Bolden gives Beavers offense a big play threat

By KEVIN HAMPTON
The Gazette-Times

CORVALLIS (AP) — Oregon State quarterback Darell Garretson had a great view of Victor Bolden’s 92-yard touchdown run in the third quarter of the Beavers’ 37-7 win against Idaho State last Saturday.

Garretson handed Bolden the ball as he ran past on the fly sweep and then watched the play develop.

“He hit the corner really quick and I saw him go (downfield) and I was like, ‘OK.’ Once I saw him pick up his knees and really start driving, that’s when I knew he was pulling away from everybody,” Garretson said.

An Idaho State corner angled in at Bolden, who faked a move to the inside.

“I saw the one corner come all the way across and once he gave the stick move inside I was like, ‘Oh, no, Vic, don’t go inside. I don’t want to go all the way down there and run a couple more plays,’ “ Garretson said. “So he stayed outside and he scored and I was like, ‘Oh, thank God.’ Got to the sideline and waited for him to get to the sideline to dap him up and say good job.

“It was a pretty neat view from all the way back there.” Bolden said he was just trying to get in the end zone.

“When the ball’s in my hand, just try to get to the end zone, make a play,” Bolden said.

It was the biggest play of a big day for Bolden.

He finished with 111 yards on three carries and had two catches for 56 yards, including holding on to a 48-yard toss from Garretson while falling backwards to the Reser Stadium turf.

“It was good to get back home to Reser and be there with the fans and with my teammates and go out there and get a win,” Bolden said.

Bolden’s performance was a strong statement after a tough effort at Minnesota.

He dropped a key pass and had some trouble in the punt return game. He did have a 30-yard touchdown catch but finished with five catches for 32 yards.

“I think he bounced back really fast and he had a great week against Idaho State
