BRIEFLY

Man pleads guilty in Pendleton armed robbery

PENDLETON — Dennis Lee Burgess, 31, of Pendleton, pleaded guilty to his role in an armed robbery in November.

Burgess faced 13 counts stemming from the Nov. 2 hold-up at Indian Hills Chevron, 309 S.E. Nye Ave., Pendleton. He took a deal and on March 3 pleaded guilty in Umatilla County Circuit Court to two counts of attempted first-degree robbery. Circuit Judge Christopher Brauer sentenced him to seven years, six months in state prison.

Pendleton police arrested Burgess and Peggy Turk, 31, of Adams, on the night of the crime following a 9-1-1 call that a suspect armed with a rifle threatened an employee of the gas station and robbed the place.

Turk had pleaded not guilty to charges of first-degree robbery, second-degree theft, menacing and conspiracy to commit second-degree theft. She has a pretrial conference May 24 in circuit court in Pendleton. She remains free on bail.

Man pleads guilty to attempted rape, sodomy

HERMISTON — The 21-year-old man Hermiston police arrested in 2016 for sexually assaulting his ex-girlfriend now is doing prison time.

Antonio Rodriguez faced charges of first-degree burglary, first-degree sexual abuse, first-degree attempted rape, all felonies, and misdemeanor charges of fourth-degree assault, menacing and strangulation stemming from his July 25 sexual attack on the mother of his child. Police arrested him soon after.

Umatilla County Circuit Court records show Rodriguez in February took a deal and pleaded guilty to attempted first-degree rape and attempted first-degree sodomy. The crime also was one of domestic violence.

Circuit Judge Daniel Hill of Hermiston sentenced Rodriguez to 35 months in state prison for each crime. Rodriguez also received 10 years of post-prison supervision.

Rodriguez now resides at Eastern Oregon Correctional Institution. His earliest release date, according to the state's offender website, is March 24, 2021.

Hermiston sex offender faces new charges

PENDLETON — The Umatilla County District Attorney's Office is bringing a new case against convicted sex offender Robert Wayne Price of Hermiston.

Circuit court records show a Umatilla County grand jury in early February indicted Price, 50, on two counts of first-degree sexual abuse of a girl younger than 14. The indictment alleges Price molested the child in January and June of 2011.

Price had an arraignment Monday in Hermiston to face the new charges. According to court records, he appeared via video from the Snake River Correctional Institution, Ontario.

That's where Price is serving a five-year sentence after pleading guilty in December 2015 to three counts of attempted second-degree sexual abuse.

Violent confrontation in Hermiston sends man to prison for two years

HERMISTON — Orlando Garcilazo Madrigal will serve two years in prison for using a gun to threaten a man last year in Hermiston.

Madrigal, 31, of Irrigon, faced 14 counts stemming from a June 8, 2016 confrontation in which he pointed a pistol at a man's head at Southgate Village Apartments, 1105 S. First St., Hermiston, and tried to pull his ex-girlfriend from a vehicle.

Court records show Madrigal took a deal on March 16 and pleaded guilty to unlawful use of a weapon and attempted first-degree burglary, both felonies.

Circuit Judge Christopher Brauer

sentenced Madrigal to 13 months on the weapons charge and 11 more for the attempted burglary. The sentencing was part the deal Madrigal made with the Umatilla County District Attorney's Office. He also will serve two years of post-prison supervision.

He now is at the Oregon Department of Corrections' Coffee Creek Intake Center, Wilsonville.

Madrigal in 2014 pleaded guilty to second-degree disorderly conduct, a misdemeanor, in exchange for the state dismissing multiple charges of menacing and unlawful use of a weapon against another. He also is the brother of Alonso Madrigal, 23, who was shot and killed March 4 in Hermiston. That case remains an active investigation.

Judge to examine victim's records in Hermiston rape case

HERMISTON — Circuit Judge Dan Hill will review sensitive files in the case of Hermiston rape defendant Jose Marvin Antonio Perdomo Funez.

Defense attorney L. Kent Fisher of Pendleton filed a motion in early March to have a judge conduct an "in camera," or "private," inspection of social services, mental health, medical, and education records related to the alleged victim in the case.

According to the filing, the Umatilla County District Attorney's Office joins in the request for the review.

Hill approved the request Thursday. The court schedule shows the records are due to the judge on April 13.

The state accused Funez, 30, of committing first-degree rape and first-degree sexual against one woman on Aug. 5, 2016. He has pleaded not guilty to charges and has been free on recognizance since December, according to court records. His next court appearance takes place May 1.
