

OBITUARIES

Marilyn Kay Morrell

Pilot Rock

October 14, 1941-October 24, 2016

Marilyn Kay Morrell, 75, of Pilot Rock died October 24, 2016, in Hermiston. A gathering of family and friends will be held on Saturday, November 19, 2016, from 2 to 4 p.m. at Archie's Restaurant in Pilot Rock.

Marilyn was born October 14, 1941, in Pendleton to Arvine and Bertha (Gibson) Porter. She attended Pilot Rock schools and eventually went on to beauty school, having her own shop for many years. In her younger years, she was a beautiful woman who lived an active and interesting life. In 1985, she met and married her life partner, Don Morrell. She worked with him in the electrical business from California to Maine then to Portland. They then returned home to run the family ranch on East Birch Creek in Pilot Rock.

Marilyn will be remembered as a loving, caring, and beautiful person. She loved to laugh and had a great sense of humor. She was very interested in things going on around her and was a wonderful listener. She was always caring and there to support you when you needed her. Marilyn and her husband Don were involved with foster and respite care of children and young people for many years. She volunteered with SMART at the local schools. She was an active member of the Pilot Rock Food Pantry from its inception. She loved her family, friends and community. She will be missed by all.

SURVIVORS include her daughter, Melinda Nicols; son Rob Sewell and wife Kristi; daughter Kathy Morrell; son Deward Morrell and wife Patty; son Doug Morrell and wife Jenny; sister Cheree Evans; brother Lane Porter; and numerous grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her husband, Don Morrell, and brothers Larry Porter and Gary Porter.

Contributions in her memory can be made to the Pilot Rock Food Pantry in care of Pendleton Pioneer Chapel, 131 S.E. Byers Ave., Pendleton, OR 97801.

Online condolences may be shared with the family at www.pioneerchapel.com.

Charline Raona Rooper

Pendleton

February 2, 1931-October 20, 2016

Charline Raona Rooper, 85, a resident of Pendleton, died Thursday, October 20, 2016, at her home. She was born February 2, 1931, in Walla Walla, Washington.

A memorial service will be held Saturday, November 12, 2016, at 11:00 a.m. at Burns Mortuary of Pendleton chapel. A celebration of her life will follow immediately after the service at Shari's Restaurant banquet room, 319 S.E. Nye Ave., Pendleton. Pies and food will be served. Sign the online condolence book at www.burnsmortuary.com. Burns Mortuary of Pendleton is in charge of arrangements.

She was born February 2, 1931, in Walla Walla, Washington, to George W. and Dorothy M. (Coulter) Egg. She enlisted in the U.S. Air Force in October of 1951, receiving honorable discharge from the Air Force in 1953.

She was married to Robert Ogden. They had a daughter and four sons together. Their marriage later ended. In May of 1967, Charline, now a single mom, moved her five children to Pendleton to be closer to her parents who owned and operated the Gurdane Ranch outside of Pilot Rock. Charline then went to work for Blue Mountain Community College as a secretary. She learned to stretch her budget to feed her family of five for years.

In May of 1974 she married Robert L. Rooper. "Charlie" worked as a secretary for BMCC for many years, then worked for the U.S. Forest Service, retiring in 1993.

She was a member of the Pendleton Eagles Auxiliary. One of the great joys in her life was golfing at Echo Hills and gambling at Wild-horse Resort & Casino. She would usually do both with her best friend Linda Gettman.

She is survived by daughter Loetta Dagley and husband Don Dagley of Pendleton, Ore.; sons Roger Ogden and Karen of Spokane Valley, Wash., George Ogden of Pendleton, Ore., and Robert Ogden and Debbie of Washington, Ga.; stepdaughters Tinker Pettyjohn and Sheila Dyer, and stepson Robert B. Rooper; brother George G. Egg and Susan of Vancouver, Wash.; nieces Jo Mae Alexander and Jamie Roderick; and numerous grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

She is preceded in death by her parents, George and Dorothy Egg, and husband Robert L. Rooper.

Education Foundation awards fall grants

On Oct. 20, 2016, 11 teachers from the Pendleton School District present requests for funding to the Education Foundation of Pendleton for various activities for the students in their classrooms.

After listening to the presentations, the Education Foundation granted a total of $12,204 in awards for the following activities:

Schelle Bixler, PHS Honors Biology teacher, will be taking approximately 80 students in her classes on a field trip to the Oregon Coast. This will be her twenty-second year taking these students on this trip.

Kathryn Youngman, PHS foreign language teacher, will take 25 students to the University of Oregon to participate in the Foreign Language and International Studies Day.

Kristin Swaggart, PHS culinary arts teacher, will take her students to participate in the FCCLA State Leadership Conference in Portland, with their main focus competing in the culinary competition.

Olivia Rush, Pendleton High School art teacher, has made arrangements for her students to view gallery exhibits at both Pendleton Center for the Arts and the Betty Feves Memorial Gallery at BMCC several times during the school year.

Kathy Gregory, fifth grade teacher at Washington School, is planning to host three author visits via Skype during this school year.

Jill Gregg, ASPIRE (Access to Student Assistance Programs in Reach of Everyone) coordinator at Pendleton High School, will take 42 students on a trip to visit a public four-year university, a two-year community college, and a private university. They will also visit Columbia Sports in Portland, which provides a view of employment opportunities after college.

Mike Heriza, fourth grade teacher at Sherwood Heights Elementary, will take 90 fourth graders for a tour and lunch at Tamastsk-list Cultural Institute.

Anne Sokolowski, child development specialist at Pendleton Early Learning Center, will again coordinate the Pendleton School District art show to be held in April at the Pendleton Convention Center. This is the 13th year for this event. The public is invited to view the art display which includes projects from pre-K through 12th grade.

Cheryl Carlson, music teacher at Sherwood Heights Elementary School, will take fourth and fifth grade students to participate in the District VI Children's Choir Festival at Eastern Oregon University in La Grande in the spring.

Christina van der Kamp, School to Careers coordinator, is working in a program created to connect students of PHS, Hawthorne Alternative School and Nixya'awii Community School to meaningful career-related learning opportunities. They are collaborating with business and industry partners that will provide students with hands-on career training. The funding will provide the means to build a database management program as well as assist with student transportation needs to and from the business participants.
