BMCC Foundation offers scholarships

PENDLETON — Blue Mountain Community College Foundation Scholarship applications are available.

The Blue Mountain Community College Foundation welcomes all students planning to attend BMCC during the 2017-2018 academic year to complete their scholarship application. The selected recipients may receive awards, typically from $250 to $3,000, for tuition, books and fees at BMCC. There are over 60 scholarships in one application. The application deadline is March 15, 2017.

The application is located on the BMCC web page at www.bluecc.edu. Click on the Foundation/Scholarship orange tab and it will take you to the scholarship page. Also listed are other local scholarship opportunities.

For more information, contact Margaret Gianotti at the BMCC Foundation, 541-278-5775, or email mgianotti@bluecc.edu.

Hospital auxiliary announces medical scholarships

HERMISTON — Students pursuing higher education in the field of medicine are invited to apply for $1,500 scholarships for the 2017-18 school year.

To be eligible for the Good Shepherd Medical Center Auxiliary scholarships, a student's home residence must be within the areas served by Good Shepherd Health Care System. Those communities include Hermiston, Boardman, Echo, Irrigon, Stanfield and Umatilla. Also, applicants must have successfully completed at least one year of study in the field of medicine at a college or university.

The deadline to apply is Friday, April 28. Application forms are available at the hospital gift shop, 610 N.W. 11th St., Hermiston, or by calling the director of volunteer services at 541-667-3690.

PEO Chapter BJ offers scholarships

Pendleton P.E.O. Chapter BJ is offering two scholarships to women graduates of local high schools.

Created by their sons as a memorial to former Pendletonians Gladys and Dr. Harry Masenhimer, the Gladys and Harry Masenhimer Memorial Scholarship will be awarded to a woman or woman who plan to attend Blue Mountain Community College for the 2017-2018 school year. The chapter reviews applications for this award and selects winners of one or more scholarships in the amount of $500 to $2,000.

Also, the chapter is offering a Blue Mountain Community College Scholarship in the amount of $2,000 to a young woman planning to enroll as a full-time student at BMCC.

Any woman who is a graduate of Pendleton, Pilot Rock, Nixyaawwii, Weston-McEwen or Griswold high schools is eligible to submit an application for these awards. Each applicant shall have previously completed a minimum of three terms or two semesters of post-secondary study as a full-time student at any institute of higher education.

Guidelines and applications for these scholarships are available from Margaret Gianotti, Blue Mountain Community College Foundation director, at the Foundation's office on the BMCC campus in Pioneer Hall.

P.E.O. is a philanthropic organization, where women celebrate the advancement of women; educate women through scholarships, grants, awards, loans and stewardship of Cottey College; and motivate women to achieve their highest aspirations.

Submit information to: community@eastoregonian.com or drop off to the attention of Tammy Malgesini at 333 E. Main St., Hermiston or Renee Struthers at 211 S.E. Byers Ave., Pendleton. Call 541-564-4539 or 541-966-0818 with questions.
