KRIS BARNUM

Kris Barnum is a Student Success Coach at BMCC/Pendleton supporting students in career technical and college prep studies.

Kris began working at BMCC in September 2016, just prior to the start of fall term. She holds Bachelors and Master's degrees in Secondary and Vocational Technical Education from Washington State University. Her career has included many roles in the community college setting primarily in the state of Washington. More recently she worked within the non-profit sector supporting re-engagement programs for youth.

Her favorite thing about work at the College: "I am really enjoying working with both with students and the BMCC team. Community college is just my favorite place to be. BMCC is giving me the opportunity to do the work I love the most!"

Outside of work, Kris enjoys her extensive family and is especially enjoying being close to some of her grandchildren here in eastern Oregon.

WADE MULLER

Wade Muller is a lifelong resident of Umatilla County. His children are the fifth generation to live in their family home.

He recently accepted the responsibilities of Director of Instructional Operations. This position ensures that we have teachers available for the many courses that BMCC offers. Prior to doing this he worked as Director of the Student Success Center which among other duties included managing student advising. He has been with BMCC for 10.5 years.

With a Bachelor of Science in Psychology from Montana State University, he is currently working on a Master of Science in Business and Leadership through Western Governors University.

Wade has been married to his wife, Vicki, for coming on 31 years. He has two great kids, Stephen and Kaitlyn. Stephen works for a cyber security company in Texas and Kaitlyn works for the Clackamas Co Health Department as an environmental epidemiologist. Wade likes photography and traveling to see his kids. Palm Desert is a favorite destination for some golf. He appreciates and loves working at BMCC. "They gave me a chance at a second career and now I'm doing things I never thought I'd get the opportunity to do."

MJ KUJAR

New to BMCC is Vice President of Instruction, Mary Jeanne (MJ) Kuhar. MJ worked most recently as the Executive Dean for the School of Professional and Technical Careers at Lane Community College in Eugene, a position which she has held since 2014. She also has experience as a full-time faculty member and department chair, with strong experience in the health professions programs. She earned her bachelor's degree from West Virginia Wesleyan College (Buckhannon, WV) and a medical degree from the University of Pittsburgh School Of Medicine and worked in a private practice in Bend, Oregon for ten years as a physician in Obstetrics and Gynecology in. MJ began her role at BMCC on Nov. 28.

MJ and her husband John have been married for 27 years and have two sons. Michael is an applications engineer in Beaverton and is married to Kaycee who is a second grade teacher. Joseph lives in Vancouver, Washington and is a data base manager for a large property management company.

She enjoys reading and likes acting. She participated in community theatre when she was living in Florence, Oregon and was active in a number of local productions as a cast member and also part of the production staff.
