

PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

TUESDAY

1:44 a.m. - A 9-1-1 caller in Umatilla reported a "higher power" told her someone was outside her home and she may have heard noise in the backyard but that could be her dog. Still, she said, she would like an officer to contact her.

8:28 a.m. - Pendleton police received a report that a man was holding a child hostage at Indian Hills Village Apartments, 1335 S.W. Second St.

8:39 a.m. - A man asked to speak to a Umatilla County sheriff's deputy after a near crash. He reported he was northbound on Highway 395 near Punksin Center Road, Hermiston, when a driver with California plates changed lanes and did not signal, nearly clipping his vehicle.

They pulled into the parking lot at Oxarc Inc., 80492 Highway 395 N., Hermiston, where the caller said the other driver made threats. The caller said he was going to tell police, and the other driver stated he was the police.

11:24 a.m. - A caller from Stahl Farms on Despain Gulch Road, Stanfield, reported a bulk tank of pesticide leaked during the weekend, possibly due to vandalism. The man also said he contacted emergency and environmental agencies.

11:50 a.m. - Union Pacific Railroad reported a male was "playing chicken with the trains" about half a mile north of 64348 Old Oregon Trail Road, Meacham.

1:13 p.m. - Hale's Restaurant, 174 E. Main St., Hermiston, was the victim of theft. Someone stole two checks from the business, according to the report to Hermiston police, and cashed them in Walla Walla.

1:55 p.m. - A woman went to a home on North Prescott Street, Echo, and grabbed the occupant there by the neck. That person then bit the attacker. The call information indicated the two know each other.

2:04 p.m. - Staff at the United States Post Office, 104 S.W. Dorion Ave., Pendleton, reported a woman wearing a yellow bandanna, gray tank top and jeans stole items from the lobby.

3:49 p.m. - A Pendleton man on Southwest 31st Street reported the neighbor's dog escaped and mated with his dog, and the neighbor suffered a bite when he pulled the dogs apart.

8:02 p.m. - A screaming man approached two people at Southeast Emigrant Avenue and Main Street, Pendleton, then tried to shake their hands and sell them drugs. Police did not find the would-be dealer.

8:43 p.m. - The Umatilla County 9-1-1 center received a call from a man who stated, "I need to talk to Bill Golter," a Hermiston police officer. The dispatcher asked the caller questions, but he only said he wanted to talk to Golter.

A woman then got on the phone, said there was no emergency and her boyfriend was highly intoxicated and tried to explain to him not to call 9-1-1.
