OBITUARIES

Kenneth C. Lindsay

Heppner
June 24, 1943-September 18, 2016

Kenneth C. Lindsay passed away surrounded by his family Sunday night at the age of 73 after a brave battle with cancer.

Ken was born June 24, 1943, in Twins Falls, Idaho, to parents Esther (Gray) and Charles Lindsay. He graduated from Pendleton High School in 1960. He married the love of his life, Bonnie Baker, on May 20, 1963, in San Diego, California, where he served four years in the United States Navy, ending with an honorable discharge.

Ken and Bonnie returned to Oregon, living primarily in Morrow County. Ken enjoyed a long career in the logging industry as a truck driver for over 45 years, working in Oregon, Idaho and Alaska.

Ken enjoyed spending time with his family, three children, seven grandchildren and four great-grandchildren, especially after settling nearby back in Eastern Oregon a few years ago.

He is survived by his wife Bonnie; children Traci (Jesse) Jeffreys, Todd (Missy) Lindsay, and Tami Graves; grand-children Amanda (Brian) Kitchin, Zach (Chelsie) Kurtz, Kayla and Sami Graves, and Maddie and Jake Lindsay; great-grandchildren Hailee, Brooke and Braxton; and brother Jim (Sharon) Lindsay.

He was preceded in death by his parents, grandson Daniel Jeffreys, great-granddaughter EmmaLee Kitchin and brother Jerry(Nancy) Lindsay.

The family asks you to join in a celebration of life service and meal planned for the Heppner Elks Lodge in Heppner, Oregon, on Saturday, September 24, 2016, at 2 p.m. The family is planning a private scattering of cremains for a later date.

Steve Sowell

Hermiston
July 16, 1952-September 15, 2016

Steve Sowell was born July 16th, 1952, to Dale and Faye Sowell in Pendleton, Oregon. They moved to Hermiston in 1964 where he resided the majority of his life. Steve was one of seven kids. Even as a kid he made his siblings laugh. You could find him in the garage right beside his dad working on cars and laughing. He came from a family of cooks and was always eager for a family get-together to enjoy a good meal and story. Steve was always the first to help with any project around the house with any of his family and friends.

Steve was one of Jehovah's Witnesses and steadfast in his faith. In 1980 he married Maria Bromell. Steve and Maria were best friends and enjoyed many adventures together. They loved to buy and sell cars, owning over 200, garden, ride motorcycles, travel to the coast, camp, spend time with their kids, grandkids and great-grandkids and go out in service.

They raised a family together, of which Steve was very proud. Steve followed in his dad's footsteps being the family rock, always being the first person his kids and grandkids called for advice. He always had time for his family. Steve loved to go to the mountains and looked forward to camping trips with friends and family.

Steve worked for Umatilla County Housing Authority for 40 years, where he made some lifelong friends. Steve always had a joke and had the most contagious laugh. He enjoyed going to yard sales and antique shopping with his daughter Sarah; they covered four states looking for antiques, sharing many stories and laughs. He also loved gardening and canning with her, and just having Sunday dinner with the family. Steve also enjoyed working on cars with his son Jesse. Steve was always up to work on any car and teach Jesse his skill. Steve loved hanging out with Wesley and sharing laughs. Wesley, having the goofy sense of humor that matched Steve's, was priceless to him.

Steve was a skilled mechanic, carpenter, painter, plumber, gardener, landscaper, and bargainer. He liked to joke that he was a jack-of-all-trades, master of none. Steve's friends always joked that he could sell ice to an Eskimo in the wintertime. He was always willing to teach his kids and grandkids his trades.

Steve is survived by his loving wife of 36 years, Maria Sowell; daughter Sarah (Sowell) Scanlon, grandson Skylar and wife Ashlie, great-grandkids Ava, Austin and Alani, grandson Zachary, granddaughter Andrea and great-granddaughter Willow, grandson Taylor and granddaughter Allison; son Jesse Sowell, wife Denise and granddaughter Hailey; son Wesley Sowell; two brothers and two sisters; and several nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Dale and Faye Sowell; brothers Gary Dyer and Mike Sowell; and nephews Ezra Nelson and Shawn Dyer.

Service will be held at 1 p.m. September 24th at the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses in Hermiston, with dinner to follow at daughter Sarah Scanlon's house.

Novelist W.P. Kinsella, author of 'Shoeless Joe,' dies

VANCOUVER, British Columbia (AP) — Canadian novelist W.P. Kinsella, who blended magical realism and baseball in the book that became the smash hit film "Field of Dreams," has died. He was 81.

His literary agent Carolyn Swayze said in a statement that Kinsella's death on Friday in Hope, British Columbia, was doctor-assisted. Details about his health were not disclosed. Assisted deaths became legal in Canada in June.

In the 1982 novel "Shoeless Joe," a farmer hears a voice telling him to build a baseball diamond in his corn fields. When he does, Shoeless Joe Jackson and other baseball players of yesteryear come to play. It became the blueprint for the 1989 Oscar-nominated movie, which starred Kevin Costner, James Earl Jones and Ray Liotta.

Key turns of phrases in Kinsella's book — "If you build it, they will come" and "Go the distance" — have taken their place in literature's lexicon and among Hollywood's most memorable movie lines.

Kinsella, a bona fide baseball junkie, loved the movie and said he had tears in his eyes when he saw it.

"I wrote it 30 years ago, and the fact that people are still discovering it makes me proud. It looks like it will stand the test of time," Kinsella said.

Much of Kinsella's work touched on baseball. He published almost 30 books of fiction, non-fiction and poetry and won the Order of Canada, one of the country's highest honors.

William Patrick Kinsella was born in Edmonton, Alberta. His father John had played minor league baseball, and the young Kinsella fell for the game playing with friends on sandlots in Edmonton.

Vancouver Writer's Festival founder Alma Lee said Kinsella was a private man with a passion for baseball.
