Ruth Arnell Cherry Monacelli

Palm Desert, Calif.
November 16, 1934-September 21, 2016

Ruth Arnell Cherry Monacelli, age 81, of Palm Desert, California, passed unexpectedly on September 21, 2016.

She was born November 16, 1934, to Pearl (Thornby) Cherry and William Glenn Cherry in St. John, North Dakota. The family then resided at the "Columbia District" near Hermiston and Ordance. Ruth graduated in 1952 as class valedictorian from Hermiston High School.

Ruth attended two years at Whitman College in Walla Walla, before realizing the travel bug had bit her. The urge to travel and explore led Ruth to join United Airlines as a stewardess in 1955. She also did national advertising for them as a model. With this job she moved to Chicago and then to New York City then settled in Waterford, Maine. She moved to Boston, Mass., and became a tour and travel consultant for a large travel company. This was a job she loved and would keep for years while traveling the world. While in Boston she met and married Dr. Carl Monacelli in 1976. They lived in Brookline, Mass., where Carl had a dental practice. They were together until he passed away from a long battle with cancer.

In 1982 Ruth moved to the West Coast, living in Kennewick, Wash., to be closer to her mother and family. She spent much of her time in Hermiston helping with her mother and continuing to travel as a global tour guide. After her mother passed on, at the age of 100, Ruth moved to Palm Desert, Calif., in 2007. One of her favorite places in the country was Palm Springs and the surrounding Coachella Valley area. Ruth loved the heat of the desert, and had always stated that this is where she wanted to retire.

Ruth spent her time in Palm Desert volunteering with The Palm Springs Museum. She was an active member of The Clipped Wings Ladies groups in Palm Springs. Ruth's independent spirit was felt by all as she insisted on living on her own, and still driving and attending all her social outings until the very end. Her final home was in Palm Desert, California.

Ruth was preceded in death by husband Dr. Carl Monacelli; father William "Glenn" Cherry Sr.; mother Pearl Grace Thornby Cherry; brother Lt. Cmdr. William Glenn Cherry Jr.; and niece Anne Cherry Heath.

She is survived by daughters Susan M. Moore of Sherbon, Mass., Carol Monacelli of Boston, Mass., and Patricia Monacelli of Sete, France; sister-in-law Eleanor (Dick) Hudson of Florida; sister Murial Brainard of Coos Bay, Ore.; brother James (Loretta) Cherry of Albany, Ore.; numerous niece and nephews; and many grandchildren.

A memorial gathering of friends and family will be held Saturday, October 22, 2016, at 2 p.m. at The Oxford Suites in Hermiston, Oregon.
