Seahawks' Boykin in vehicle that hit 7 on Dallas sidewalk

Associated Press

DALLAS — Seattle Seahawks backup quarterback Trevone Boykin has been arrested in Dallas after police say he was in a vehicle that hit seven people on a sidewalk.

Jail records show the former TCU quarterback was booked early Monday on misdemeanor charges of public intoxication and possession of marijuana. Bond was $500.

Police say a vehicle backed onto a sidewalk and struck seven pedestrians and a bar, slightly injuring a bartender. None of the injuries is life threatening. The female driver was arrested, accused of felony intoxication assault with a vehicle.

The Seahawks say they are "disappointed" and are gathering more information.

In 2015, Boykin was suspended for TCU's Alamo Bowl game after his arrest following a bar fight. Last June, he pleaded no contest to resisting arrest and received a year's probation.

MORE BACKERS

The Seattle Seahawks continue to stockpile linebackers, bringing back Dewey McDonald and signing free agent Terence Garvin.

The signings were listed on the NFL transaction report Monday. McDonald was an exclusive rights free agent who was a special teams standout last season for the Seahawks. McDonald appeared in a career-high 14 regular-season games and was second on the team in special teams tackles.

After spending his first three seasons with Pittsburgh, Garvin appeared in 16 games last season for Washington. He had 16 tackles.

Seattle has signed four linebackers in the past week, looking to add depth at the position behind starters K.J. Wright and Bobby Wagner.

Golf

Dustin Johnson withdraws from Houston Open

Associated Press

HUMBLE, Texas — Dustin Johnson has withdrawn from the Shell Houston Open to rest from his five-day victory in Match Play.

Johnson won his third straight tournament Sunday when he won two matches that went the distance, a 1-up victory over Hideto Tanihara in the semifinals and a 1-up victory over Jon Rahm in a championship match that Johnson had led 5 up with 10 holes to play.

Johnson noted that he has played seven rounds in the last five days, and he thinks he should give his mind and body a break going into the Masters.
