

December . . . Neighborhood Happenings

Rev up for Santa!

ECHO —The 2016 Echo Toy Run kicks off at noon on Saturday, Dec. 3 on Main Street. Motorcyclists are encouraged to bring a new, unwrapped toy and join the procession from Echo to Good Shepherd Medical Center in Hermiston to make the annual donations. Cars and trucks are also welcome to come along for the ride. For more details, contact Al Sells at 541-571-1820.

Homecoming for two Hermiston musicians

HERMISTON — Hermiston welcomes home two award-winning musicians for an "Evening with the Classics" on Saturday, Dec. 10 at 7 p.m. The classical music recital will be held at Hermiston High School auditorium. Featured are conductor and keyboardist Kelly Kuo, artistic director of Oregon Mozart Players, and violinist Ron Blessinger of the Oregon Symphony, each noted for their exceptional musical gifts and heralded by both critics and audiences. Selections will include works by Vaughn Williams, Satoh, and Beethoven. Advance tickets are $20 for adults, $10 for students. For details and reservations online, visit www.desertartscouncil.com/event/29.

Send your little baker to cooking camp

PENDLETON — Cooking Camp is back for the holidays! Pendleton Parks & Rec invites interested young chefs, ages 5 to 10, to try their hand at making some tasty treats the whole family will enjoy.

The four-night class meets 5:30 to 6:45 p.m. on Dec. 19 to 22 in the Foundation Room kitchen of the Pendleton Rec Center. All supplies included in the $25 course fee; must register by Dec. 13. Call 541-276-8100 for details or visit www.pendleton-parksandrec.com and click on "Register."
