

EAST OREGONIAN SPORTS

WEEKEND, OCTOBER 29-30, 2016

FOLLOW US ON TWITTER @EOSPORTS

1B

HERMISTON

Dawgs hold off Bucks

Hermiston's Dayshawn Neal turns up fields as Pendleton's Aiden Patterson prepares to make the hit in the Bulldogs' 13-12 win against the Bucks on Friday in Hermiston.

Staff photo by E.J. Harris

Staff photo by E.J. Harris

Hermiston's Dayshawn Neal attempts to leap away from Pendleton's Aiden Patterson in the Bulldogs' 13-12 win against the Bucks on Friday.

Staff photo by E.J. Harris

Pendleton's Everett Willard takes down Hermiston's Tucker Salinas in the Bulldogs' 13-12 win against the Bucks on Friday in Hermiston.

Hermiston stops Pendleton on late conversion to seal win

By MATT ENTRUP
East Oregonian

Both teams said anything could happen when the Hermiston Bulldogs and Pendleton Buckaroos met on the gridiron for the 91st time in the cross-county rivalry on Friday at Kennison Field.

When Pendleton pounced on an inside kick with 17.3 seconds left in a wild fourth quarter, it looked like just about everything had. Then the Buckaroos lined up for a 64-yard field goal with the game on the line.

The craziness stopped there, though, as the kick only traveled about half the distance needed, and Hermiston was finally able to celebrate a 13-12 victory that was their fifth in a row over their rivals.

"It was fun and exciting," said Hermiston senior John-Henry Line. "Those guys work hard, they're good. They gave us a fight."

"We knew they were going to bring their best because it was their last game, they've got nothing to lose."

The tone was set early in the game when both defenses came out with aggressive game plans that had the opposing quarterbacks running for their lives.

Led by the four solo sacks of Line and See RIVALRY/2B

Staff photo by E.J. Harris

Hermiston's Peter Earl rushes the ball chased by Pendleton's Everett Willard in the Bulldogs' 13-12 win against the Bucks on Friday in Hermiston.

Prep Football

TigerScots turn in complete game, thump Culver

Weston-McEwen now in position to make postseason

East Oregonian

ATHENA — The Weston-McEwen TigerScots ended their roller coaster regular season on a high note, defeating the Culver Bulldogs 27-12 on Friday night.

The TigerScots (3-5, 2-2 CBC) compiled more than 300 yards of total offense against Culver (2-6, 1-3) and shut down the Bulldogs on defense to pull out the victory.

"The defense really stepped up and came together, and it allowed our offense to really pick up," Weston-McEwen coach Travis Glover said. "We threw a bunch of different sets at (Culver) ... we could run it, we could throw it, and our offensive line was really strong."

"It might be the best four quarters we have put together this season."

Brett Speed led the TigerScots passing attack with 105 yards on 6-12 passing with one touchdown thrown to Kevin Rodriguez. On the ground, Jake Speed led the way with 108 yards on 16 carries, while Kirk Scott added 31 yards and two touchdowns and Ethan Reger pitched in 45 yards and a touchdown on 13 carries.

And the win did more than give the TigerScots (3-5, 2-2 CBC) a good feeling on senior night, too, as it may have solidified a spot in the 2A state playoffs. At press time, the TigerScots sit in the No. 16 spot

See PREPS/2B

Weston-McEwen quarterback Brett Speed scrambles to escape Culver defenders Friday in Athena.

Staff photo by Kathy Aney

Cleveland's Coco Crisp hits a RBI-single against the Chicago Cubs during the seventh inning of Game 3 of the World Series Friday, Oct. 28, 2016, in Chicago.

World Series

Cleveland grabs advantage in Game 3

Crisp's RBI single gives Indians a 2-1 lead

By JAY COHEN
Associated Press

CHICAGO — The Chicago Cubs had one of baseball's best lineups during the regular season. Anthony Rizzo and Kris Bryant piled up big numbers, and Ben Zobrist, Dexter Fowler and Addison Russell contributed to a well-rounded attack.

It has been feast or famine so far in the playoffs.

The Cubs were shut out for the fourth time in their last eight postseason games when they lost 1-0 to Cleveland in Game 3 of the World Series on Friday night, handing home-field advantage right back to the Indians. Not even Kyle Schwarber could save the NL champions this time around. "We were just out of the zone way too often," manager Joe Maddon said. "We've got to get our strike zones organized offensively, and if we do, we'll be fine."

The Fall Classic returned to Wrigley Field for the first time in 71 years, attracting a raucous crowd of 41,703 and packing the bars and restaurants that surround the cozy neighborhood ballpark. Some of the fans dressed up in Cubs-related costumes, and there were periodic cell-phone flashes in the stands all night long.

But there wasn't very See WORLD SERIES/3B

Sports shorts

Broncos RB undergoes knee surgery

ENGLEWOOD, Colo. (AP) — Denver Broncos running back C.J. Anderson is pointing to a possible return during the AFC playoffs after having the meniscus in his right knee repaired.

The Broncos are expected to place their leading running back on injured reserve, which would put him out of action a minimum of eight weeks. Anderson had surgery in California on Thursday to repair a torn meniscus in his right knee 72 hours after getting hurt.

Anderson got hurt on his second carry Monday night but returned to the game and ran 14 more times for 84 yards and a touchdown, finishing with 107 yards on 16 carries in Denver's 27-9 win over Houston.

Rookie Devontae Booker will make his first start Sunday when the Broncos (5-2) host the Chargers (3-4).

Anderson

"It hurt a lot this week. I thought about it every day and every night. I just kept telling myself, 'Go win Martinsville.'"

— Martin Truex Jr.

NASCAR driver of a blown engine in his Toyota led to his elimination in the Chase for the Sprint Cup championship last weekend at Talladega.

Truex vowed to win the remaining four races, and is off to a good start after a pole-winning run Friday at Martinsville Speedway.

Matsuyama backing up his top 10 ranking, leads at HSBC

SHANGHAI (AP) — Hideki Matsuyama arrived at the HSBC Champions as the first Japanese player in nearly two decades to reach the top 10 in the world ranking. His 19 birdies over 36 holes in biting chill and swirling wind helped explain how he got there.

Even as the weather shifted dramatically Friday at Sheshan International, Matsuyama kept piling up the birdies. One last birdie on the par-5 18th gave him a 7-under 65 and a three-shot lead going into the weekend of the final World Golf Championships event of the year.

"He is playing very well," said Rory McIlroy, who was six shots behind. "And he'll be tough to catch."

Matsuyama was at 13-under 131 and led by three shots over defending champion Russell Knox (68) and Bill Haas (67).

Matsuyama

THIS DATE IN SPORTS

2005 — Top-ranked Southern California wins its 30th straight game, routing Washington State 55-13. The Trojans tie Texas for the 11th-longest winning streak in major college football history.

2014 — Madison Bumgarner and the San Francisco Giants succeed where no team had in 3 1/2 decades, winning Game 7 on the road for their third World Series title in five years. Bumgarner comes out of the bullpen to pitch five scoreless innings on two days' rest as the Giants held off the Kansas City Royals 3-2.

Contact us at 541-966-0838 or sports@eastoregonian.com