

BMCC: Host CBC on Friday

better job of getting the talent he knows the team possesses to translate in their play.

“We just inexplicably have a group of kids wearing the Blue Mountain uniforms this year that they just don’t seem to have what previous teams have had when it comes to the point where, hey somebody is pushing us hard and so, hey we push back,” he said. “If they just played with some guts and fire all the time ... if they would just impose their will, we wouldn’t be 13-13 right now and the girls would be having a lot more fun.”

Statistics were not available from the match.

It was the third loss in five matches since starting NWAC regional play for BMCC (13-13, 2-3 East), which was coming off a win over Wenatchee Valley on Monday by scores of 25-21, 25-20, 25-22. Statistics from that match also were unavailable.

Next up for the Timberwolves is a home match against Columbia Basin (13-16, 3-2) on Friday at 6 p.m.
