

NBA
Trail Blazers rout Knicks

Associated Press

PORTLAND—Damian Lillard knows what can happen in games like Thursday.

So with the New York Knicks sitting Carmelo Anthony and Derrick Rose, Lillard made sure the Portland Trail Blazers didn't go easy on the guys who did play.

Lillard scored 30 points and the Trail Blazers never trailed in a 110-95 victory.

"I know how these games can go," Lillard said. "You can come out and take for granted that guys like D. Rose and Carmelo are not playing and say, 'All right this is going to be an easy win.' I think it was my third year, towards the end of the year, we played Utah and everybody sat out. They came in here and beat us."

With that memory in mind, the Blazers rolled.

Lillard had 15 in the first quarter as Portland opened a 14-point lead. The Blazers led by as much as 23 and moved within a game of the Denver Nuggets for the eighth and final playoff spot in the Western Conference.

Kristaps Porzingis scored 18 points for the Knicks.

Lillard entered Thursday's game averaging 31.2 points since the All-Star break and didn't cool off. He has scored 25 or more in eight straight games, a career-best streak.

Reserves Allen Crabbe, Al-Farouq Aminu and Meyers Leonard all connected from 3-point range in the second quarter, helping the Blazers extend their lead to 21 at halftime. Portland went 11 for 21 (52 percent) from behind the arc.

UP NEXT

Knicks: The Knicks travel to San Antonio to take on Kawhi Leonard and the Spurs on Saturday.

Blazers: Portland will host the slumping Minnesota Timberwolves on Saturday.
