

BEST OF 2016 PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

JAN. 8

A resident of Arabian Drive, Pendleton, called the Umatilla County Sheriff's Office at 5:30 p.m. to report an unknown animal in their daughter's room had killed a 30-pound dog. The caller said they had the animal detained, but didn't know what it was and requested an officer.

The sheriff's office investigated and found out one of children fell on the dog, scaring it and others in the house.

FEB. 13

10:47 p.m. - Pendleton police received a report of "mass panic/drama that is happening on Facebook on the Real Pendleton Classified (page) regarding some guns that were stolen by some people involved in drugs." A caller asked to speak to an officer about someone "going to get the weapons from the druggo" and said she was concerned the mob from Facebook was planning to go to "the theft/druggo's residence" and take back the guns. The caller also said people on the Facebook page posted the serial numbers of the guns.

FEB. 27

8:16 p.m. - A Hermiston-area man told the Umatilla County Sheriff's Office he had contact on Facebook with a woman from New York who sent him an "exposed picture," so he sent one of himself in return, and she then threatened to show his family unless he paid her money.

MARCH 17

5:30 p.m. - A caller in Athena reported her sister's boyfriend punched her in the chest.

5:30 p.m. - A caller in Athena reported his girlfriend's sister punched him in the face.

APRIL 24

An Oregon State Police trooper caught some crafty marijuana users.

The trooper at about 12:11 a.m. was on Highway 339 near Staline Road when a gray Toyota Corolla drove up behind and passed the trooper at 56 mph in a 40 mph zone.

The officer stopped the car and had the driver, Hector Gonzalez, 26, of Walla Walla, take a sobriety test, which he failed. The trooper arrested him for driving under the influence of intoxicants (controlled substance).

The passenger also ended up under arrest. Roger DeForest Phillips, 27, of Walla Walla, had a warrant in Umatilla County for skipping out on a court appearance for traffic crimes.

The troopers also searched the car and found marijuana and an apple "that was converted into a marijuana pipe."

The driver ended up walking away with a citation, but police put the passenger into the Umatilla County Jail, Pendleton.

JULY 16

11:15 p.m. - A resident of Southwest 19th Street, Pendleton, did some quick thinking to keep a woman calm until a crisis team could be dispatched to his house. The caller said the woman showed up at his door and seemed to be "out of it" and very nervous. While talking to dispatch on his phone he reassured the woman that he was asking his brother to come over and bring some beer, and that "his brother could just come in without knocking."

AUG. 17

9:27 p.m. - In a case of "at least it wasn't a real bullet," a guy and some of his friends showed up at the emergency department at St. Anthony Hospital, Pendleton. He had an Airsoft pellet gun wound to his right index finger from friends trying to shoot a cigarette out his hand.

AUG. 23

A woman rushing to meet her husband at the Umatilla County Jail, Pendleton, might be able to see him for awhile.

An Oregon State Police trooper at 1:10 p.m. stopped a Toyota Tacoma for speeding on Westgate Drive, Pendleton. The driver, Amanda Renee Carper, 29, of Wallowa, said she was in a hurry for a meeting with her husband, an inmate at the jail. But Carper did not have a driver's license, according to the report from state police, and a second trooper arrived and said he saw her shove something under her seat before she stopped.

The first trooper asked Carper to step out of the SUV and saw her try to hide a methamphetamine pipe. State police reported she told troopers where to find more meth in the vehicle.

The trooper arrested Carper and booked her into the jail for possession of meth.

SEPT 9

4:59 p.m. - A man told Pendleton police he wanted to press charges after a male relative of his girlfriend's husband — yes, girlfriend's husband — pushed him around and threatened him.

SEPT. 27

9 p.m. - A Pilot Rock property owner reported the theft of her 468-pound block of petrified wood from her yard on Southwest Sixth Street. Police Chief Bill Caldera said the woman reported she got the block from Arizona years ago and placed it in the front yard. She had not been to the house for a while but sent people on Sept. 17 to care for the yard, and they noticed the block was gone.

Neighbors did not seem to notice when it left, Caldera said, and the petrified wood goes for about $8 per pound for a total value of $3,744.

OCT. 7

12:05 p.m. A 9-1-1 caller in Pendleton reported he needed emergency mental health help, then hung up. He called back and said he was fine but "may have smoked too much of something." He said he would ask family to give him a ride, did not need an officer or an ambulance and would "chill out and relax."

NOV. 14

8:38 p.m. - Some pig — some 400- to 500-pound pig, that is — roamed around houses and yards on Country Garden Road, Irrigon. The Morrow County Sheriff's Office did not find the fine member of family Suidae.

DEC. 16

12:59 p.m. - Another man's identity prevented a Hermiston man from buying a gun. At least for a while.

The local 27-year-old went to the Hermiston Bi-Mart to buy a gun until a background check reported he was in a mental health institution in Alabama, which disqualified him from buying the gun.

Oregon State Police responded, and a trooper found out the buyer and the Alabama resident shared the same spellings on their first, middle and last names and shared same date of birth. Police concluded the person trying to buy the gun was not the person in a mental institution.

Olive Detweiler

Pendleton

July 31, 1924-December 20, 2016

Olive Detweiler, 92, passed away on December 20, 2016. She was born on July 31, 1924, to Jesse and Myrtle Spellman in Yuma County, Colorado. She attended school in a one-room schoolhouse for grades one through eight. Being the third born of four daughters, she was raised during the Depression and dust bowl days when they farmed with horses. Having no brothers, she was the one that helped her father with the outside work.

Detweiler

In 1941, when Olive was 17 years old, her family moved to Wilder, Idaho. The following year she married Leonard Perryman. They had three children: two sons, Gerald and Terry, and one daughter, Sandra. They moved to Madras, Oregon, in 1952 where they lived for three years before moving to Quincy, Washington. The family moved to Pendleton, Oregon, in 1961. They were divorced in 1969.

She married the love of her life, Bill Detweiler, in 1970, and they made their home together in Pendleton. They loved traveling together and spending their time on the Fourth of July wagon train. Olive spent 19 years working at the Pendleton Woolen Mills as a dresser.

Olive found so much joy in watching her family grow. She made a point to attend sporting events for her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. She was an active member of the Let'er Buck 922 post with the VFW, which included being a driving member for cancer fundraising. She was a member of the Free Methodist Church. In her spare time she enjoyed quilting and traveling.

Olive loved her family so much. To her it didn't matter if you were a friend of one of her children, grandchildren, or a "step," you were her family.

Olive is survived by her son Terry Perryman (Evelyn) of Caldwell, Idaho; daughter Sandra Morris (Sonny) of Pendleton, Oregon; daughter-in-law Pam Perryman of Yakima, Washington; sisters Marilyn Roper (Alan) and Lois Hall, both of Caldwell, Idaho; son Bill Detweiler (Connie) of Mountain Home, Idaho; daughter Benita Handford (Carl) of Big Timber, Montana; grandsons Erik Perryman (Britt) of Moscow, Idaho, Kelly Perryman (Jayme) of Boise, Idaho, and Kyle Bryant (Amica) of Pendleton, Oregon; granddaughters Christin Barnes (Keith) of Stansbury Park, Utah, and Lisa Alexander of Florida; additional grandchildren David, Mindy, Adam, Tabitha, Cassandra, Alan, Bobby, Jaime, Zach, Mitch, Matthew, Michael and Marcus; and many great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Jesse and Myrtle Spellman; sister Ruby Knight; son-in-law Grant Gee in 2001; husband Bill Detweiler in 2006; eldest son Gerald Perryman in 2008; son Robert Detweiler in 2016; and granddaughter Mary Summers in 2016.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks that you make donations to the VFW Post 922, in memory of Olive Detweiler.

Burns Mortuary of Pendleton is in charge of funeral arrangements.
