

SINGER: Irrigon and Umatilla both have big home games this week

Pendleton now needs to win out against Hood River, Bend, and Hermiston, and then needs some of the teams ahead of them to lose more than one game. Along with Pendleton at 1-3, Mountain View and Ridgeview also need to win out and get some help to make the postseason.

In Class 3A's Eastern Oregon League, five teams are currently vying for the league's two guaranteed postseason berths. Vale leads the pack at 2-0, while Umatilla, Burns, Nyssa, and Irrigon all sit at 1-1.

This week brings two of the biggest match-ups in the region as Umatilla hosts Vale on Friday night, and Irrigon hosts Nyssa. Both Umatilla and Irrigon need victories against their counterparts Friday to keep pace in the standings, and wins would also boost each team's resume for a possible at-large bid as well.

And in Class 2A's Columbia Basin Conference, Stanfield and Heppner have all but wrapped up the league's two playoff spots, and appear headed for a winner-take-all match-up next week in Heppner. The Mustangs have won the league in each of the past four seasons — two CBC, two in Blue Mountain Conference — and have won 21 straight league games dating back to October 2012 when they dropped a game to Stanfield.

And the Tigers are putting together perhaps their best season in the school's recent years, blowing through the first six games of the season and outscoring opponents an average of 49-20.

PREPS: Pioneers forced to shuffle lineup

Nelson said. "I was proud of the way the progressively got better as the match went on."

Brooke Smiley led Mac-Hi (1-10, 0-4 GOL) with three kills and added two digs and a block, while Alexxus Shelton pitched in four digs, one block and one ace. Anney Banek added a solid two ace, two assist, two block performance as well.

Mac-Hi hits the court again on Tuesday when it hosts La Grande at 3 p.m.

WALLOWA 3, HELIX 1 — At Wallowa, the Helix Grizzlies turned in a disappointing performance on Saturday as they fell to both Wallowa and Joseph by 3-1 scores.

Against Wallowa, the Grizzlies fell 24-26, 11-26, 26-24, and 21-25, and then against Joseph the Grizzlies fell 20-25, 19-25, 25-20, and 12-25. The losses drop Helix to 14-8 overall and 6-5 in the Old Oregon League.

Helix next plays at Ione on Tuesday at 5 p.m.

FOOTBALL
ONTARIO 53, MAC-HI 0 — At Ontario, Mac-Hi was held to less than 200 yards on offense in its Greater Oregon League opener on Friday.

It was the first game at quarterback for Riley Chester after academic issues and illnesses forced coach Gary Robertson to make some lineup changes during the week.

Chester completed four passes to Miguel Garcia for 27 yards and ran for 30, and Kassius Gonzales led them on the ground with 36 yards.

"We clearly need to review with the surrounding personnel all the various schemes to maximize his effectiveness for us at quarterback," Robertson said in an email. "He brings an added run dimension that could open additional running lanes and throwing options."

Mac-Hi (2-3, 0-1 GOL) plays at La Grande on Friday at 7 p.m.

Report scores to sports@eastoregonian.com or (541) 966-0838.
