no address provided, for duii. His blood-alcohol level was .14 percent.
- Stanfield police arrested Kyli Jane Mayenschein, 23, of 77665 S. Edwards Road, Stanfield, for felony and misdemeanor attempt to elude/flee, hit and run (property), menacing, unauthorized use of vehicle and second-degree robbery.
- Pendleton police arrested the following for duii: Rylen James Crawford, 21, of 151 W. Beebe Ave., Hermiston; Travis D. White, 31, of 117 N. Yost St., Kennewick; and Oscar L. Saluskin, 27, of 151 Snowcaps Lane, Port Angeles, Washington.
- Oregon State Police cited Isaiah Aguilar, 18, of Hermiston, for duii after he displayed "multiple clues of marijuana impairment" during a traffic stop near Hermiston. Aguilar was driving a 1995 black Saab around 11 p.m., according to state police, but going 17 mph slower than the speed limit on Umatilla River Road near McConnell Lane. State police also reported the trooper found marijuana and marijuana paraphernalia in the car and let his mother take him home.
- Pendleton police cited Michael D. Eisland, 25, of Dallesport, Washington, for duii.

Sunday

- Hermiston police arrested Eddie Terrell Scott, 19, of 2712 N.E. Riverside Ave., No. 37, Pendleton, for two counts of restraining order violation, two counts of first-degree burglary, and one count each of second-degree disorderly conduct, second-degree assault, fourth-degree assault, trespass and interfering with making a report.
- Umatilla County Sheriff's Office arrested Christina Marie Luna, 26, of Hermiston, for fourth-degree assault, reckless endangering and harassment.
- Milton-Freewater police arrested Cristobal Jaimes Rogel, 29, no address provided, for third-degree theft, possession of methamphetamine and on a Walla Walla County warrant.

OBITUARIES

Dorothy A. Reese

Pendleton
July 9, 1927-September 10, 2016

Dorothy A. Reese, 89, of Pendleton, Oregon, left this life to join her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ on the morning of September 10, 2016, after an extended illness.

Dorothy was born to Rufus A. and F. Helen Farrens on July 9, 1927, in Hood River, Oregon. She attended public school in Lone, Oregon, and graduated from Echo High School in June of 1945. She also attended the University of Oregon.

While attending high school she met the love of her life, Leon A. Reese. While Leon served our country in WWII, Dorothy finished high school and once he returned they were married on September 11, 1946, in Pendleton. They enjoyed 70 wonderful years together.

Dorothy enjoyed many interests such as golfing, gardening, hunting, fishing, cooking, keeping a busy home and being a wonderful and loving wife to Leon and mother to their four children Ryan, Sherman, Betsy and Arleta. She and Leon were partners in the family farm until they retired in 2005.

In addition, Dorothy served through her many charitable contributions in the Lutheran Church as well as involvement in Volunteer Overseas Cooperative Assistance in eastern Europe, Umatilla County Conservation Farm of the Year in 1987, Umatilla County Cowbelles, Altrusa International, the Umatilla County Historical Society and the Oregon Angus Association.

She had a great love for family and was frequently hostess to large family gatherings that included her numerous nieces and nephews and other extended family. Breakfast was a delight anticipated by all as Dorothy often made pfan-nekuchen for the crowd.

Dorothy was preceded in death by her parents, her sisters Arleta and Genevieve, and brother Ordie.

Dorothy is survived by her husband Leon A. Reese; their children and spouses Ryan A. Reese (Julie), Gleneden Beach, Oregon, Sherman J. Reese (Stacy), Deer Park, Washington, Betsy R. Sharp (Daniel), Portland, Oregon, and Arleta A. Thorne (Timothy), Pendleton, Oregon; 13 grandchildren and spouses; and four great-grandchildren.

A private graveside service was held at the Echo Cemetery with Reverend Donald G. Reese officiating.
