

PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

TUESDAY

6:09 a.m. - An Irrigon caller complained about a Jeep Cherokee and a General Motors Hummer not stopping for the stop sign at Southeast Bandon Street and Utah Avenue.

10:30 a.m. - A Milton-Freewater woman told police someone stole cash from her home on the 400 block of South Elizabeth Street and is using her bank card.

10:42 a.m. - Umatilla police responded to McNary Heights Elementary School, 120 Columbia Blvd., in regards to some stolen gym equipment.

11:49 a.m. - Pendleton police and emergency medics responded to 401 N.W. Bailey Ave. for an assault. Pendleton Police Chief Stuart Roberts reported officers found a 19-year-old male bleeding profusely from the head, and an ambulance took him to St. Anthony Hospital, Pendleton.

"He initially refused to provide any information concerning the assault," according to Roberts, "stating he could not remember."

Police found the teen told others a man assaulted him with a flashlight but no one witnessed the assault. The victim also told police he did not want to pursue the matter.

Later, an officer questioned the victim at the hospital. Roberts stated the teen "disclosed what he knew, but reiterated that he did not want the matter investigated. He stated the person he believes assault him was intoxicated, and 'people do stupid things when they are drunk.'"

Roberts also reported officers seized two flashlights from the possible scene of the assault.

12:43 p.m. - A caller asked to speak to Pilot Rock police about someone having photos of her passed out and of her debit card on their cellphone.

1:16 p.m. - A woman reported a dog attacked her Monday while at her grandmother's home on Birch Creek Road, Milton-Freewater, and the dog again is on the loose and preventing her from getting out of the car.

2:27 p.m. - A Pilot Rock resident asked to speak to police about harassing calls from collection agencies. The calls have been happening for more than five years, and five calls came Monday alone. The collection "agent" also was rude.

3:44 p.m. - A Pendleton man on Northwest Seventh Street told police he thinks somebody let out his dogs Monday and Tuesday, which both had temperatures below freezing.

4:06 p.m. - A Pendleton man on Northwest Horn Avenue reported possible cougar tracks in his yard.

5:48 p.m. - The Morrow County Sheriff's Office received a call from a woman concerned about the welfare of a dog in the area of the Mountain Glen Apartments on Northeast Pioneer Drive, Heppner. Four minutes later, a man living on Highway 207, Heppner, reported a black dog with snow and ice matted in its fur and on its paws was at his home and needed someone to check on its health due to the cold.

5:57 p.m. - A Hermiston resident on North Townsend Road told law enforcement someone kicked in the door at the house, stole their mom's car and brought it back. The caller asked to speak to a Umatilla County sheriff's deputy.

6:08 p.m. - Pendleton police received another complaint about the same man bothering women at a meeting at Helping Hand, 346 S.E. Second St. The man and his green Jeep Cherokee were gone by the time police arrived.

10:06 p.m. - A resident on Columbia Boulevard, Umatilla, called 9-1-1 to report someone threw her trash at her front door.

ARRESTS, CITATIONS

*Pendleton police cited the owner of two dogs that trapped a woman and her cat.

Pendleton Police Chief Stuart Roberts stated the dogs "are notoriously at-large" and police have cited their owner multiple times.

Tuesday a little before 1 p.m. the dogs chased a cat onto a roof on Northwest 12th Street. The cat's owner climbed a ladder to get her cat, according to Roberts, but the dogs stood at the base of the ladder barking.

"We responded, took possession of the dogs and lodged them in the pound," Roberts stated. "The owner of the dogs claimed they last night, at which time she was issued a citation for dogs at-large."

Once officers finish reports, he added, he would review the facts and circumstances to determine if the dogs are dangerous.

*Pendleton police arrested Beau Alan Wade, 38, of Pendleton, for fourth-degree assault constituting domestic violence.

Ann Grubb Breland

Pendleton
February 4, 1929-December 15, 2016

Ann Breland, 87, a long-time Pendleton resident, passed away December 15, 2016, in Pendleton. A memorial service will be held at 11:00 a.m. on Saturday, January 7, 2017, at Pendleton Pioneer Chapel, Folsom-Bishop with a reception to follow at the First Presbyterian Church.

Ann was born February 4, 1929, to Hamilton and Olive Grubb in Petersburg, Indiana, where she was raised with her younger sister Judy. After graduating from Petersburg High School, Ann moved to Evansville, Indiana, where she attended Lockyear Business College on Fifth Street in downtown Evansville. After completion of the program, she went to work for many years at the urology practice of Dr. Acre and Dr. Hare, also in Evansville.

It was at Pfafflin Lake in nearby Newburgh, Indiana, that Ann met a young, Mississippi-born food chemist from the Evansville Igleheart Division of General Foods, Dan Breland, and not long after, in 1956, they were married.

In December 1961, Dan accepted a position as plant manager of the Igleheart Flour Mill in Pendleton, where he relocated with Ann and their two young children, Greg and Brad. Their youngest son, Patrick, was born in Pendleton.

Ann will be remembered as a good wife, mother, and cook. Ann's true enjoyment in life was to be a good stay-at-home mother. Hawaii was a favorite travel destination, and she enjoyed being a member of several bridge clubs. She was a member of the First Presbyterian Church and a regular at the Pendleton Racquet (Athletic) Club.

Ann is survived by her husband of 60 years, Dan Breland; sister Judy Berberich of Murfreesboro, Tennessee; sons Greg (Jackson, Miss.), Brad (Twin Falls, Idaho), and Patrick (Tucson, Ariz.); eight grandchildren; and niece Jayne LeGate and nephew John.

Online condolences may be sent to www.pioneer-chapel.com

Memorial donations may be made to the First Presbyterian Church Westminster Woods in care of Pendleton Pioneer Chapel, 131 S.E. Byers Ave., Pendleton, OR 97801.

OBITUARIES

Martha Lee Woodward

Pendleton
September 26, 1942-December 27, 2016

Martha Lee Woodward, 74, died on Tuesday, December 27th, 2016, in Walla Walla. There will be a private family memorial in the spring.

Martha Lee Woodward was born on September 26th, 1942, in Tillamook County, Oregon, to Bohn Vance and Jessie (Musgrove) Vance. Her parents later divorced. Her father then married Evelyn Vance who raised Martha as her own.

Evelyn was very supportive and proud of Martha's accomplishments. Martha was raised and educated in Ontario, Oregon, where she graduated with honors. She went to Eastern Oregon University and graduated with a bachelor's degree in education and then received her master's degree from the University of Oregon in library science.

Martha married James J Woodward on December 26th, 1964. They were married 52 years. She worked as a children's librarian at Umatilla County Library beginning in the 1970s. She loved cooking, sewing, shopping, and all of the holidays. She was interested in art and especially the local artists and musicians of the Pendleton area. She enjoyed writing poetry and attending community concerts and Blue Mountain Community College events.

Martha is survived by her husband, James Woodward of Pendleton; stepmother Evelyn Vance of Ontario, Oregon; sisters Susan Loewen of Tulsa, Oklahoma, Nickie Scharbrough and husband Alan of Payette, Idaho, Barbara Barger and husband Jim of Norman, Oklahoma, and Julia Probst of Council, Idaho; and one brother, Robert Vance of Fruitland, Idaho. She is also survived by numerous nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her father Bohn Vance; two sisters, Bonnie Aries and Nancy Barowsky; and one brother, Richard Vance.

Contributions in her memory can be made to the American Cancer Society.

Burns Mortuary of Pendleton is in charge of arrangements.
