

PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

MONDAY

2:58 a.m. - A man told Hermiston police a co-worker about 12-hours earlier flipped him off and threw an object at him while driving by. The caller also said the co-worker told others he would punch the caller in the face.

7:57 a.m. - Milton-Freewater police received reports of someone slashing tires on the 200 block of Northeast Eighth Avenue, Milton-Freewater.

9:26 a.m. - A male at Safeway, 203 S.W. 20th St., Pendleton, tried to throw a rock at a person in a wheelchair. That person called 9-1-1, and the thrower took off in a green Jeep Cherokee.

9:56 a.m. - A Pendleton man on Northwest Eighth Street reported his neighbor using his trash can.

9:57 a.m. - Law enforcement responded to a 9-1-1 call at North Townsend and East Punkin Center roads, Hermiston, about a male and female swinging bats at each other.

10:33 a.m. - The Morrow County Sheriff's Office responded to Cottage Creek Apartments, 160 N. Chase St., Heppner, after a woman said her neighbor yelled at her dog and her and threatened her significant other. Deputies warned the woman for having a dog that is a public nuisance.

10:53 a.m. - Two females burglarized a man's house on Northwest 11th St., Hermiston.

3:17 p.m. - A Hermiston woman asked to speak to police about harassing text messages she's been receiving.

4:02 p.m. - A Hermiston business identified who stole its gas card and racked up more than $6,100 in charges.

4:04 p.m. - A man in Umatilla called 9-1-1 and reported a male pulled a gun on him.

4:30 p.m. - A Hermiston woman living at Eldorado Apartments, 245 N.W. 11th St., reported a male who makes her feel uncomfortable followed her to the back of the building while she walked her dog and took photos of her dog.

4:53 p.m. - Hermiston police received a report of a male trying to sell passports and other items outside Home Depot, 300 W. Harper Road, Hermiston. Officers did not find the seller.

4:54 p.m. - Pendleton police received a call to check on the welfare of a male who could be suffering delusions of police surrounding him.

7:05 p.m. - A member of a church on West Hermiston Avenue, Hermiston, reported a woman in a van on nearby Fifth Street has her music so loud "they can't even pray in peace." The caller also said the woman accosts people for money, yells and screams at people.

8:23 p.m. - A Pendleton woman on Northwest Fifth Street reported her back door flew open, she closed it, and it opened again. She said she suspected someone was trying to break in but she did not see anyone.

9:11 p.m. - Staff at Eastern Oregon Correctional Institution, Pendleton, told law enforcement that an armed escort would transport a "category 5 inmate" to St. Anthony Hospital, Pendleton.

ARRESTS, CITATION

Hermiston police arrested local offender Clarence Delgado King, 46, of Irrigon, for possession of methamphetamine and on two warrants for failure to appear.

Betty Bedortha

Heppner

February 26, 1928-October 17, 2016

Betty Bedortha, 88, of Heppner joined her husband in heaven on Monday, October 17, 2016. A memorial service will be held Saturday, Oct. 29th at All Saints Episcopal Church, 140 West Church Street, Heppner.

Betty was born February 26, 1928, in Tokeland, Washington. She was raised in Tillamook, Oregon, and attended business school in Portland, Oregon, upon high school graduation.

Betty returned to Tillamook and married Kenneth Bedortha in 1948. They later left Tillamook and purchased a dairy farm in Springfield, Oregon, and ultimately started Bedortha Construction Company. The couple sold the business and moved to Central Oregon where they raised beef cattle. Along the way they raised four children, and upon early retirement returned to Springfield to start a new business, Oregon Meter Repair, and then settled in Tillamook with their business. After spending many winters in Yuma, Arizona, they chose to retire there and enjoyed golfing and traveling until Ken's health forced them to return to Oregon. They moved to Hermiston, Oregon, to be near their son and daughter. Ken passed away in 2009 from Alzheimer's. While in Hermiston, Betty stayed active and was a volunteer for Good Shepherd Auxiliary, member of Hermiston Emblem Club as well as St. John's Episcopal Church.

Bedortha

For the past year, Betty had lived at St. Patrick's Senior Center and just recently moved to Willow Creek Terrace Assisted Living in Heppner. Betty loved playing bingo, relished the meals at the senior meal site and enjoyed her morning coffee friends.

Betty's favorite pastime was reading and she passed away while reading a book nestled in her lap. She was an avid OSU Beaver fan and loved to tease Oregon Duck fans whenever she could.

Betty dearly cherished all of her friends at All Saints Episcopal church. She always commented how nice and friendly everyone in Heppner was to her.

She is survived by son Mike (Cristal) Bedortha of Gridley, California; daughter Marcia (Gary) Kemp of Lexington; son Tom (Teresa) Bedortha of Heppner; and son Tim (Elena) Bedortha of Beaverton, Oregon; 11 grandchildren and 18 great-grandchildren.

Betty was preceded in death of her husband of 61 years, Ken, and her father and mother, William and Louise Riechers.

Memorial contributions may be made to All Saints Episcopal Church, P.O. Box 246, Heppner, OR 97836.

Sweeney Mortuary of Heppner is in care of arrangements.

Ronald M. Fagg

Ukiah

October 26, 1944-October 18, 2016

Surrounded by his loving family, Ronald M. Fagg passed from this life as a result of a hemorrhagic stroke on October 18.

Ron was born on October 26, 1944, in Rupert, Idaho, to Ronald M. Fagg Jr. and Gladys Arndt Fagg. He was a familiar face at the family grocery store where he worked throughout high school. He graduated from Minico in 1963 and went on to graduate from the College of Idaho and earn a degree in physical therapy from Washington University in St. Louis.

Fagg

He served as a therapist at the Elks Rehabilitation Center in Boise and St. Anthony Hospital in Pendleton. He started a private practice in Pendleton, which he operated for 30 years. Most recently he made his home in Ukiah, Ore.

Ron was active in many organizations including being Master Counselor for DeMolay, past president of the Pendleton Main Street Cowboys, a member of the Oregon Trail Snowmobile Club, OPTA, and working with the Justin Sports Medicine van. He greatly enjoyed the outdoors and enjoyed sharing it with friends and family. He also enjoyed City League Basketball, fishing, and RVing. He was indeed gifted at scroll saw work and made many artistic pieces for others. The most important thing to Ron was taking care of his family.

Ron is survived by his loving wife Donna of Ukiah; son Mike Ford (Melinda Franklin) of Texas; daughters Shawna Smith (and Kalib Sumter) of Redding, Calif., Brenda Gregg (and Sante Espinoza) of Virginia, and Jennifer Pearson (and Scott Maricle) of Idaho. Ron has one brother, Rand, of Rupert, Idaho, and five grandchildren.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to Ukiah Senior Center or Ukiah Quick Response, Ukiah, OR 97880. Checks can be sent to City of Ukiah, P.O. Box 265, Ukiah, OR 97880.
