

PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

MONDAY

7:34 a.m. - A Milton-Freewater woman on the 700 block of Vining Street reported someone threw a rock through a window of her home.

8:20 a.m. - An employee at Columbia River Machinery, 80907 N. Highway 395, Hermiston, reported a customer rented a trencher and trailer but has not returned them, and the company sent a 10-day demand letter to him.

8:40 a.m. - A man told Hermiston police he corresponded with a female on a dating website and now she is harassing him on the site and on Facebook.

8:44 a.m. - A Hermiston caller reported a cat stuck in a window well at the yellow house at the corner of Southwest 11th Street and West Highland Avenue.

8:56 a.m. - The Waterhole Tavern, 51593 Highway 332, Milton-Freewater, was the target of a burglary. An employee arrived for work and reported someone ransacked the business and the safe was missing.

11:33 a.m. - Pendleton police and medics responded to the 400 block of Southwest 20th Street after a man reported he believed his friend was dead from alcohol poisoning.

The patient refused an ambulance ride to the hospital.

2:04 p.m. - A Milton-Freewater man on the 700 block of Vining Street reported the theft of a toolbox, drill set and more from his house.

2:29 p.m. - A man and woman rifled through mailboxes at Tum A Lum and East Ballou roads, Milton-Freewater.

5:49 - Three boys pulled dog waste garbage bags through Harrison Park on West Madrona Avenue and Northwest 13th St., Hermiston. They took off running when an adult approached them about their activity.

6:36 p.m. - The Umatilla County Sheriff's Office received a report of a man walking over people's property and looking in windows on South Water Street, Weston. He wore blue jeans, had a brace on his right wrist, and dirty, long blonde hair.

6:50 p.m. - A man at Pilot Travel Center, 2115 S. Highway 395, Stanfield, reported the theft of his wallet from his vehicle. He said the wallet had credit and bank cards and estimated it also contained $100-200 in Canadian cash and $300-$400 in U.S. denominations.

8:23 p.m. - A Hermiston man on East Beech Avenue reported a woman he knows stole two of his watches and a jar full of coins. He also said the neighbors asked her what she was doing at a house there, and she told him that she was family and just taking a shower.

9:51 p.m. - Hermiston police received a report of one female beating up another, possibly both were minors, on West Sunland Avenue.

10:14 p.m. - Music from a live band at a house on Northeast Sixth Street, Hermiston, promoted a noise complaint from a neighbor, who asked police to send an officer to quiet down the group given this was a school night.

ARRESTS, CITATIONS

- Hermiston police arrested Israel Wenseslad Segura, 23, of Hermiston, on warrants for violating probation and failing to appear, along with charges of driving with a suspended/revoked license and possession of methamphetamine.
- Oregon State Police arrested Craig Quahan Lecomu, 43, of Pendleton, for felony driving under the influence of intoxicants. The legal limit for blood-alcohol level while driving is .08 percent; state police reported Lecomu's was .26 percent.
- Umatilla County Sheriff's Office arrested Martin Aaron Norman, 54, no address provided, for fourth-degree assault, coercion, and menacing.

Patricia Bridget Boyd

Pendleton
 February 17, 1923-September 17, 2016

Patricia Bridget Boyd, 93, of Pendleton died peacefully at home on Saturday, September 17, 2016.

Patty was born in Pendleton on February 17, 1923, to James and Kate (McDevitt) Daly. She was raised on her family ranch on Little Buttercreek in Heppner, Oregon.

After attending school at Pleasant Point and Pine City she graduated from Heppner High School in 1940. That summer she served on the Heppner Rodeo Court representing the Lena Grange. As World War II approached in 1941, Patty moved to Pendleton and went through a training program for a position at the Pendleton Air Base. Subsequently, she worked for the phone company and gas company.

In 1947 she married Virgil (Butch) Boyd and raised three children, Sandra, Michael and William.

Patty worked many years at Dr. John McBee's dental office.

Over the years a constant in her life was volunteering to help others. She taught religious education classes at St. Mary's Catholic Church and helped many through St. Mary's Outreach Program. She was an active member of St. Mary's Catholic Church and a lifelong member of the Catholic Daughters of America.

Patty was known for her kindness, humor, friendliness and hospitality toward all. Her family, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends are grateful for the goodness she shared with them over her many years of life.

Her family includes Sandy Boyd, Mike and Dee Ann Boyd, and Bill and Cindy Boyd; grandchildren Brian Boyd, Katelyn and Joren Ross, Shannon Boyd, and Travis Boyd; and great-grandchild Erik Ross.

She was preceded in death by: her husband, Virgil Boyd; parents James and Kate Daly; and siblings Mary Doherty, Kathleen (Kal) Stuvland and Charles Daly.

Recitation of the Rosary will be held Thursday, September 22, 2016, at 7:00 p.m. at Burns Mortuary chapel in Pendleton. A Funeral Mass will be celebrated on Friday, September 23, 2016, at 10:00 a.m. at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Pendleton, followed by interment at Olney Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers a memorial contribution may be made to St. Mary's Outreach Program, 440 S.W. Emigrant Avenue, Pendleton, OR 97801.

OBITUARIES

Helena Marie Besemann Reinhart

Weston
 March 25, 1918-September 14, 2016

Helena M. Reinhart, 98 years old, passed away on Wednesday, September 14, 2016, at her home in Weston, Oregon. Helena was born at home near Warroad, Minn., on March 25, 1918, to Charles and Minnie (Siemers) Besemann. She and her four sisters grew up on various farms in northern Minnesota.

She married John W. Reinhart on October 22, 1936, and together they raised six children, three boys and three girls. As a farmer's wife she supplemented their income by working at various jobs. She and John moved to Parkdale, Ore., in 1969 and went to work for Luhr Jensen. After retiring and losing her husband, she moved to Weston, Ore., in 1995 to be closer to her family.

Helena attended church regularly and had a deep and abiding faith in God, which sustained her through the loss of four of her children. She was a mother and grandmother to many people who came into her life, and a much loved aunt. She provided tender and unselfish care to a dear friend who died of cancer.

Helena was an avid hunter and fisherman, loved camping, and told awfully good stories about those adventures. She sewed, knitted (she could knit socks and watch TV at the same time), crocheted, gardened and loved to dance. Some of her favorite times later in life were spent on the Snake River fishing with her special friend. As she became less active in her later years she became a devout Mariners fan.

Helena's family is so grateful for the excellent, loving care provided to her in the waning months of her life by her niece, Shirley Reinhart Harrison from Minnesota, which allowed Helena to stay near her family in her beloved Weston home. Walla Walla Hospice was also a great help and comfort to Helena and her family.

She is survived by her son Ronald Reinhart and his wife Darlene of Athena, Ore.; daughter Myrna Evans and her husband Lloyd of Baker City, Ore.; daughters-in-law Patricia and Cheri Reinhart of Weston, Ore.; 10 grandchildren; 12 great-grandchildren; two great-great-grandchildren; several special family members; and numerous nephews and nieces.

Helena was preceded in death by her husband John, sons Gordon and Walter, daughters Sandra and Lorna, and three grandchildren.

There will be a memorial service at the Weston Community Church in Weston, Oregon, on Saturday, September 24, 2016, at 1:00 p.m. Those who wish may make contributions to a charity of their choice.
