Hermiston High School presents 'Fiddler on the Roof'

By TAMMY MALGESINI East Oregonian

Participants and directors. alike, are excited about staging "Fiddler on the Roof" at Hermiston High School.

"Musicals are a lot of fun," said Sean McClanahan, the school's band teacher who serves as pit director. "It's fun to put the drama aspect with the live music, the lights, the whole process is a blast.'

Bemrose-Rust, Jordan Hermiston's choir director, said the show has a lot of good music and was a great fit with the abilities of student actors and musicians. In addition, Broadway because the musical is a classic, she said it should draw a number of people in to see the performances.

"We want to get people in here to see what our kids can do talent-wise," Bemrose-Rust said.

Members of the cast rehearse a scene during a Feb. 27 dress rehearsal for the Hermiston High School production of "Fiddler on the Roof."

Rounding out the cast is a handful of Inland Northwest Musicians members, who are playing in the orchestra pit alongside student performers.

McClanahan Bemrose-Rust, who are both in their first year at Hermiston, convinced Dana Mercer, the school's longtime drama director, to stage Fiddler.

It didn't take much prodding, Mercer said. In her 25-plus years heading up the drama program at Hermiston, it's been Mercer's experience that students come out in droves for musicals.

"They like the singing, they like the dancing," she "Also, there are more said. parts."

A newcomer to Hermiston High School's drama stage is senior Noah Roberts. The talented singer landed the role of Tevye, the musical's lead character.

Roberts said the biggest challenge has been memorizing his lines. The most enjoyable aspect of the production, he said, is working with everyone in the cast.

Mercer said the winter weather caused problems including a delay in receiving the scripts. Despite the hiccups, McClanahan said the rehearsals are going well.

"The choir is doing a fantastic job," he said "And, Noah does a really good job as Tevye.'

Clarissa Nitz was thrilled to get the part of Fruma Sarah. The senior previously performed in "The Music Man.'

"I think it's fun because it incorporates both acting and music," she said about musicals. "It makes me more comfortable with the play."

Bobby Crane, who plays Perchik, also performed in "The Music Man." He said the energy with Fiddler is amazing.

"When we get it right, it's phenomenal," he said.

The storyline centers on Tevye and Golde, who have five daughters. Life in the Russian village of Anatevka in 1905 is said to be as precarious as the perch of a fiddler on a roof.

While attempting to maintain his Jewish religious and cultural traditions, Tevve has to deal with several strongwilled daughters. Despite arrangements by the matchmaker, the older daughters have their eyes on men they

The play will be staged March 3-4 and 10-11 at 7 p.m. in the school's fine arts auditorium, 600 S. First St., Hermiston. Tickets are $10 for adults and $6 for youths and senior citizens.
