

PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

TUESDAY

11:22 a.m. - Suspicious texts prompted a Hermiston man to ask for an officer. He said the texts came from a "spoof number" with messages such as "they are on her street" and "she does not want to see daughter again." Police tried but were not able to talk to the caller.

11:46 a.m. - Milton-Freewater police received a report of theft of electrical wiring from the Milton Seventh-day Adventist Church, 1244 N. Elizabeth St. The crime happened within the last three to four weeks.

2:51 p.m. - A caller on Southwest Court Avenue told Pendleton police a female showed up at the residence and caused a disturbance.

4:10 p.m. - Staff at the Pendleton Motel, 620 S.W. Tutuilla Creek Road, Pendleton, asked police to remove a man who was at the premises since the morning.

5:39 p.m. - A man told Pendleton police a woman showed up to his home on South Main Street and threatened him.

5:44 p.m. - A Pendleton woman reported she was scared her boyfriend has been talking bad about her.

7:33 p.m. - One of the volunteers at the Hermiston Warming Station, 1075 S. Highway 395, asked for police. He said the man he trespassed through Thursday night was back.

11:51 p.m. - A Umatilla resident told police concerns about harassment from an ex's father.

10:16 p.m. - An Athena resident reported a male with a flashlight rode a bicycle all over the small town and looked in vehicles and yards.

10:46 p.m. - A son told Umatilla police his father has signs of dementia and was missing.

OBITUARIES

Jessie 'Naomi' Larkin
Hermiston
February 3, 1940-January 20, 2017

Jessie "Naomi" Larkin of Hermiston, Oregon, was born on February 3, 1940, in Baker, Oregon, to parents Haskel "Hack" and M. Ellen Tibbs Bloom. She died on January 20, 2017, in Portland, Oregon, at the age of 76 years.

Larkin

Naomi was raised for the better part of her childhood in Stanfield, Oregon, graduating from Stanfield High School in the class of 1958. Naomi was united in marriage to Harold L. Larkin on May 2, 1965, in Hermiston, Oregon. She worked at the Umatilla Hospital and later at Good Shepherd Community Hospital for 25 years. Naomi then worked in the medical office of Dr. Maguire and Dr. Brueske in Hermiston for 10 years before she retired to focus on being a full-time grandma.

She was an active member of the Seventh-day Adventist Church. Naomi loved to bake and enjoyed sharing her treats with her family and friends. She enjoyed gardening, crafts, crocheting, sewing, and taking pictures. Naomi cherished the time with her family, especially her grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

She is survived by her husband of 51 years, Harold Larkin, Hermiston, Ore.; son John Larkin and wife

Monique, Hermiston, Ore.; daughter Diane Cherry and husband Dean, Hermiston, Ore.; sisters LaGreta Johnson and Beulah Otzenberger, both of Hermiston, Ore.; sisters at heart Lori Rasmussen and Jean Carlton; aunt Jessie Tarter, Hermiston, Ore.; grandchildren: Ashlei, Tucker (Hayley), Mahaila, Cody, Hayden, Trey and Mika; great-grandchildren Jenna, Carter, Payton and Riley; nieces and nephews Bob Bloom, Debbie Brandt, Steve Layman, Susan Phykitt, Pam Johnson, Mark Johnson, and Mike Johnson; and numerous great-nieces, -nephews and cousins.

Naomi was preceded in death by her parents, and her brother Jim Bloom.

A celebration of life service will be held on Sunday, January 29, 2017 at 1:00 p.m. at the Seventh-day Adventist Church, 855 W. Highland Ave., Hermiston, Oregon.

Those who wish may make contributions in Naomi's memory to the Seventh-day Adventist Church Building Fund.

Holly Dawn Wells
Pendleton
June 27, 1964-January 23, 2017

Holly Dawn Wells, 53, passed away Monday, January 23, 2017, at her home. She was born June 27, 1964, to Col. Donn Smith, USAF, and Joyce McKee in Tucson, Arizona. She resided in Pendleton, Oregon, for the past 7 years.

Wells

Holly was an Air Force brat who traveled throughout her life with her father and two brothers (Joel and Donn) on various U.S. postings. She attended American High school in Berlin, Germany. From there, she entered the Air Force and trained in Texas and became a med tech. She married an Air Force mechanic and had three daughters, Sarah, Jamie and Morgan. Holly adored them with all her heart. They resided in Warner Robins, Georgia.

In the year 2009, Holly moved to Pendleton and adopted an adorable miniature Dachshund named Daisy. They were inseparable. After which she found a relationship with Kristian Higginbottom. She remained in this loving relationship with him to this day. Together, they explored the world around them and found comfort in each other.

Holly was known by everyone as a sweet, caring, sincere and honest person. She cared about everyone above herself. Holly enjoyed shopping, going on mountain drives, and quiet evenings at home. Holly loved arts and crafts. She was a lifelong member of the Humane Society. Holly was also a true member of Daughters of the American Revolution. It is a true loss to our world to not have her here with us.

A reception will be held in Holly's honor Saturday, January 28th, 2017, at noon in the community room at Terwilliger Plaza Apartments, 245 S.W. Fifth St., Pendleton, Ore. Contact info 541-310-7034.
