No. 10 Stanford beats No. 6 Oregon State to win Pac-12

Associated Press

SEATTLE — It was only fitting that the season in which coach Tara VanDerveer joined elite company with her 1,000th career win included at least one championship trophy for Stanford

Having missed out on a Pac-12 regular-season title, taking the conference tournament by rallying from another early deficit was beyond rewarding for the Cardinal.

"It's super satisfying," Erica McCall said. "It's like tasting your favorite candy."

Alanna Smith scored 18 points, Karlie Samuelson added 14 and No. 10 Stanford climbed out of a 13-point hole to beat No. 6 Oregon State 48-43 and win the Pac-12 Tournament on Sunday night.

The Cardinal (28-5) won their 12th tournament title, the most in conference history, and took the Pac-12's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament. This crown came thanks to a comeback that relied heavily on a defensive stifling performance and bench from Smith. It also provided some payback after Stanford lost twice to Oregon State during the season, the second defeat costing the Cardinal a chance at the league's regular-season title.

Smith shot 6 of 14 and carried Stanford's offense with McCall, the team's leading scorer, held to eight points on 2-of-10 shooting.

"In a lot of ways we have geared our team for the tournament. ... There's more excitement with the tournament because you're playing these teams and three games in three days," VanDerveer said. "I told our team we're a tournament team because of the depth we have.'

While Smith was carrying Stanford at the offensive end, the Cardinal shut down Oregon State and star Sydney Wiese. Oregon

State (29-4) threat-From Sunday ened to run away with the championship game, leading a huge lift off the #10 Stanford #6 Oregon St. 16-3 early and 22-12 after one quarter. But the Beavers shot just 32 percent for the game, made one shot in the fourth quarter, were held to a season low in points and lost for the first time since Feb. 10. Wiese led Oregon State with 13

"Stanford's such a good defensive m," Wiese said. "They scheme people. They know exactly what we're trying to do. Whoever has the ball, they're going to make it tough for us to score.'

Stanford took its first lead since the opening minute of the game on Smith's layup underneath with 7:25 left. Wiese's 3-pointer at the other end was long and McCall added a driving layup to push the lead to 40-36. Samuelson's free throws with 4:23 left gave the Cardinal a 44-38 lead.

Stanford's Erica Mc-Call (24) shoots in front of Oregon State's Marie Gulich in the first half of the Pac-12 Conference championship NCAA college basketball game, Sunday, March 5, 2017, in Seattle.

TO THE People of Wallow County, Thorough this letter I would like to offer my sincerest apology on behalf of myself as well as my car club. In early August 2016, I was driving too fast through your county and did not follow all the laws of the road. Driving at an excessive speed of over 130 mph is unsafe and I will not drive that fast on a public road again. There are many non-public places to enjoy high speeds responsibly and I will follow the rules and will only attend these events in the future. I hope that through this letter we can begin to make up for my wrong doing. Thank you in advance as we all really enjoyed your lovely community. Jacob Goss
