PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

12:44 p.m. - A Hermiston woman reported she left her vehicle unlocked on West Cedar Drive and someone stole identification, medication and more from it. The person with her told police someone set off the alarm on his locked vehicle and took nothing from it.

SATURDAY

1:34 p.m. - A driver reported a large U.S. flag on the road at North First Street and West Theater Lane, Hermiston. Police did not find any flag.

6:37 p.m. - A woman in Hermiston reported receiving multiple texts indicating someone followed her while she was in Kennewick. She told an Oregon State Police trooper the texts came from an unknown number and were specific, indicating the sender watched her. The stalker even sent her a photo of her vehicle and used an app to prevent police from identifying

The woman said the sender followed her from Kennewick to the police department in Hermiston.

Police told her to make a report with the Kennewick Police Department and had an officer follow her home.

8:22 p.m. - Three females came into the Holiday Inn Express & Suites, 245 N. First St., Hermiston, and reported someone followed them at a nearby store.

SUNDAY

11:19 a.m. - The driver of a newer red Dodge four-door sedan illegally blocked the handicapped spot at the Hermiston Liquor Store, 1565 N. First St., No. 6, Hermiston. The person who reported this also said he took a photo of the car.

4:36 p.m. - A caller told Hermiston police a group of teens assaulted her son and husband at Northwest Stockton Street and West Elm Avenue.

5:28 p.m. - A citizen flagged down a Hermiston officer at West Highland Avenue and Southwest 17th Street for an injured

9:24 a.m. - Children playing basketball in the road at Northeast Main Avenue and 10th Street, Irrigon, prompted a caller to report they were not paying attention and a car almost hit them. The caller also said this is an ongoing situation.

10:08 a.m. - Milton-Freewater police responded to the 400 block of Robbins Avenue for a break-in and burglary of a shop. 11:19 a.m. - An Irrigon woman called the Morrow County Sheriff's Office for help to get back her dogs.

She reported she left the dogs with friends, but found out on Facebook the friends gave her dogs to a pound. And the pound, she stated, refused to give her the dogs.

She asked to speak to a deputy about what she could do. 1:26 p.m. - Motorcyclists and three-wheel riders without helmets drew a complaint from a caller on West Tamarack Avenue, Hermiston.

3:16 p.m. - A caller reported her granddaughter was on horseback at Washington Lane and West Fourth Road, Irrigon, when a maroon Dodge drove too close, revved the engine and almost caused the horse to buck off her granddaughter.

4:09 p.m. - A resident on Villegas Lane, Boardman, complained to law enforcement about the neighbor's dogs, who are aggressive and use her yard as a toilet.

4:37 p.m. - Six juveniles stole bags of cans from a yard on Northwest 11th Street, Pendleton. 7:21 p.m. - Emergency services in Morrow County received a second-hand report that a driver in a purple Toyota hit a cow on Kunze Road, Boardman

8:03 p.m. - A Heppner caller reported an explosion and flames near Pettyjohn's Farm & Builders Supply, 424 W. Linden

ARRESTS, CITATIONS

Friday

Oregon State Police cited Brook A. Benjamin, 37, no address provided, for driving under the influence of intoxicants. •An Orlando, Florida, man lost a fight with staff at the Umatilla County Jail, Pendleton, following his arrest for drunk Emergency agencies responded to a semitrailer crash at 4:42 p.m. on the westbound side off Interstate 84 near milepost 221. An Oregon State Police trooper contacted the driver, Joseph Patrick Johnson, 33, and noticed he was impaired. State police also reported Johnson failed a sobriety test, which led to his arrest. He resisted, and two troopers worked to put him in the back of a police car. At the county jail, according to state police, Johnson fought with jail staff.

"After the jail nurse administered to him," state police reported, "the driver consented to a breath test." That revealed a blood-alcohol level of .13 percent, more than the .08 percent

State police booked him into the jail for DUII and reckless driving. He also could face other charges. •Oregon State Police arrested Osias Lumnti Edmiston, 20, of Pendleton, for DUII. According to state police, Edmiston admitted to "smoking several bowls" of marijuana before driving.

Sunday Oregon State Police arrested Clyde Dean Brown, 46, of McDermitt, Nevada, for DUII.

Monday •Pendleton police cited a 15-year-old for drinking alcohol after her mother reported the girl was intoxicated and asked officers to talk to her and cite her.

Marie L. Hughes

RECORDS

Pendleton March 30, 1920-February 16, 2017

Marie L. Hughes, a Pendleton resident, died Thursday, February 16, 2017, at her home. She was 96 years old. A Celebration of Life service will be held Saturday, February 25, 2017, at 11:00 a.m. at Burns Mortuary of Pendleton. A luncheon will follow at Lee Pfeiffer's home at 46 N.E. Mt. Hebron Drive, Pendleton, Burns Ore. Mortuary of Pendleton is in charge of arrangements. Sign the online condolence book at www. burnsmortuary.com Marie was born in Fort Klamath, Ore., where she grew up through high school. Eight students graduated from high school, which was the entire school and the last of the grade school in Fort Klamath. The second of five girls and one boy, she also worked alongside her father on their dairy farm. Then off to Oregon State College, Corvallis, Ore., at only age 17.

Marie graduated in 1942 with a home economics major and brand new husband, V. Jay Hughes. Following a small reception, on July 4th, 1942, in 104-degree weather they arrived in Lakeview, Ore., to begin his career with the U.S. Forest Service. Jay joined a summer four-man cruising crew. Marie was the hired cook.

In the fall of 1942 Marie taught in Lakeview High School. Spring 1943 they moved to Shevlin Hixon, a portable logging company 50 miles south of Bend. They transferred to "Fish Hole" out of Bly, into timber and fire control, then to Bly, Ore.

May 10, 1944, their son Raymond (Ray) was born in Bend. From Bly they transferred to Lakeview as assistant ranger. There he was chosen to begin training for ranger.

April 22, 1946, Jay was surprised when Marie gave birth to twins: Rose Marie and Rosa Lee. Jay's exclamation: "Twins! What do you do with twins?" In 1949. with three small children, Jay was promoted as ranger on the Unity District where he quickly became part of community serving on the planning committee for the new community hall and helping Marie with her 4-H club and other activities.

In 1951, Jay moved the family to Rager Ranger Station on the Paulina District to become the first "year round" ranger. Again they were immediately involved with and helping the ranchers. By 1954, they knew his children needed more options. January 1 they moved again where he began as ranger of the Pendleton Martha, the third girl and fourth child, was born.

Marie substitute taught at the junior high and high school, and remedial reading and counseling in a special program at Blue Mountain Community College. She taught Bible in Sunday School and Ladies' Bible Studies. She started Christian Women's Club in 1963, which continues as the Christian Business Women's Club. Until her last breath she taught the importance of having Jesus in one's life.

Marie leaves Raymond Hughes, Seattle, daughter R. Lee Pfeiffer, Pendleton, and son-in-law Abe Ghaffari, Colorado.

Husband V. Jay Hughes, daughters Rose Marie Ghaffari and Martha Hughes, and son-in-law Robert W. Pfeiffer preceded her in death.

Walter Wayne Royal

Spokane, Wash. August 7, 1919-February 20, 2017

Walter Wayne Royal was born August 7, 1919, at Sylvester, Georgia, to Alva Royal and Cora Lee Chapman Royal.

The Royals moved to the state of Florida when Wayne was five years old. He attended schools in Sarasota and Bradenton, Florida, and graduated from Bradenton High School in 1938.

After high school he attended the University of Florida at Gainesville. In 1941 he enlisted in the U.S. Air Force. His tour of duty with the Air Force brought him to Walla Walla, Wash. He was stationed at Walla Walla Air Base with the 88th Bombardment Group. It was here he met the love of his life, Barbara Jean Fine, and they were married September 5, 1943.

Royal

After World War II Wayne and Barbara settled in Walla Walla, Wash., and Wayne was employed with United Air Lines. In 1947 Wayne left United to work for Pacific Power and Light Co. From Walla Walla they later moved to Portland, Ore., to Pendleton, Ore., to Albany, Ore., then back to Pendleton. Wayne retired from Pacific Power and Light in 1981 after 35 years.

During the years the children were growing up Wayne was involved in Scouting, Little League, and camping with his family. He loved to travel the road in an RV. He also enjoyed hunting and golf.

Wayne and Barbara were active members of the First Presbyterian Church and served several years on the Board of Elders. He is a past member of BPOE 287 Walla Walla and BPOE 288 Pendleton.

After retirement Wayne and Barbara did much throughout traveling the United States and spent several winters in Florida. His wife Barbara passed away September 2, 2010, after 67 years of marriage. In May of 2015

Wayne moved to Spokane, Wash., to be closer to his daughter and resided at Riverview Retirement Assisted Living. Survivors today include sons Gregory (Diane) Royal, Pendleton, Ore., Mark (Marla) Royal, Pendleton, Ore., and Gordon (Gaylene) Royal, La Grande, Ore.; daughters Ann (Steve) Lamphere, Roseburg, Ore., and Carol (Jim) Thomson, Spokane, Wash.; eight grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren. Brothers Bob, Jack, Morris and John Royal and sister Jeanette Tate, all of Florida, preceded him in death.

The funeral will be held at 1 p.m. on Friday, February 24th in the chapel at Burns Mortuary of Pendleton. Viewing will be from noon to 1 p.m. with service to follow. A reception will be held in the First Presbyterian Church Rogers Room, 201 S.W. Dorion Ave., Pendleton, after the funeral service, and gravesite burial will be attended by family only after the reception. Memorial contributions may be made to the First Presbyterian Church of Pendleton, or directly or through Burns Mortuary of Pendleton.
