Wake Forest fires radio analyst for leaking info

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. (AP) — Wake Forest has fired a former assistant coach-turned-broadcaster who the school says attempted to leak football game plans to opponents for three years.

The school on Tuesday night announced the findings of a nearly monthlong internal investigation that started after documents related to the team's game plan for the Louisville game were discovered at the Cardinals' stadium.

team offensive backfield is senior running back Thylor Monkus, who ran for 1,505 yards and 22 touchdowns in 12 games this season.

Stanfield also had senior linemen Jose Garcia and Noe Sanchez make the first team on both sides of the ball, as both were crucial parts of a tenacious Tiger offensive line and a bullish defensive line this season.

And for Heppner, senior jack-of-all-trades Logan Grieb was selected to the first team as a receiver and defensive back for the second year in a row.

Earning second team honors were Stanfield junior receiver Brody Woods and Heppner junior defensive lineman Wyatt Steagall.

Stanfield's head coach Davie Salas was also voted as the state's Coach of the Year, leading the Tigers to an 11-2 overall record and the school's first league title and state championship appearance in nearly six decades.

BLAZERS:

City's first starting lineup change of the season. Jerami Grant, acquired by the Thunder in a trade with Philadelphia at the start of the season, got his first start for Oklahoma City and finished with 11 points.

The Blazers didn't have Al-Farouq Aminu, who has a sore back, instead starting Noah Vonleh. But Vonleh got into foul trouble, collecting three in the first quarter.

Westbrook's 3-pointer put the Thunder up 25-16 early, but Portland came back to take a 32-31 lead on Allen Crabbe's layup before the end of the first quarter. CJ McCollum made a three-quarter court shot, but he didn't beat the buzzer.

Portland stretched the lead to 50-36 after Evan Turner's floater and free throw. The two sides exchanged words midway through the second quarter when Lillard reached down to pick up the ball at a time out and Westbrook kicked it.

Lillard closed out the half with a left-handed layup to make it 68-52. Plumlee's basket stretched Portland's lead to 90-65 late in the third quarter.

ALL ABOUT THE SHOES

In addition to being Star Wars Night at the Moda Center, the Blazers were celebrating the release of Lillard's new signature shoe, the Dame 3. Lillard wore an all-red version of the Adidas shoe, which will be released Wednesday, and the fans at the game were all treated to T-shirts emblazoned with Lillard's logo.

against them (Irrigon) because they get after you, and they're a really good team."

Heppner (3-1) shot 38 percent (18-48) from the floor in the game and Jake Lindsay was the game's high-scorer with 19 points. Logan Grieb added 17 points for the Mustangs, and Caden Hedman scored 12 points and grabbed 11 rebounds.

It was a two-horse show for Irrigon (2-2) offensively, as Hayden White and Johnny Phillips each scored 14 points in the game.

Heppner next hosts Imbler on Friday night at 7:30 p.m., while Irrigon travels to Grant Union for a 7:30 p.m. start.

RIVERSIDE 53, WESTON-MCEWEN 48

At Boardman, Eon Castillo scored 23 points to lead his Riverside Pirates past the Weston-McEwen TigerScots in a non-league contest on Tuesday night.

"It was a really good win for us," Riverside coach Clair Costello said. "We needed that after falling flat on our face against Walla Walla Valley last week ... I'm starting to get players back from injury and grades, and it's finally looking like the team I envisioned."

Also making an impact for Riverside (3-2) was junior wing Felix Aparicio, who had 18 points in his season debut. For Weston-McEwen (3-2) Shaw Broncheau and Brenden Dearing each scored 12 points to lead the team.

Riverside next travels to Stanfield on Friday to take on lone in the Stanfield Tournament, while Weston-McEwen will travel to Imbler on Saturday.

Ahmaad Rorie, who played his freshman season at Oregon before transferring in 2015, led the Grizzlies (3-8) with 19 points. Michael Oguine and Walter Wright added 12 each.

Montana missed 10 of its first 11 shots but built a 21-14 lead when Oregon went 7 1/2 minutes without a field goal. The culprit was five turnovers in a span of six possessions by Altman's court.

"Good teams don't do that," he said. "Our guards have got to get it moving better."

"Our ball movement and player movement is just slow. We're supposed to be pushing it and flowing into something."

The Ducks had 11 of their 13 turnovers by halftime. They bounced back with a 14-2 run late in the first half and never trailed the rest of the way.

Boucher led Oregon to a 40-34 edge in rebounds. It was his first double-double of the season and 10th of his career.

He also had five of the eight blocked shots by the Ducks, who lead the nation at 8.8 per game.

IRRIGON 50, HEPPNER 28 — At Heppner, the Irrigon Knights got back above the .500 mark for the season with a win over their former league rival Heppner Mustangs on Tuesday night 50-28.

Jada Burns led Irrigon (3-2) with 21 points in the game on 8-19 shooting. As a team, Irrigon shot just 31 percent (20-65) from the field, but played good defense against the Mustangs, as Heppner (2-2) shot just 10-47 (21 percent). Jacee Currin led Heppner with eight points.

Heppner next hosts Imbler on Friday at 6 p.m. and Irrigon heads to Grant Union on Friday at 6 p.m.

WESTON-MCEWEN 44, RIVERSIDE 39 — At Boardman, the Weston-McEwen TigerScots won for the fourth straight game after beating the Riverside Pirates 44-39 in a non-league contest on Tuesday night.

"It was the best game we've played, the girls played hard the whole game," Riverside coach Clair Costello said. "We did everything we could, but their (Weston-McEwen's) height got the best of us in the end."

Sarah Finifrock had 18 points in the game for Weston-McEwen (4-1), including 10 of those in the fourth quarter. For Riverside (2-3) Alondra Caldera led the team with 12 points and added nine rebounds, while Lacey Mashos had 11.

Riverside next heads to Stanfield on Friday to take on lone in the Stanfield Tournament, while Weston-McEwen travels to Imbler on Saturday.
