Baby, toddler program encourages learning

HERMISTON — A program to support early literacy development is offered at the Hermiston Public Library.

Baby & Me Learn & Play is each Wednesday at 10 a.m. It's designed for newborns and toddlers up to 4 years old and their parents. Those attending need to enter through the library's back door, 235 E. Gladys Ave., Hermiston.

The program engages youngsters, gets them excited about music and works on improving fine and gross motor skills. There is no fee to participate.

For more information, call 541-567-2882.

Deadline looms for economic development grants

PENDLETON — The application deadline for community and economic development grants, which are made possible by Oregon Lottery ticket sales, are soon Managed by Umatilla County Community and Economic Development, the applications must be received by commissioner Bill Elfering by Monday, March 27. The review committee will consider the applications Wednesday, March 29.

Money is utilized to stimulate economic development, promote tourism and support community development in Umatilla County communities. The Community Development grants are focused on projects that enhance a community rather than simply being a donation sponsoring an event, cause or activity. The result is that something of tangible, lasting value remains in the community beyond the end of the project. An application and more details are available at www.co.umatilla.or.us/ BCC/grants.html. For more information, call Elfering at 541-278-6204.

Museum foundation plans special board meeting

UMATILLA — A special board meeting of the Umatilla Museum and Historical Foundation board is planned to inform current members of changes and allow the election of board members and officers.

The meeting will be held Saturday at 11 a.m. at the museum, 911 Sixth St., Umatilla. All current members are encouraged to assist the vice president in a successful transition toward future endeavors.

For more information, call the museum at 541-922-

Writing class encourages sharing stories

IONE — Budding authors or those wanting guidance in sharing their stories are invited to attend a free writing class.

Writing the Stories of Your Life started Monday and is offered weekly through April 24 at 10:30 a.m. at Ione Community Church, 375 E. Main St. Stacy Shelton is facilitating the informal sessions, which will encourage people to share some of their stories and put them on paper for family and friends.

Each week, participants will write one-two pages as homework. During the weekly sessions, the group will brainstorm a topic and share what they wrote the previous week.

Shelton said it's not designed as an English class and will not involve red marks on papers or grades. For more information, contact stacy.shelton@ gmail.com.

Lions Club heads up smoke detector project

By TAMMY MALGESINI East Oregonian

The Pendleton Lions Club was moved to action after hearing the Pendleton Fire Department chief discuss fire safety during a recent presentation. "Mike Ciraulo said he never took a dead body out of a house with a working smoke detector," said John Taylor, past president of the club. "That really made an impact." Taylor, along with Lyle Jensen, are co-chairing a Lions Club project that will replace or install working smoke detectors in homes in and around Riverside Mobile Estates. Taylor said they targeted the neighborhood after

Ciraulo said there had been several structure fires in the area. Members of the Lions Club, the fire department and students from Blue Mountain Community College will set out Saturday at 9 a.m. to provide the service free of charge. People are not obligated to allow the group in to make the installation — it's purely volunteer, Taylor said.

Members of the Pendleton Lions Club will install working smoke detectors Saturday in residences in the vicinity of Riverside Mobile Estates in Pendleton.

In addition, residents are eligible for a smoke detector — regardless whether they rent or own the home. The installation process is quick and simple, Taylor said. Teams consisting of Lions Club members, BMCC student volunteers and representatives from the fire department will be armed with ladders. drills and screws to put the smoke detector in place and then test it.

Although the club was too late in applying for a grant from the Oregon Office of the State Fire Marshal, Taylor said they decided to fund the project themselves. The group provided $1,000 from its own coffers to purchase the supplies, which includes a 10-year battery.

"We want to do what we can to help save people's lives," Taylor said.

The club, Taylor said, plans to move forward with the effort as part of an ongoing project. They hope to perform the community service again in the fall.

Fire officials encourage people to check their smoke detectors at least twice a year during the time changes to ensure they are working.

For more information about the Lions Club smoke detector project, including to make donations for future smoke detector distribution, call Taylor at 541-240-0579. The fire department can be reached at 541-276-1442.
