BY LINCOLN PEIRCE

NATE! WOW! I'M... I'M SPEECHLESS!

AFTER ALL THE CONVERSATIONS WE'VE HAD ABOUT RESPONSIBILITY...

... WELL, LOOK AT YOU! RAKING LEAVES WITHOUT EVEN BEING ASKED!

WANT ME TO GO GET SOME BAGS?

WA HOO!

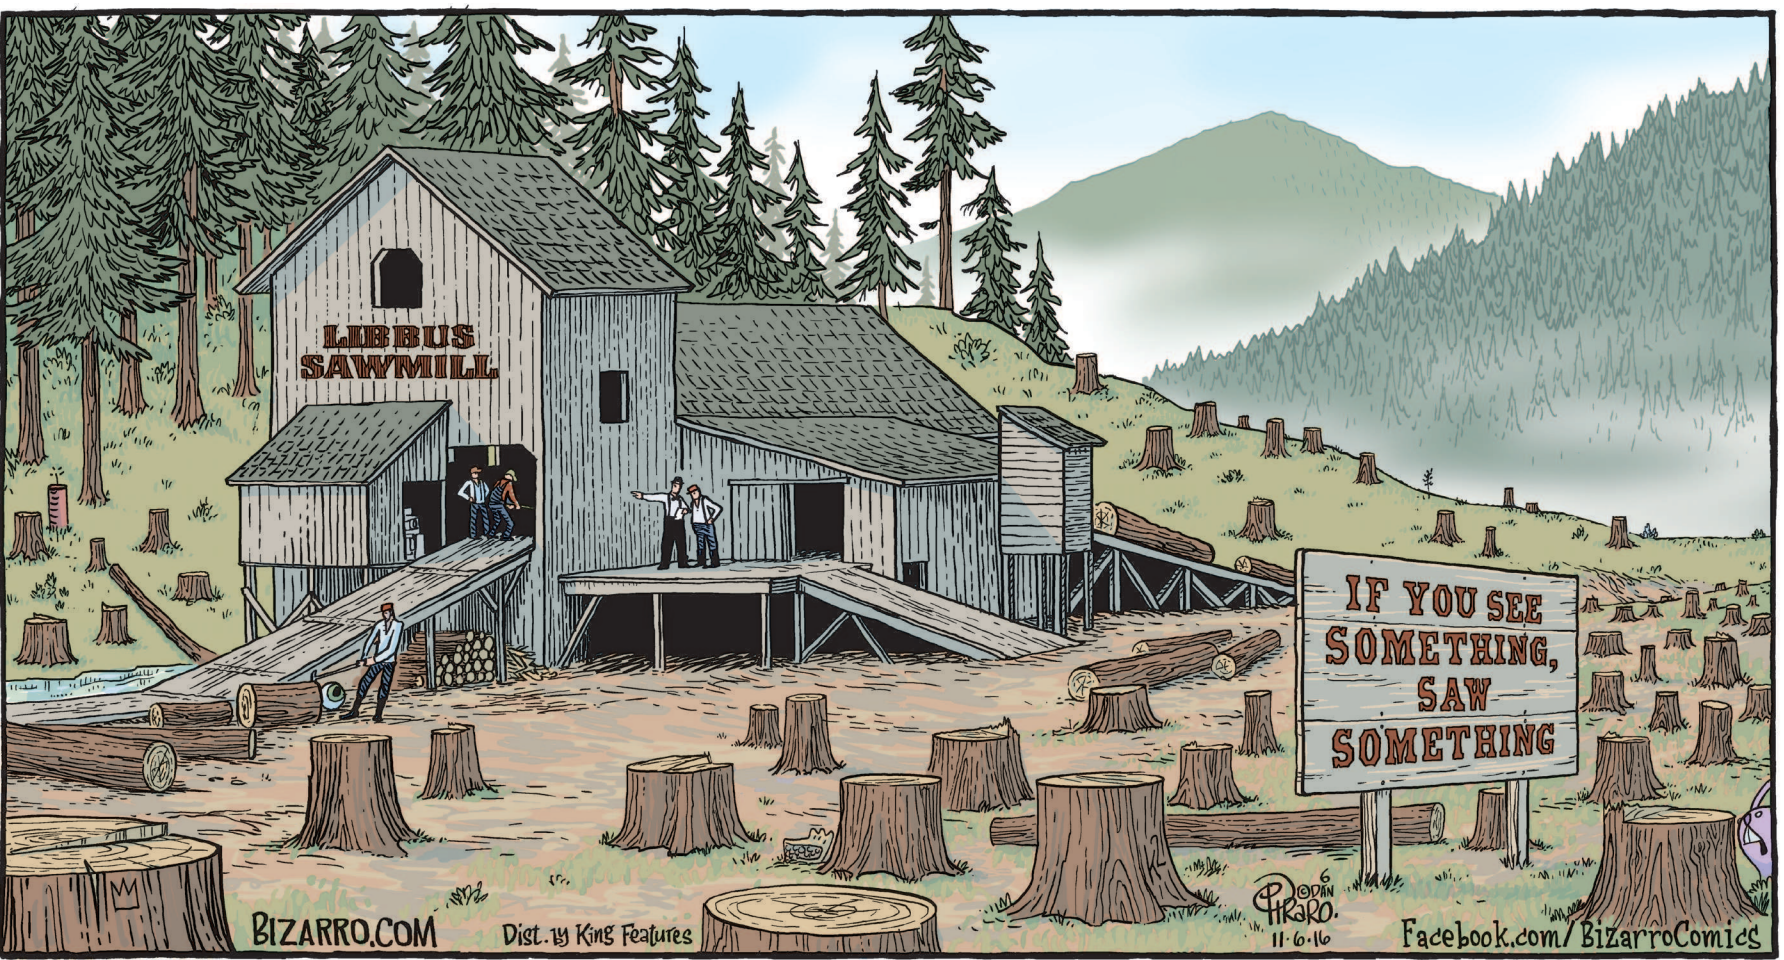

WOWZA! WHAT DO WE NEED BAGS FOR?

FLOOM!

PHOEBE AND HER UNICORN

BY DANA SIMPSON

I wish it would stop raining.

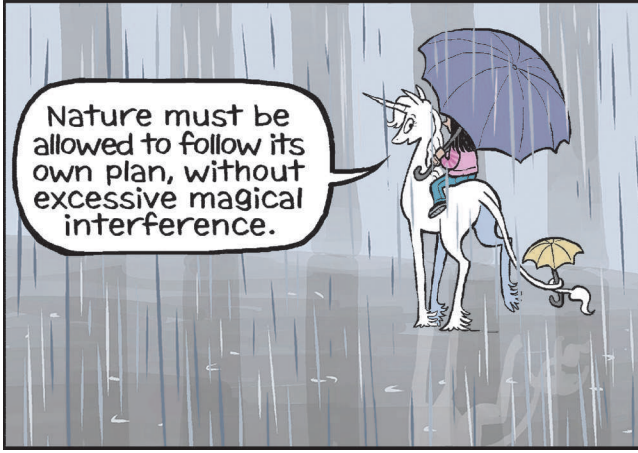

It will stop eventually.

I still don't really understand why you can't use magic to make it stop.

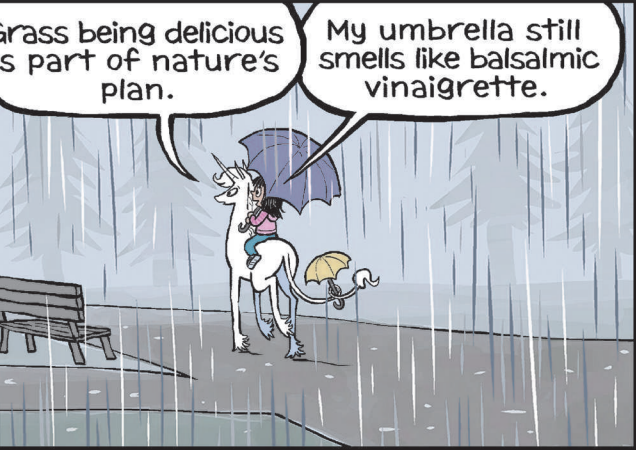

You have never really understood the unicorn code.

Nature must be allowed to follow its own plan, without excessive magical interference.

Earlier, you made it rain salad dressing on the lawn, before you ate some of it.

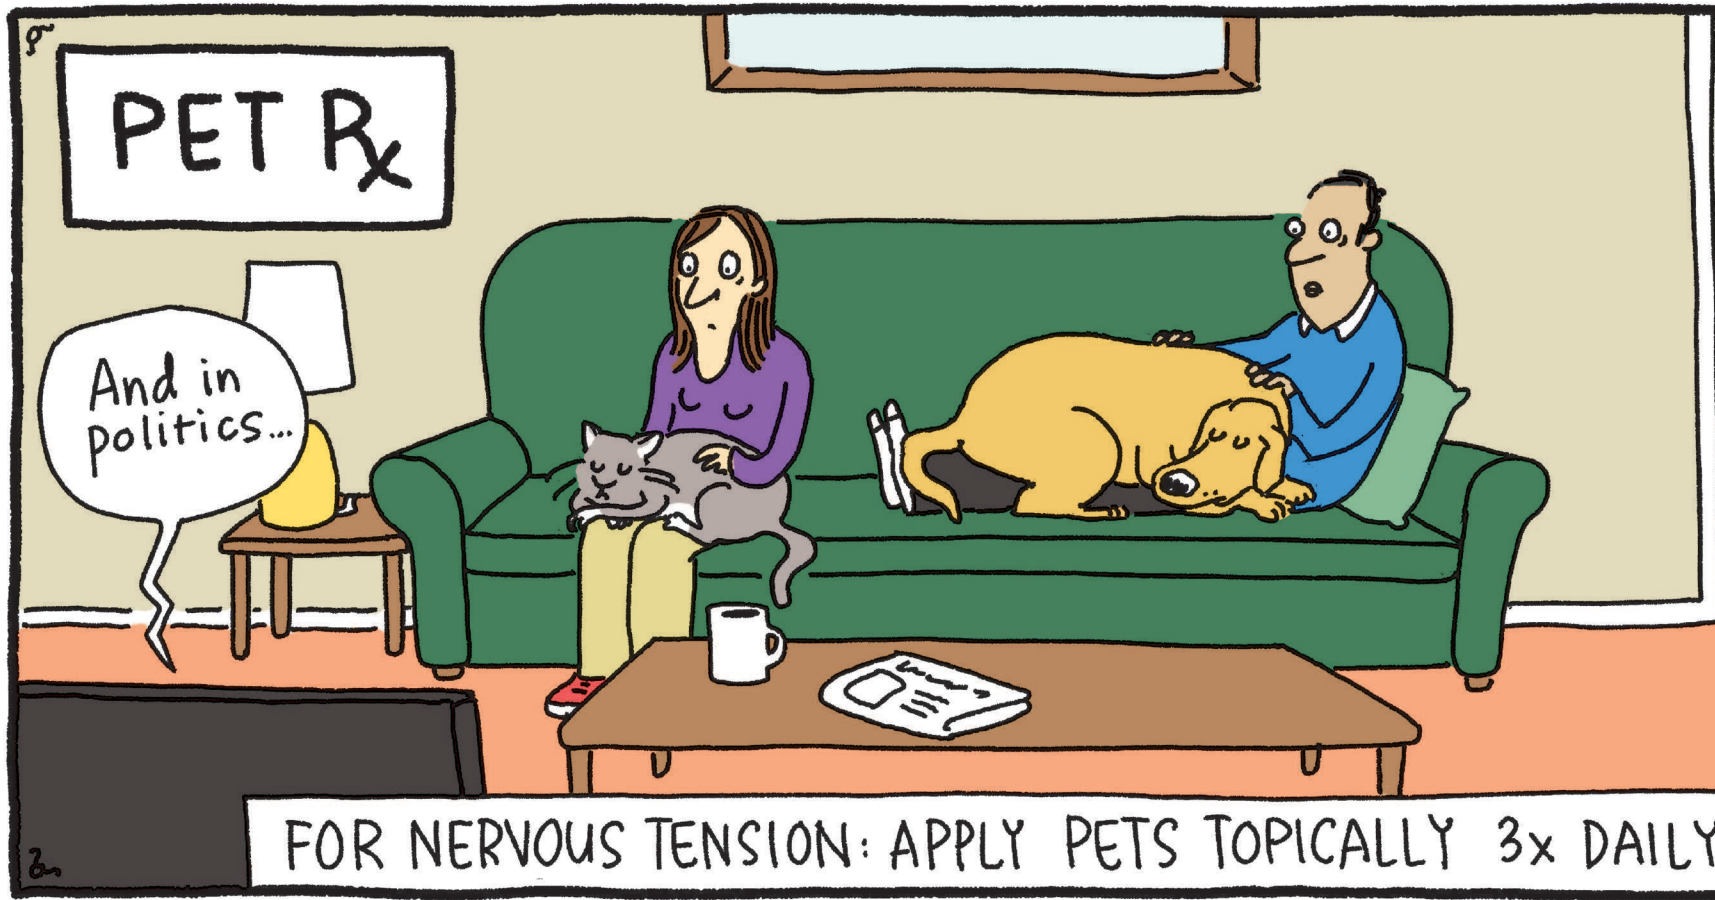

Grass being delicious is part of nature's plan.

My umbrella still smells like balsamic vinaigrette.
