Union High class of 1942

There were 47 seniors who graduated in 1942 from the Hermiston Union High School. The five remaining class members met for their 74th class reunion Oct. 22 at Owen Anson's home in Hermiston. They are: (back) Owen Anson, Archie Isensee; (front) Patty Emert Pettyjohn, Thelma Holmquist Lindner and William Jones, the class valedictorian.

THANK YOU
Oktoberfest a huge success

Rain and wind couldn't dampen the fun and success of Oktoberfest Pendleton. More than 800 people came to support this non-profit event that raised over $11,000 for six organizations: Keep Pendleton Swimming/PSA, Pendleton Lions Club, Pendleton City Club, Main Street Cowboys, Pendleton Elks and The Children's Museum of Eastern Oregon. Oktoberfest Pendleton would like to thank all their sponsors and everyone who attended. Your support will have a huge impact on what these non-profit service organizations will do for our community. Danke, and we look forward to next year's event being even bigger.

Council candidate thanks voters

I want to take this time to thank all of you who voted for me on Nov. 8 for Hermiston City Council. I feel very humbled that you gave me a chance to serve you in the city council. I also want to thank each of you that allowed me to place my sign on your lawn. Although I did not get that chance this time to serve you, be assured that I will continue serve our community, attend city council meetings and voice concerns. I also want to thank the East Oregonian and the radio station KOHU for the opportunity to share my views with the public. I hope to do more of that in the future. I have made many new friends during this race and I will continue those friendships. I want to congratulate the winners and wish them the best. Hermiston is a great city and I am very glad I made it my home. Thank you again for your votes.

Your neighbor,
Mark F. Gomolski

Pendleton Kiwanis installs officers, board

Lorie Case of Pendleton was recently installed as president of the Kiwanis Club of Pendleton.

During the club's Sept. 28 annual meeting, the installation of Case, other officers and board members was conducted by Linda Neuman of Pendleton, who is the Division 80 lieutenant governor.

The officers include Pat Hagan, president-elect; Matt Terjeson, vice president; Jodi Emanuel, treasurer; and Kim Peterson, secretary. Also, board members are Sabra Cryser, Jeanne King, Phil Kline and John Norman — with alternates Bob Ehmann and Bob Smith. The immediate past president is Roger Stueckle, who will continue to serve on the club board for the next year.

Case

The Kiwanis Club of Pendleton supports many projects in the community, including Kiwanis Park, college scholarships, the community Halloween party, Altrusa's Feed the Child, the city's Daddy-Daughter Dance, The Salvation Army Red Kettle campaign and Adopt a Family, Babe Ruth, Relay for Life, Pioneer Relief Nursery, the library's Summer Reading Program, Doernbecher Children's Hospital in Portland and Key Clubs at Griswold and Pilot Rock high schools.

The club welcomes new members who want to serve the community. For more information, call Tod Case at 541-278-0726, go to www.kiwanisclubofpendletonor.org or stop by a meeting the first or third Thursday of the month at noon at Roosters Restaurant.

Top fundraisers for the annual bowlathon for Hermiston/Pendleton Special Olympics Local Program No. 510 were Rushelle Myers, Jillian Smalley, Mary Ann Wright, David Andrews and Shona Bergo. The Oct. 29 event, which raised more than $6,000, was held at Desert Lanes in Hermiston.

Special Olympics bowlathon rolls in the dough

More than 70 athletes participated in the annual bowlathon to raise money for Hermiston/Pendleton Special Olympics Local Program No. 510.

The top fundraiser was Shona Bergo, followed by Jillian Smalley, David Andrews, Rushelle Myers and Mary Ann Wright. The combined efforts of the athletes earned just more than $6,600. Money will go toward supporting training and competition in a variety of sports designed for individuals with intellectual developmental disabilities. There is no charge for athletes to participate.

Head bowling coach Doris Boatright was kept busy handing out more than 150 quarters to athletes who earned either spares or strikes during the event.

The athletes are finishing up with fall sports. The winter season, which includes basketball and snow sports, will begin in January.

For more information about participating or volunteering, call Stu Bance, local program coordinator, at 541-376-8132.

Pet of the Week

Bree

Floyd

Come to Pendleton Animal Shelter for our VETERANS WEEK ADOPTION SPECIAL! All of our pets are 25% off for Veterans Nov 8-12th. Must show ID.

Also, our Pet of the Week is a duo special! $50 adoption special for Bree and Floyd. They're two awesome dogs that need loving homes. If you're looking for an energetic and friendly dog who loves kids, Bree might be the perfect choice for your family. Our other special dog is Floyd. He's a handsome boy who loves to play fetch, and run. If you're an active family who is looking for a great friend, Floyd gets along with everyone. To meet our animals come to PAWS at 517 SE 3rd St in Pendleton from 12-4pm Tues - Saturday. Please remember, spay or neuter your pets! PAWS offers a low income program to help with the cost.
