ADAMS

Town to celebrate start of Little League season with food and fun

By TAMMY MALGESINI East Oregonian

Members of the Adams Ladies Club are gearing up for the annual spring celebration that features baseball and apple pie and surely people might be able to find a hot dog or two as well.

The Adams Day event helps kick off the Triangle Little League season. And, the ladies make sure there's plenty of food and fun.

"Every child needs to be a part of something that's bigger than themselves ... and organized sports is a good way to do that," said Miriam Gilmer, who's heading up the Adams Day parade and publicity. "You learn what it's like to be a part of a team because more people are stronger than

Adams Day is Saturday, April 8 and it starts with a hearty breakfast of biscuits and gravy ($5) from 7-10 a.m. in the Adams Friendship Center. In addition, homemade cinnamon rolls and pie will be available until 2 p.m. The Adams Day parade gets moving at 9 a.m., which includes Little League participants, royalty, floats, musical groups/marching bands, mounted groups, antique vehicles and other children's entries. Ribbons will be presented to the top three entries in each category. To register, call Gilmer at 425-748-4487.

The event features a full day of baseball festivities, the Adams Public Library book sale and vendors in the park. The park vendors, include Gilmer said, everything from plants and jewelry to toys and clothing. Also, she said there will be a number of food options. The 2016 event featured more than 40 vendors. The cost for booth space is $5. For more information, call Mary Patterson at 503-440-2082.

Although not officially a part of the Adams Day event, Gilmer said yard sales always sprout up around town. This offers local residents a chance to do some spring cleaning and people may find some hidden treasures.

In addition to Adams Day, the Adams Ladies Club also sponsors an annual Thanksgiving dinner, produces a Christmas pageant and maintains the rose garden at Adams City Park. The club was established in 1889.

For a full schedule or to download a parade application, visit www.cityofadamsoregon.com. For more about the club, call Patterson at 503-440-2082.

Prison program rides away with donations

UMATILLA — People can donate used bicycles for the Two Rivers Correctional Institution Cycles of Hope program.

The Cycles of Hope program repairs donated bicycles and delivers them to local charities. Adults in custody at TRCI's minimum security facility learn valuable skills along with an opportunity to give back to the community. Scott and Steve Cimmiyotti from Scott's Cycle in Hermiston volunteer to train inmates in bicycle repair.

People can drop off donations Friday and Saturday at Java Junkies, 1510 Sixth St., Umatilla. A trailer will be on site to accept the bikes and individuals making a donation will receive a coupon for half off any beverage.

For more information on Cycles of Hope or bicycle donations, call Sgt. Kevin Hodges at 541-922-2100.

Fishing derby reels in family fun

UMATILLA — The Oregon Department of Fish and Wildlife provides an opportunity to introduce youth to the fun of fishing through Family Fishing Days.

The first local event of the season is the Kid's Fishing Derby, which is sponsored by Tom Denchel Ford Country. The free event is Saturday from 10 a.m. to noon at the McNary Ponds, located near McNary Lock and Dam. The Family Fishing Events take place at stocked ponds throughout the state. ODFW staff and volunteers provide equipment, teach youth how to bait and cast, and help kids reel in their catch. Adults can get tips on basic rigging, fish identification and casting.

The program provides a unique opportunity for families to learn how to fish together and discover just how much fun it can be. Licenses are required for anyone 12 years and older and are not available at the events. Fishing licenses can be purchased from licensed sales agents or at www.dfw. state.or.us.

For more information about the Family Fishing Days, call William Duke at 541-276-2344.
