East Oregonian

The Athena Chamber of Commerce First Citizens Banquet honored Athena Mayor John Shafer and long-time resident Paula Babb as the town's First Citizens of 2016.

The annual event was Jan. 16 at the Athena Baptist Church, where three Weston-McEwen High School seniors received awards for Youth Citizens of the Year: Sara von Borstel, Kellen Fairchild, and Michael Shafer, the mayor's son.

Each high schooler has a GPA above 4.0, according to Weston-McEwen principal Rollie Marshall, and is active in multiple school and community activities.

Von Borstel is a member of the National Honor Society, earned varsity letters in volleyball and basketball and was the 2016 Player of the State Volleyball Game. He also helps friends and the elderly in the community.

Fairchild also is a National Honor Society member, plays multiple sports and earned 50-plus college credits. He also sings in the Athena-Weston Choir and is active in church youth groups.

And Michael Shafer is the high school student body president, an FFA and 4-H member and a Umatilla 4-H Ambassador, where he helps the Umatilla County Fair. He also challenged himself to graduate high school with an associate of arts transfer degree from Blue Mountain Community College.

John Shafer is in his second term as mayor and is chairman of the board of the East Umatilla County Health District. He also volunteers for Cub Scouts and other community activities and serves on the board for the Athena-Weston Education and Resource Enhancement grant program.

Babb is a grandmother and serves on the Athena Mainstreet Association, where she is in charge of the flower planters that add some color to the town. She also organizes Athena's annual fall festival and car show.

The banquet's guest speakers included Umatilla County Commissioner George Murdock of Pendleton and state Sen. Bill Hansell of Athena.
