Hermiston boys win Hood River meet, Pendleton second

East Oregonian

HOOD RIVER — Hermiston's boys swim team made it two-for-two on the season by winning the Hood River Invite on Saturday.

A week after tying Pendleton to win both team's first meet of the season last week, the Bulldogs surged to the top of the podium with 471 points at Hood River.

Pendleton was a distant second with 277, and they were followed by Hood River with 263 and The Dalles with 225.

Hood River won the girls' meet with 619, Pendleton was second with 493, The Dalles was third with 388 and Hermiston was fourth with 164.

Hermiston's win again came with a strong showing from its relays as it placed second and third in both the 200-yard medley and freestyle, and second and fifth in the 400 freestyle to score 194 team points.

Hermiston scored the bulk of its points by placing several swimmers in each individual event, though. Points were awarded down to 16th place.

Taking first for the Bulldogs was Carson Wrathall in the 200-yard freestyle in a time of 2:04.53. He also was second in the 100 free (54.78) and Ryan Barnard placed second in two events, the 100 butterfly (59.84) and 100 backstroke (1:05.01).

Pendleton's boys didn't have the amount of placers to compete with the Bulldogs, but brought back more event wins.

The 400 relay team of Rylan Headley, Avery Madril, Shane Miltenberger and Jon Jennings won in a time of 3:46.46 and each swimmer placed first or second in an individual swim as well.

Jennings won the 100 butterfly (56.62) and 100 backstroke (57.24), Headley won the 100 breaststroke (1:13.85), and Miltenberger won the 500 freestyle (5:37.46) while placing second in the 200 freestyle (1:06.31). Madril placed second in the 200 individual medley (2:30.68).

Pendleton's girls won two events as Sam Schmitz touched the wall first in the 100 freestyle (1:00.90) and Landry Huth won the 200 freestyle (2:19.08).

Placing second for the Lady Bucks were Schmitz in the 50 freestyle (26.90), Olivia Broker in the 500 freestyle (7:05.75) and 100 breaststroke (1:19.96), Oceane Schreier in the 200 individual medley (2:43.62) and the 200 freestyle relay team of Schreier, Janessa Headley, Huth and Schmitz (1:58.22).

Pendleton and Hermiston will be back in the pool on Saturday at a meet in La Grande.

Greb scores 17 to lead Buckaroos girls in non-league action

East Oregonian

PENDLETON — The Buckaroos overcame early foul trouble to beat Baker 62-49 on Monday in a non-league game that had been rescheduled from earlier this season.

Haley Greb led the way with 17 points and every player that got in the game scored for Pendleton (5-5). Maureen Davies added 10 points, and Katie Bradt had a big contribution off the bench with seven points and a team-high nine rebounds.

Pendleton coach Kevin Porter said Bradt was seeing more time than usual because starting post Kalan McGlotham was in foul trouble the whole game and finished with just four points.

"It was a big team win, everybody that played scored and so I couldn't be more happy about that," Porter said.

Pendleton led 32-31 at halftime and opened the second half on a 10-0 run. From there Porter said it was all about maintaining their defensive pressure, and Baker (12-4) never pulled even the rest of the way. Kaeli Flanagan led the Bulldogs with 18 points.

Pendleton will remain in non-league play today for a game at La Grande that tips off at 7 p.m.

LA GRANDE 65, HERMISTON 37 — At La Grande, the Bulldogs were never able to find a rhythm and were routed in non-league play on Monday night.

"It was our ugliest game of the year," said Hermiston coach Casey Arstein. "La Grande jumped on us early and gave us a little mid-season wake-up call."

No Bulldogs reach double-digits as Hunter Walls and Andrew James led Hermiston (10-4) with eight points each.

Andrew Peasley scored 20 to lead La Grande (14-1), and Gabe Hanson hit four three-pointers to finish with 14.

Hermiston is the only to beat La Grande this season (62-54 in Hermiston on Jan. 14), but may have gotten caught looking forward in its schedule. The Bulldogs open league play Wednesday at The Dalles with a 7 p.m. tip off.
